The editor is just in receipt of a fine lot of pears sent him by Mr. L. M. Wade, a prominent farmer of Turkey Cove. Mr. Wade has a large number of trees and his crop is unusually large this year. The lot sent us is of the Kiefer variety and are the finest specimens we have seen this year.

Miss Minnie Fox and some friends drove up to Wise Court House last Friday and found the roads so fine that they made the good time of two hours and a half. Returning they came by way of Blackwood and Appalachia and made the trip with some difficulty. No one should attempt this now in a vehicle, as incompleated parts of the road and work constantly going on in the way of putting in culverts and so on makes driving very slow and dangerous to horses and wheels. At Wise Court House they bought a dozen "Seek No Further" apples, raised by Mr. Jessee in the Hurricane Country, weighing nine pounds, which, for size and quality, proves that no one need go to other parts of Virginia or of the United States to find a profitable field for apple culture.

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES LAID RIGHT OVER OLD WOOD SHINGLES.

2. No dirt—no bother, and when once laid they make a thoroughly storm-proof and fire-proof roof, neither of which can be claimed for the wood shingle. As to price—they cost no more than a good wood shingle, and in some places they cost much less. Roofs put on 25 years ago are as good as new today, and have never needed repairs.

For sale by Local Contractors or Roofers or Cortright Metal Roofing Company, 50 N. 23d St., Philadelphia, Pa.
