

Let Your Fall Cloak or Suit be a "Wooltex"

WHY experiment when you can get the best at no greater cost? Every garment made by the H. Black Company is guaranteed to be all pure wool, correct style, and to give two seasons' satisfactory wear. This guarantee is not simply a selling argument, they mean what they say. In all the garments we have sold of their make since we have been in business, two suits and one skirt have failed to come up to the guarantee; one suit and the skirt were promptly replaced, and the other suit is now being repaired—no charges being made and no questions asked. Because we handle only the best quality merchandise we attribute in a measure, the fact, that our sales for the month just passed shows an increase of 181 per cent. over the same month last year.

Again we say BUY "WOOLTEX."

Mrs. E. B. Mouser's Sunday School Class gave a box supper in the class room of the M. E. Church. The proceeds were expended for chairs for the class.

Dr. and Mrs. Stallard returned to their home here Sunday night after a few weeks visit in Ohio.

Miss Mulikin, who has for some time been with the Virginia Wholesale Company, resigned her position last week, leaving immediately for her home in Baltimore. Miss Brownie McKenzie, of Mendota, comes to take her place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ramsey came up from Pennington Gap Saturday night to visit Mrs. Ramsey's mother, Mrs. Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. John Guntner returned this week from an extended tour through the west. Their trip included Yellow Stone Park, St. Louis, San Francisco and a number of other points.

There has already been built or are now under construction between twenty and twenty-five buildings in Appalachia's corporate limits this year besides a substantial iron bridge across Powells River. These with other improvements that will be added before the close of the year and the assured water works are encouraging to say the least. But our housing capacity is now inadequate and we could use twice the number of residences we now have.

L. P. Witt was a visitor to Norton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Allan, of Norton, and Mrs. Allan's mother, Mrs. Henry Gray, of Lebanon, Va., were shopping in town Thursday.

Miss Ruby Kemper, of Big Stone Gap is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. B. Mouser.

Mrs. Veach, of Dante, Va., visited her mother, Mrs. Ayers, here Saturday, leaving Sunday for Asheville, N. C.

C. F. Kidwell, of Baltimore, was in town Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Jesso, of Jonesville, visited her brother, Dr. Stallard, this week.

Mrs. White, Mrs. Crocker and Miss Gilliam, of Roda, were among the out of town shoppers Saturday.

Mrs. Bunn, of Big Stone Gap, was in town Friday.

Miss Cynthia Bausell, of St. Paul, is visiting Mrs. J. S. McConnell this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kaylor have returned from a two weeks' vacation in Tennessee.

J. S. McConnell went to St. Paul Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lee are visiting Mr. Lee's parents at Livingston, Tenn., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mouser, Miss Ruby Kemper, Miss Minnie Harlowe and Mr. Maddox were visitors in Coeburn Sunday.

Warren Emmert, conductor on train No. 61, on the Virginia and Southwestern, while repairing a drawhead fell 45 feet from a bridge near Gate City Sunday, and suffered two broken ribs and other injuries; while his injuries are serious yet they are not thought fatal. He was brought to his home at this place Sunday evening.

Coeburn Boy In Trouble.

Roy Hartsock, who was arrested by the Bristol, Va., police on a warrant charging attempted criminal mistreatment of a young girl, was given a preliminary hearing before Squire Preston, at Pitts' store, near the V. & S. W. car shops, Wednesday afternoon and held to the grand jury in $2,500 bail. Hartsock was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Maude Blalock, a young girl of some sixteen years of age and living in northwest Bristol. The trial attracted considerable attention and a large crowd was present. The girl was put on the stand and told her story fully. Hartsock went on the stand and denied the charge in toto. However, the justice thought the evidence justified holding the young man to the grand jury and he was bound over and his bond fixed at $2,500. His bondsmen were W. L. Mily and a man by the name of Mende, both of whom live at Coeburn, Va., one of whom stated that he was worth $25,000 in real estate and the other $25,000 in real estate and goods.

It seems that Hartsock has a half brother living in the suburbs of the city and that he had been visiting at the latter's home. Squire Preston stated that he had known the young girl since childhood and that she had borne an excellent reputation. Hartsock is about twenty-four years old and stoutly protests his innocence of the charge against him.—Bristol Herald Courier, Oct. 6.
