

A Good Fruit Salad

Make it from apples, bananas, oranges, and pineapples cut into small cubes. Cover it with a rich cream dressing made from

Virgin Olive Oil

This particular fruit salad makes a delightful and relished entree, but the finishing touch is supplied by the olive oil you use. Don't use any other but Virgin Olive Oil if you want to get the best results.

KELLY DRUG COMPANY,

The Rexall Store

Gilmer & Baker,
Physicians and Surgeons.
Offices in Paddy Building,
Big Stone Gap, Virginia.
All calls answered promptly.

BRISTOL CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE
Bookkeeping
Higher Accounting
Shorthand
Typewriting
Telegraphy
BRISTOL, TENN.-VA.

LOCAL ITEMS.

W. P. McDowell, of Bristol, was among the traveling men in town the past week.

Miss Pearl Mann returned Saturday from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Scott county.

H. N. Broyles, of Norton, was among the business men from our sister town in the Gap last week.

A. K. Mann returned last week from an extended trip to western states, including a visit to his sister, Mrs. Bryant, in Utah.

Geo. W. Wright, of Marion, was among the out-of-town visitors here last week.

Miss Mary Bays, of Baltimore, arrived in the Gap Tuesday night to take charge of Fuller Brothers' millinery department.

H. B. Price, Jr., of Stonega, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Geo. W. Harrington, of Richmond, was registered at the Monte Vista Saturday.

C. S. Pendleton, of Hill Station, Scott county, the new Republican district chairman, was in town one day last week on political business.

A. C. Day, of Mandrake, Ky., was a visitor to Big Stone Gap Monday, and while here paid this office a pleasant call.

J. W. Gaut was on the sick list several days last week threatened with appendicitis.

W. W. Bickley and mother, Mrs. Laura Bickley, are visiting relatives and friends at Danganon, Scott County, this week.

I. C. Day, of Mandrake, Ky., passed through town Tuesday enroute to Tusculum College, Tenn., where he will attend school the coming year.

Dr. C. B. Bowyer, chief of the Stonega Hospital corps spent Sunday here with friends.

G. F. Jones has returned from a business trip through Eastern Kentucky, where he landed a nice bunch of orders.

G. A. Smith, H. N. Broyles and Wm. F. Cocks, were among those from Norton who were visitors here last week.

James and Kimball Matter and W. H. Gildersleeve were here from Middleboro, Friday.

C. Hollenbeck, who has been in the local offices of the Interstate Railroad Company for several months has been transferred to Stonega as assistant agent at that place.

Mrs. A. J. Confor has returned from a visit to Greensburg, Pa., and will remain here until her husband, who has the contract for plastering the new Federal building finishes the contract.

Herbert Lipscomb and H. S. Scott, of Norfolk, spent Friday in the Gap.

W. B. Kilbourn, district agent of the South Atlantic Life Insurance Company, spent last week in and around Norton in the interest of his company.

It is thought now that the new Government building will be completed by October 15th.

Guy L. Pugh, of Bristol, spent Sunday here with friends.

P. W. Stemp, of Cumberland Gap, came in Sunday for a visit with friends and relatives here.

Eugene Brown left Monday for Charlottesville, where he will attend school at the University of Virginia.

J. M. McLemore left Saturday for the University of Virginia, where he is taking a course in law.

W. B. Church, who is now connected with a shoe and harness factory at Welch, W. Va., came in Tuesday for a visit with his family.

Dr. D. F. Orr spent last week at Dryden and other Lee county points in the practice of his profession, dentistry.

Mrs. C. F. Beverley, of Bluefield, is visiting relatives and friends in the Gap this week.

Rev. Wagner, pastor of the Southern Methodist Church at Norton, preached for Mr. Sutherland Friday night in the series of meetings he is conducting at this place.

Mrs. Jas. H. Jeffries, Mrs. Geo. H. Reese, Mrs. A. G. Patterson and Mrs. Wm. Burchfield, of Pineville, Ky., are guests of Mrs. R. L. Parks at the Monte Vista Hotel.

E. M. Andrews, of Greensboro, N. C., was among the guests at the Monte Vista Saturday.

J. M. Hodge, accompanied by his niece, Miss Gibbs, returned last week from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Massachusetts, and other eastern states.

Dr. Thos. F. Staley, a popular Bristol specialist, spent Thursday night in the Gap, enroute to Appalachia, where he spends the first Friday in each month on professional business.

The United, Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter will meet with Mrs. Cochran this afternoon (Wednesday) at four o'clock. All the members are requested to be present.

The macadamizing of the road into Imboden has been completed. This is a splendid piece of road and is very scenic in appearance.

Since the completion of a number of the roads in this section automobiles are becoming as "thick as hops," and more are soon to make their appearance.

Special pictures at the Amuzu Friday night. The United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter will have charge of the show on this occasion.

Albert Lyons, a prominent business man of Rogersville, was a business visitor to the Gap one day last week.

