Something For Nothing Is Worth While—$8.00 worth of ware for nothing is worth your time to investigate. See our big ad in this paper.—Hamblen Brothers.

J. R. Taylor has been quite sick for several days from a high fever, savoring of typhoid though at time of this writing, the attending physician was hopeful that he would recover before the fever fully developed.

C. F. Blanton has purchased three beautiful lots on Shawnee Avenue between the residences of W. S. Beverly and Malcolm Smith, and will commence, in the near future, the erection of a fine residence on them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kidd, 616 L street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jennie Margaret Kidd, to J. H. Bickle. The wedding will take place early in September.—Louisville (Ky.) Times.

Mrs. J. A. Gilmer and little daughter are visiting relatives in Bristol.

Mrs. J. P. Lewis has returned to her home at Whitesburg, Ky., after an extended visit with friends here, going via Wise, from which place she was accompanied by Miss Bertha Green, who will spend several days in Whitesburg.

Senator and Mrs. Henry S. Kane, who came to Bristol several years ago to avail themselves of the educational advantages which the city affords removed Saturday to their home at Gate City, Va.—Bristol Herald Courier.

W. F. Crowder, of the general office of the Interstate Railroad Company at this place, was called to Knott county, Ky., Monday on account of the death of his step-father. He went from here to Stonega and from there across the mountain on horseback.

Mrs. J. J. Body, of Norton, and Miss Emblen Jennings, of Roanoke, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Body last Friday.

Martin Luther has employed another barber for his shop on Wood Avenue, which makes three chairs for this popular place. Martin believes in taking care of his customers with as little delay as possible.

People Who Know are going to buy a Majestic Range during our Demonstration Week. You would too if you knew. Read our big ad in this paper.—Hamblen Brothers.

Mrs. Andrew Williams had as her guests during the past week her sister, Miss Sula Gilly and cousins Misses Julia Shepard and Maude Gilly, all of East Stone Gap.

Mrs. W. A. Baker and children, Maclauren and Margaret, left Saturday for a visit with relatives and friends at Jonesville.

Dr. J. A. Gilmer has been appointed local registrar of births and deaths for Big Stone Gap precinct of Richmond Magisterial district, and his father, Dr. G. C. Gilmer, has received the appointment as assistant.

Though work on the government building has been going on regularly it will probably be September before the contractors finish, as there seems to be an unusual delay on some of the material.

Frank Baker and "Dutch" Nagel were here from Middlesboro Sunday spending the day with Mr. Baker's parents and friends.

Your Neighbor Knows his Majestic Range uses little fuel—bakes perfect—heats abundance of water good and hot and costs practically nothing for repairs. Let Us Show You Why. Call during our Demonstration Week beginning Monday July 29th.—Hamblen Brothers.

A chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was organized at Norton last week with 23 charter members, and Christened the "Salyer Lee Chapter" in honor of Col. L. H. N. Salyer, who organized a company of 101 men on June 23rd, 1861, to fight for the lost cause.

With the State Summer Normal over, things will be quiet here for a week or two, until the United States Court holds the regular August term to dispose of the usual allotment of revenue blockaders and other violations of Federal laws in this district.

The government is offering a reward of $50 for the apprehension of Emmett Salyer, a Rus sell county boy, whose home is near Castlwood, and who deserted from the United States Army at Fort Logan, Colorado, June 28th, after serving little more than a year of his term of enlistment.

W. B. Kilbourn, one of our popular local insurance men, was taken very sick at Arno Saturday and had to be brought home on a special train. Mr. Kilbourn was confined to his room with fever for several weeks and upon recovering got out too soon and took a relapse, but we are pleased to state at this writing he is improving.

C. B. LIVESAY.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Pippin has asked us to express through the columns of the Post her grateful appreciation of the kindness shown and help given her during the last illness and death of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Wax.

Little Miss Annie Lee Collier, daughter of J. B. Collier, of this place, was quite badly hurt by falling and striking her head against a rock at the home of her grandparents in Turkey Cove, with whom she has been staying. The accident is peculiar in that it was the culmination of a dream Mr. Collier had a night or two previous to the accident in which it was foretold. Mr. Collier became an easy about her, and it was while getting out of the way of the team her father was driving she stumbled and fell, with above result. Several stitches were necessary to close the wound.

Notice To Contractors.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Council of the town of Big Stone Gap, Va., bids will be received in the Mayor's Office until 5 o'clock, p. m., August 9th, 1912, for the construction of approximately two miles of twelve foot macadam road extending from the School House to the corporation line at or near Kennedy's Store. Said road to be built according to specifications adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Wise County. Plans and specifications may be seen at the Mayor's office.
