The Asheville Citizen:

Robert H. Kane's Manhattan Opera Company presented the revival of the New York Casino success, "When Reuben Comes to Town" to a large and intelligent audience at the Academy of Music last night and from the applause that the Company received, shows that the Manhattans are thoroughly capable of handling musical comedies as well as grand and light operas to the entire satisfaction of the theatre-going public of Asheville.

Good Plan of Operation.

A record in the Manufacturers' Record tells of a number of important industries that are located along the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad through the efforts of the company's industrial department. At Kingsport, Tenn., "the railroad itself, through its technical force, located and proved the existence of a great deposit of shale, suitable for the manufacture of high-grade brick." After the material had been sampled and analyzed from it and a manufacturer was induced to put in a plant and utilize the material, which was so abundant. In the same way a large Portland cement plant was located at the same town. Other successful industries have been developed, and the industrial department of the road proposes to keep up the work along similar lines.

MR. BUTCHER RESIGNS.

We learn with sincere regret and considerable surprise that we are to lose our esteemed young friend, Mr. Carr H. Butcher, the first of the month.

He has resigned the position he has held for the past three years with the Stonega Coke & Coal Company and Interstate Railroad Company as Assistant Purchasing Agent, to accept a very responsible and lucrative position in Los Vegas, New Mexico, in the hardware department of one of the largest wholesale general merchandise stores in the Southwest.

Previous to coming to Virginia in 1908, Mr. Butcher was manager of the Traffic and Adjustment Departments of C. M. McClung & Company, Knoxville's largest jobbers of any kind.

His resignation was accepted with regret by the Stonega Coke & Coal Company, whom he has served capably and faithfully for the past three years. It will be hard to find a man to fill his place who will serve the company with the fidelity and painstaking care shown by Mr. Butcher.

Though of a very quiet and retiring disposition, Mr. Butcher has many friends at this place, whose best wishes will follow him to New Mexico.

Carter, of this place, sister and brother of the bridegroom.

Two Killed; Others Wounded.

As a result of policeman C. C. Flannery, at Rada, attempting to arrest Wash Morgan, an alleged moonshiner, former U. S. Marshal F. M. Blair and Morgan are dead, and J. D. Blair, all of Kentucky, and Mr. Flannery are seriously wounded.

There are several stories of the incident, though it appears the trouble began at Rada, as stated above. After shooting officer Flannery through the arm and body Morgan escaped over the Kentucky border, and was pursued by the Messrs Blair, in which they and Morgan engaged at a deserted house, where Morgan had taken refuge.

Later news from Rada states that Mr. Flannery was taken to Stonega, where it was found necessary to amputate his arm, so badly had it been shattered.

Mr. Flannery is a son of Reese D. Flannery, of Pennington Gap, and a brother of Mrs. R. W. Flannery, of this place.

Home Mission Bazaar.

The Woman's Home Mission Society will hold a bazaar in the United States Court Room on Thursday evening, Nov. 23. Everybody please come and bring some one with them. Remember the time and date—in the Court Room, Thursday evening, November 23rd.

W. L. Morley, Judge for J. Kelly and Chas. F. Hagan left this morning for a week's hunt in the county of Leno. They will leave the train at Ben Hur, and go thence to Ross Hill, the native home of Mr. Morley. Invitations had come to Mr. Morley from a number of his old friends to come back to his native land and bring his friends for a hunt. This party anticipates such a hunt as will surely break records of all efforts by local sportsmen this season.—Bristol News.
