

NEWSY LETTER

From New Mining Town in Harlan County, Ky.

Youell, Ky., Feb. 6.—Marion Blair, of Eolia, and Miss Vina Cress, of Roda, Virginia, were united in marriage last Wednesday, the 1st, at the home of Grant Blair, at Poor Fork, Ky., the Rev. Charles Blair officiating. The happy pair left for Roda Thursday, but will return to make their home at Benham. This adds one more to the already long list of weddings that have occurred among the Benham younger set this winter.

Mr. Worthington, of Baltimore, is here, visiting his son.

The rooming house for the store and office force is ready for use, and the carpenters are busily at work on the boarding house.

We have news from Knoxville that Mrs. Peck is slowly improving, and we hope that both she and Dr. Peck will be with us in a few weeks.

The houses are being fenced, so those who wish can begin work on their flower and vegetable gardens. We fear, however, that Mr. Groundhog saw his shadow on the second, and there will be a few more weeks of cold weather before spring is really here.

The Benham Club gave a supper Thursday evening in honor of some visiting friends, who were formally initiated, and seemed thoroughly satisfied with what they received. Evidently Mr. Billy Goat did not fail in duty.

Mr. Oldroyd and Mr. Farmsby, of Goodman Manufacturing Co., were visitors last Saturday.

Dr. Frayser had a little horseback ride Friday, and we have been hearing that he has asked to have his muscles rubbed down. Funny that city folks can't enjoy little things like that.

Mr. Rule, of C. M. McClung & Co., was a visitor in camp Saturday afternoon.

One of our visitors last week was unfortunate enough to have a guide that did not know the mountain trail, and he reached camp the next day after he left Big Stone Gap, having ridden many miles over the country, whose beauty we hope he enjoyed. He had not been on a horse in nine years, and we extend to him our heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. Campbell, from Bluefield, West Va., spent Sunday and Monday in camp.

Mr. Wells returned from Stonega, Sunday, where he has been conducting some tests of our coal in the bee hive ovens. These tests were very satisfactory, the recovery being 61.2 per cent and the coke of very fine quality.

The railroad is still progressing, and can now handle our freights to Baxter; however, we have not yet changed our shipping point. It is reported

Some of the Reasons Why

- We Sell Goods for Cash. 1. Our financial resources makes it necessary. 2. It's the modern way, we have no losses from bad accounts. 3. We eliminate the cost, worry and labor of book-keeping. 4. We save the interest on capital represented in charge accounts. 5. We can afford to, and do sell goods cheaper for cash. 6. We avoid mistakes and losses on forgotten charges. 7. We avoid disputes and misunderstandings with customers. 8. We can keep our stock in a more up-to-date and better condition. 9. We can do the same amount of business with less expense. 10. It is the best policy for our customers.

You Should Buy for Cash

- Some of the Reasons Why. 1. Cash commands the lowest price anywhere. 2. You are never embarrassed by bills you can't meet. 3. You are under no obligations, and can buy where you please. 4. On charge accounts, some are inclined to buy things not needed. 5. You are in a better position to meet an emergency. 6. It's just as easy to stay 30 days ahead as 30 days behind, try it. 7. The debt habit is a bad one, you cultivate the saving habit. 8. You save the extra charges for goods bought on time. 9. You never have to disappoint your merchant friend on due payments. 10. You will be happy and satisfied if pay cash and trade with

Appalachia Notes

Mr. and Mrs. James Russell have a little son at their home.

Mrs. M. L. Stallard returned from a few days stay at Louisville Sunday morning.

Misses Rachel and Mary Breeding were guests of Mrs. King, at Osaka, Saturday.

Mrs. E. D. Mouser and daughter spent one day last week with Mrs. Hagy, at Mendota.

Miss Cora Gilly, of East Stone Gap, visited her brother and family last week.

Miss Minnie Harlowe was a guest of Norton friends Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Wells and son, Jerome, were in town Thursday. Mrs. Wells visited Mrs. Tompkins.

Mrs. Douglas Collier and children returned a few days ago from a visit with relatives at Mendota.

Mrs. Otis Mouser was here from Big Stone Gap last week.

Mrs. T. B. Thompson is preparing to spend a few months at Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Templeton gave a dining at her home last Saturday. The guests who were invited to partake of the good things at her board were Miss Ora Lee Thompson, Cumberland Gap; Miss Cora Gilly, East Stone Gap; Mesdames T. B. Thompson, Judge Gilly and baby; E. C. Mainous and wife.

Surely Rev. J. W. Rader could not have pleased us more than when he united in marriage Rev. J. H. Wagner and Miss Emma Gibson, whom the people of Appalachia love. He filled the pulpit last Sunday at East Stone Gap and Dorton's Chapel.

Mrs. Lettie Russell came from Atlanta Thursday evening to be with her son, who was injured last week. Her son in law Mr. Dudley, came with her, but returned to Atlanta Friday. Mr. Russell's case appears favorable.

Mrs. M. D. Collier, Mrs. S. A. Collier and daughter spent one day last week in Bristol shopping.

Mrs. Slaver, of Bowling Green, Ky., visited in town the past two weeks.

J. A. Mincey, of Bristol, and T. A. Walker, of Knoxville, were among the traveling men at the Windsor Monday.

Rev. J. H. Wagner, minister of the M. E. Church, South, here, accompanied by Rev. J. W. Rader, Presiding Elder of the Big Stone Gap District, went over to Bristol last Wednesday, February 1, where, in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A., he was married to Miss Emma Gibson, of Pulaski. The groom came here January 1 to fill the unexpired term of Rev. D. V. York, and has won many friends. The bride is a popular lady of Pulaski, but during two visits to this place endeared herself to the hearts of the people, who are glad to welcome her in her new position. After the wedding, which was performed by Rev. J. W. Rader, they boarded a train and visited Knoxville and Cumberland Gap, and are now at home at the residence of Mrs. M. J. Holley, where a reception was tendered them Saturday evening by some of the members of the church and others.

NEW BISHOP COADJUTOR.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 3.—At a special council of the Episcopal diocese of Virginia, held here Wednesday, the resignant of Rt. Rev. A. S. Lloyd, D. D., president of the general mission board of the church, was accepted, and Rev. Berryman Green, D. D., professor in the Virginia Theological seminary, near Alexandria, was elected on the first ballot bishop coadjutor to succeed him. Bishop-elect Green is a native of Charlotte county, Va., and is about forty years of age. He has accepted the election.

Nurse Says: "I know what is good for young and old people," writes Mrs. Clara Dykstra, a trained nurse of South Bellingham, Wash., "and will say that I consider Cardui the best medicine for girls and women. It makes them feel like new persons, relieves their pain and regulates womanly troubles. Both my daughter and I received great benefit."

Take CARDUI The Woman's Tonic. As a medicine for female trouble, no medicine you can get has the old established reputation, that Cardui has. Fifty (50) years of success prove that it has stood the greatest of all tests—the test of TIME. As a tonic for weak women, Cardui is the best, because it is a woman's tonic. Pure, gentle, safe, reliable. Try Cardui.
