Fire at Jasper.

From some unknown cause fire originated in the commissary and office building of the Lovelady Lumber Company at Jasper on Tuesday night of last week, and the entire building and its contents were consumed in the flames. The company had just put in a large stock of new goods and the loss amounted to several thousands of dollars, which, we understand, is partially covered by insurance. A new building will be erected and a new stock of goods ordered, as this company has a large saw mill in operation on Lovelady Creek near that place.
