WILL APPOINT MR. TACKETT

Fredricksburger to go on V. M. I. Board—Gov. Swanson to Open the Campaign in Spotsylvania.

Mr. C. O'Connor Goodrick was in Richmond Thursday and saw Gov. Swanson concerning the appointment of Mr. Charles Tackett, of this city, as a member of the Board of Visitors of the V. M. I. The second most prominent board in the state. Before he left he obtained from the Governor the assurance that Mr. Tackett would be appointed and the appointment announced this week. Mr. Tackett is an ardent V. M. I. man and his appointment will give general satisfaction to the friends of the school.

Mr. Goodrick, at the request of Chairman Coleman of the county Democracy, also talked with the Governor relative to a speech by him at October court and after explaining that the Democrats out there were very anxious for him to open the campaign, secured from the Governor a tentative agreement to speak on the first day of the term, Monday, Oct. 5th. He is definitely determined that Gov. Swanson will speak that day and this will be known next week, preparations will be made to have a roaring Democratic meeting and it is possible that a Ryan, Kern and Jones club will be organized in the county at that meeting. The Governor has never been to Spotsylvania and expressed to Mr. Goodrick a strong desire to speak there. According to the latter he is enthusiastic over Ryan's campaign and is sanguine of Democratic success in both State and county.

The Governor will be unable to accept the invitation to this city on the 30th, as he is scheduled to speak in Lynchburg at that time.

MR. C. W. EDRINGTON AT HOME

Mr. C. W. Edrington came home from Atlantic City Wednesday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Edrington. His many friends here were glad to see him in good condition after having had suffered a stroke of paralysis. There is now some doubt as to the nature of his attack. On Monday he got into a carriage, and was driven to his home on Washington avenue, and greeted friends as he passed on route. He had many callers, and on Tuesday he conversed with them. At 12 o'clock Wednesday night Mr. Edrington had another attack, which was severe. Dr. Tompkins was summoned and he pronounced it paralysis. Thursday morning he could not use his right side and had difficulty in getting up. While his condition is not critical, it is serious.

J. R. GARRISON DEAD

Was in Government Service Forty-Five Years.

John R. Garrison died at his home in Washington Thursday. He had been ill two years and was a well-known government official.

Mr. Garrison was born near Garrisonville, Stafford county, Va., seventy years ago.

He entered the government service in 1863. He was expert accountant in Treasury Department for thirty years, and later chief of the division of duplicate and original receipts. He was made Deputy First Comptroller in 1885 and held that position for eight years.

He practiced law in Washington for several years, then in 1890 returned to the government service, when he accepted a position in the War Department.

In May, 1899, Mr. Garrison accepted the position of auditor for Porto Rico. He went to Porto Rico.

On account of the effect of the tropical climate Mr. Garrison, after four years service, voluntarily relinquished the position and returned to Washington in 1903, to accept the position of chief of the customs division, Treasury Department.

On August 17, 1903, he accepted the position of auditor of the Home Missions, which position he held until his death.

Mr. Garrison's health broke down in 1907, and on May 12, 1907, he resigned as auditor.

He was a Mason.

He married Miss Jennie Davis, of Charles county, Md., and is survived by his wife and two children—Dr. Pledging H. Garrison, assistant librarian of the Army Medical Library, and a daughter, Miss Florence Garrison.

The funeral will take place Saturday at his home at 2 p. m.

NATIVE OF STAFFORD COUNTY

ADJOURNS AFTER A FINE SESSION

The 116th annual session of the Goshen Baptist Association met at Mine Road Baptist church in Spotsylvania county Tuesday, Sept. 8th, at 11 o'clock, and adjourned in session for three days. Capt. C. T. Smith, of Caroline, was moderator. Letters from the various churches comprising the association were read by Capt. S. J. Quinn and Rev. J. M. May.

The annual session was presided by Rev. Samuel Sanders, from 21st and 22d streets of the city of Washington.

Capt. W. T. Smith was elected moderator, A. G. Smith, secretary, Rev. J. M. Boudler, reporter.

The reports on the various boards of the association and discussions all followed in good order.

Rev. C. E. Sanders, pastor of Mine Road church, welcomed the association in a speech that made everybody feel at home.

The Moderator requested Rev. R. A. Williams, of Fredericksburg, to respond in behalf of the association. Mr. Williams was in one of his happiest moods and the cordial welcome extended by the pastor.

Rev. J. S. Ryland read the report and spoke in the interest of Home Missions. Discussed by Rev. A. J. Towns and adopted.

Capt. S. J. Quinn reported on the Laymen's Movement, discussed by Rev. R. A. Williams, Rev. E. P. Hawkins, Capt. Smith, Capt. Quinn and Dr. J. W. Davis and adopted.

Rev. W. J. Decker presented the report on Baptists' evangelism, discussed by Rev. S. E. Tompkins, Rev. R. A. Williams and A. B. Jones, adopted.

Rev. J. H. Whitlock reported on State and Goshen Missions, discussed by Wm. Decker, Capt. Quinn and Rev. W. J. Decker, discussed by Rev. J. H. Whitlock, secretary.

THOMAS, Shoer & Hatter Talks!

If you want Shoes don't imagine that a shoe is a shoe and that any shoe will do, or that one shoe is as good as another, and that every man sells the same quality shoe at the same price; that one place is as good as another place, and that any old place will satisfy.

Just walk along 'til you see this sign over the door:

THOMAS, Shoer and Hatter

820 MAIN STREET.

and then walk in. Here you'll find prices and quality different, the same goods at less price, better goods at the same price.