Harry M. Smythe, editor of the Appalachia Progressive, returned last week from a ten days visit to home folks in Tazewell.

L. B. Howard, of Jonesville, was in town Saturday.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter will have charge of the moving picture show on next Friday night. Special pictures will be shown. The dummy will make special trips to the L. & N. to bring all who wish to come.

J. C. and W. D. Fuller, of the local firm of Fuller Brothers, who are interested in four large stores in this and Lee counties and a wholesale store at Knoxville, returned Saturday from the Eastern markets where they went to purchase fall and winter merchandise.

NEW FALL HATS.

We have now on display our line of new Ready-to-Wear Fall Hats. Come in and see the new styles. New standard fashions just come in. The most perfect fitting patterns made. Try one and you will be convinced.

J. M. Willis & Company.

Enamel Ware

that has been thoroughly tested to the highest degree from point of quality, service and appearance is the kind we sell. Buckets, steamers, pots, pans, kettles, and vessels for all purposes you'll find here.

Hamblen Bros.

STAR SHOE SHOP

H. T. PAYNE, Proprietor.

General Shoe Repairing.

Opposite the Monte Vista Hotel. Big Stone Gap, Va.

Half Soles furnished in any kind of leather. Rubber Heels. Heel Plates.

Shop equipped for machine and hand half sole work. Machine sewed work done for ten cents less on the pair than anywhere in town.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

If you want to save money on footwear buy from my line of rebuilt and slightly used shoes. PRICES VERY LOW.

AMUZU CAFE

A. L. GAZO, Proprietor.

Meals, Lunches, Sandwiches and Hot Coffee at all hours.

New and up-to-date rag-time music direct from the publishers.

The only music store in Big Stone Gap.

YOUR PATRONAGE SOLICITED.

Cash Lunch Stand

R. H. BRYANT, Proprietor.

MEALS AT ALL HOURS.

Regular Table Boarders Taken.

Also Groceries Fresh Fish, Ice Cream, Cold Drinks, Bread, Cakes and Fruits in Season.

Mrs. L. J. Poarch and grandson, Charles Fowler, who have been spending the summer with relatives in Greene County, Tenn., arrived in the Gap last Thursday and will make this place their home. Mrs. Poarch has rented apartments in the Touraine and will open a dress making establishment, and her grandson will attend school.

Mrs. J. F. Payne is visiting relatives and friends in Charlottesville.

Fred Kemper, who has been visiting his sisters, Mrs. Otis Mouser and Miss Ruby Kemper in the Gap, left for his home in Evansville, Ind., Monday night.

Mr. Yorborough, of the Interstate Railroad office force at this place, returned last week from a visit to relatives and friends in Richmond and other Virginia cities.

Harry Torbert, superintendent for the Plowman Construction Company on the government building at this place has returned from Philadelphia, where he accompanied his family. The work on this building is now about complete and the work of making the side walks around the building and beautifying the premises has been begun.

With the public works that are going on in this section and the building of good roads, everybody that will work can get all the work they can do at good wages.

By going to the moving picture show Friday night you assist the United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter and at the same time will be highly entertained.

The public school at this place has started off with splendid prospects for a good school. The attendance is very large and the pupils seem well pleased with the teachers.

R. T. IRVINE, Pres. W. T. GOODLOE, Vice Pres. & Sec'y. R. P. BARRON, Treas.

Interstate Finance & Trust Co.

Big Stone Gap, Va.

Capital $50,000.00. Surplus $60,000.00.

This bank, under new management, will continue the business upon conservative lines.

SAFETY: Our Motto. SECURITY: Our Pass-word.

Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

DIRECTORS.

R. T. IRVINE, W. T. GOODLOE,
H. G. MORISON, C. S. CARTER,
A. K. MORISON, J. S. HAMBLEN,
W. W. TAYLOR, J. W. KELLY,
W. M. SLEMP.

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

"They are all that you claim for them, more than I dared hope for"

This is what women say who are wearing the

Red Cross Shoe

You have read about it and heard about it, but until you walk in it you can not imagine how comfortable it really is.

It is firm like any other shoe yet the tanning by the special Red Cross process is so perfect that the Red Cross Shoe follows every movement of your foot. It entirely prevents the burning, drawing and aching that stiff soles cause. It is absolutely comfortable the moment you put it on.

Come in and try on the new Fall styles. Oxfords $3.50 and $4. High Shoes $4 and $5.

Look for this Trade Mark

It bends with your foot

W. W. Taylor & Sons.

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES STORM PROOF

1 They interlock and overlap each other in such a way that the hardest driving rain or snow cannot sift under them. Won't pulsate or rattle in wind-storms. They're also fire-proof, will last as long as the building, and never need repairs.

For sale by Local Contractors or Roofers or Cortright Metal Roofing Company, 50 N. 23d St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Big Stone Gap Bakery Co.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT.

We solicit the patronage of the people of the town. Anyone desiring hot rolls should send in their orders by 2 p. m., and same will be delivered between five and six o'clock. Cakes should be ordered the day before desired.