"JEST 'FORE CHRISTMAS"
BY EUGENE FIELD.

FATHER calls me William, sister calls me Will,
Mother calls me Willie, but the fellers call me Bill.
Mighty glad I ain't a girl—ruther be a boy
Without them sashes, curls an' things that's worn by Fauntleroy!
Love to chawnk green apples an' go swimmin' in the lake—
Hate to take the castor ole they give for belly ache!
'Most all the time, the whole year round, they ain't no flies on me,
But jest 'fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be!

Got a yeller dog named Sport, sick him on the cat;
First thing she knows she doesn't know where she's at!
Got a clipper sled, an' when us kids go out to slide
'Long comes the grocery cart, an' we all hook a ride!
But sometimes when the groceryman is worried an' cross

He reaches at us with his whip an' larrups up his boss,
An' then I laff an' holler, "Oh, ye never teched me!"
But jest 'fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be.

Grammar says she hopes that when I git to be a man
I'll be a missionarier like her eldest brother Dan,
As was et up by cannibals that lives on Ceylon's isle,

Where every prospeck pleases an' only man is vile.
But grammar she has never been to see a wild west show

Nor read the life of Daniel Boone or else I guess she'd know
That Buff'lo Bill an' cowboys is good enough for me!
But jest 'fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be!

An' then old Sport he hangs around as solemn-like an' still;
His eyes they seem a-sayin', "What's the matter, little Bill?"
The old cat sneaks down off her perch an' wonders what's become
Of them two enemies of hern that use to make things hum!
But I'm so polite an' 'ten' so earnestly to biz
That mother says to father, "How improved our Willie is!"
But father, havin' been a boy himself, suspicions me
When jest 'fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be!

For Christmas, with its lots and lots of candy, cakes and toys,
Was made, they say, for proper kids and not for naughty boys;
So wash yer face an' brush yer hair an' mind your p's an' q's,
An' don't bust out yer pantaloon, an' don't wear out yer shoes;
Say "yessum" to the ladies an' "yessur" to the men,
An' when there's company don't pass your plate for pie again,
But, thinkin' of the things yer'd like to see upon that tree,
Jest 'fore Christmas be as good as yer kin be!

EUGENE FIELD.

A False Alarm.

Over the telephone a worried voice addressed the proprietor of a small hardware store in a west Kentucky town.

"Say," the speaker began, "I come in your place today and bought one of them dollar alarm clocks, and you set her for me to go off at 5 o'clock in the mornin'. D'ye remember?"

"Yes," said the hardware man, "I remember."

"Well," went on the other, "I've just found out that I don't have to git up at 5 o'clock in the mornin'."

"Glad to hear it," said the hardware man, "but what do you want me to do about it?"

"I want you," said the customer, "to tell me how to unalarm this clock."—Saturday Evening Post.

HEALTH INSURANCE

Free Sport.

An angler was fishing contentedly in a stream near an insane asylum when one of the inmates appeared upon the scene. Sport had been poor, and the sportsman was overjoyed when at last he landed a beauty. He was gazing with pride at his catch when the visitor asked:

"Do you sell them fish, mister?"

"Sell 'em?" responded the angler. "No fear. I'm a sportsman, not a fish monger. I fish for the sport of catchin' 'em."

"Oh, you do, eh?" remarked the visitor as he kicked the capture back into the water. "Well, now you can have some more sport catching that one again."—London Answers.

Gloves and Thimbles.

"One of the hardest things for shop pers to learn is that the size of gloves and thimbles does not coincide," said a Sixth avenue salesman. "If the woman who wears a No. 6 glove asks her husband to buy a thimble for her she tells him to get a No. 6 thimble. If he takes that size the chances are it will only stick on the tip of her little finger. She needs a No. 8. Of course there are exceptions to the rule, for in thimbles, as in gloves, there are great differences in the make, and a great deal depends, too, upon the peculiarities of the hand. But, as a rule, thimbles run about two sizes larger than gloves."—New York Times.

Not Crazy.

"Do you think Oscar proposed to me merely on account of my money?"

"Well, my dear, you know he must have had some reason."—Flegends Blatter.
