Rev. E. H. Cassidy, who for four years was presiding elder of the Big Stone Gap District, M. E. Church, South, spent Tuesday morning in town meeting old friends. This is Mr. Cassidy's first trip to this section since he left, nearly three and one-half years ago. He is now stationed at Bluefield as presiding elder of the Bluefield District—Wise Virginian.

The Roanoke Times contained a fine compliment for Judge Skeen one day last week, saying that the Judge, in his efforts to put down vote buying in his circuit, was doing more for Virginia than any man in the State from the Governor down—Wise Virginian.

When the prettiest window display we have seen recently is that of the Kelly Drug Company with their Easter "tricks." The children in town have already gone wild over the rabbits and chickens and all the other pretty things. More than one grown-up was heard to lament the fact that they were no longer of an age to qualify for a tin snike, while the little buns of the most realistic of basket makers.

According to news from Cincinnati something new in the inducements have been made against the voters of Jackson county in Judge Skeen's judicial province. It is reported that Judge Skeen has given a list of names to the voters of that county who are to be paid for their votes. The names are to be paid for their votes. The names are to be paid for their votes.
