THIRTEEN CHURCHES BURNED. There is a reign of terror among the negro inhabitants of a considerable portion of Calhoun, Baker and Miller counties Georgia, as the result of a raid by night riders Saturday night at the trail of the outlaws being marked by the blackened ruins of thirteen negro churches and schoolhouses.

The following buildings were destroyed: Mount Zion Church and schoolhouse, Pleasant Hill Church and schoolhouse, Christ Church and schoolhouse, Little Zion Church and schoolhouse, Belmont Church, Mount Aetna Church and schoolhouse, New Salem Church and schoolhouse.

Many of the best members of the negro race in the three counties named are members of the congregations of some of the burned churches.
