SOUTH AFRICAN WAR SITUATION

American Mules Sold to Great Britain for Use by Boers.

KITCHENER EN ROUTE TO JUBO."

British Naval Gunners Committed to the Whole of the Action at Roberts's Fort, South Africa. The Boers Destroyed the Fort, and a Squadron of British Artillery Arrived in Time to Prevent Further Action.

Ryan's Answer to Williams

Tells Why He Did Not Answer the American's Proposition.

Objections Stated

He Charges that the Chief Secretary of the South African Government is Still Under the Influence of the Boers.

The Maine's Martyr Heroes

The Battleship Texas Brings Their Remains to Hampton Roads.

Berntsen of the Maine is Buried in Hampton, Va.

Enroute to Arlington

The Battleship Texas Brings the Remains of the Maine's Martyr Heroes to Hampton Roads.

FIGHT AT SUBIG

LATEST TELEGRAPH FROM THE PHILIPPINES.

The Telegraph FROM PHILIPPINES.

Dakota Dec. 17, 1899.

The Volunteer Corps of the Philippine Islands has captured the town of Sabug, in the north of the island of Mindanao. The Volunteer Corps consists of several thousand men, and is under the command of Major-General Bingham. The town of Sabug was captured without much difficulty, and the Volunteer Corps now occupies the position. The town is fortified, and the Volunteer Corps has to hold it until the arrival of the steamer "Custer," which is expected to arrive soon. The Volunteer Corps is well supplied with provisions, and is in good condition.