Staunton.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STAUNTON, VA., September 8.—The veterans of Stonewall Jackson Camp met Wednesday to resume regular work after being in vacation during the summer months. An invitation from the Nuff-Rice Camp, of New Market, to attend their annual reunion and picnic in September, was read, and a number of the veterans will be present. Messrs. Arch Kinney, H. H. Fultz and Samuel Hunter were elected members of the camp. Rev. R. P. Ball was transferred from Charles Town to this camp. He now lives in Augusta county. The question of a county Confederate monument was discussed at length by Comrades Gay and T. C. Morton. It is proposed to erect a monument on the courthouse green. A committee was appointed to consult the Daughters of the Confederacy in regard to the matter and report at next meeting. A committee was also appointed to receive a portrait of the late Major Jed Hotchkiss to be presented by Mrs. Hotchkiss at the next meeting.

The young men of the city gave a delightful dance at Highland Park Wednesday night, which proved one of the most enjoyable of the summer. Colonel and Mrs. H. H. Wayt chaperoned the party. Those dancing were Misses Sue Robertson, Martha Young, Sue Bell, Sarah Robertson, Lou Fauntleroy, Louise Littig, Miss Davenport, of Richmond, Lucy Bowles, Mattie Taylor, Jane Gibkson, Elsie Halle and Messrs. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CAPE CHARLES, VA., September 8.—Mrs. William N. Travis announces the engagement of her daughter, Lucy, to Mr. George H. Powell, of Onancock, Accomac county, Va. Miss Thomas is one of Northampton's most beautiful and charming young ladies and has been a social favorite since making her debut two years ago.

Mr. Powell is one of Accomacs most popular and promising young men, and is connected with the First National Bank of Onancock. The wedding will take place October 24, at the bride's ancestral home, "Hermitage," near Cape Charles City.

FARMVILLE, VA.

FARMVILLE, VA., September 8.—The society people of Farmville enjoyed a most delightful german at the Guards' Armory Wednesday evening.

Dancing has been a very popular amusement in Farmville this summer, and among the many germans of the season this one seemed the most enjoyable. Mr. Edwin C. Wade, the usual leader, led many very pretty and intricate figures. Among those who participated in the amusement were Miss March Edmunds and Horace Adams, Miss Mary Wade and Frank Blanton, Miss Bessie Verser and Hugh Gilliam, Miss Bessie Winston and Beverly Winston, Miss Cahlee Wortham and R. W. Edmunds, Miss Carrie Kyle and Reed Edmunds, Miss John Gill and V. D. Venable, Miss Kate Verser and E. W. Wall, Miss Anna Richardson and Edwin C. Wade, Miss Mary Baldwin and Joseph Hubbard, Miss Martha Flournoy and George Fitzgerald, Miss Sallie Cullen and Robert Louis Frerar, Miss Lizzie Richardson and Clyde Bliss, Miss Brantwell and Walter Barrow, Miss Katherine Baldwin and Ben Baldwin, Miss Hattie Bailett and Madison Armistead. The stags were Messrs. Jack Johnston and Charlie Bear.
