

You will like our Cigars better

We are sole agents for Cortez, Exports and John, Jr. Cigars. We carry all the popular brands in Porto Rican and Havana Goods. We have all the special values of the National Cigar Stands. If you want a smoke that is equal to your money, come to us.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store

We give you what you ASK for.

LOCAL ITEMS.

C. C. Campbell, of Bluefield, was among the traveling men in town last week.

Miss Ruth Prescott left last Thursday night for points in Pennsylvania, where she will spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Miss Mary Brown, of Norton, spent a few days in town this week visiting her cousin, Miss Anna Marrs.

Sam C. Peery, a prominent citizen of Tazewell, was in town last week.

Mrs. M. H. Graber is visiting homefolks in Bristol this week.

Master Frank Parks returned to his home in Pineville Sunday night after a visit to friends in the city for several days.

James E. Walker, of Pardee, was in town last week.

Robert Imboden, of the Virginia and Southwestern Railway, was among the business men in town since our last issue.

Thomas Gemmill, of Bristol, was in town on business last Thursday.

T. B. Griggs, of Roanoke, was among the traveling men calling on the trade in the Gap last Thursday.

D. H. Blevins, of Jasper, was business visitor to the city this last week.

J. T. Morgan, of Charleston, W. Va., was a visitor to the Gap since our last issue.

W. B. Crawford, of Bluefield, was among the traveling men calling on the trade in the Gap last week.

Mrs. H. H. Naft and little son, of Knoxville, are in town this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willis.

Robert and Lula Mahaffey spent Sunday at Deep Springs, Lee County, visiting relatives.

Misses Olga and Kittie Horton spent Friday and Saturday at Roda attending the closing exercises of Miss Mary Carnes' school.

Misses Rebecca Wade and Cora Mahaffey spent Saturday and Sunday at Keokee visiting friends.

Miss Anna Lewis, of Chicago, arrived in town Sunday morning to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Wade Barrier.

H. B. Price, Jr., assistant superintendent at Stonega, returned last week from a visit to Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Duffy and a party of friends motored down from Stonega Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bossie Palmer left Saturday morning on a visit to relatives and friends at Yuma, Rogersville and Church Hill.

Mrs. Sam J. Toncray and little daughter, of Norton, spent Saturday and Sunday in the Gap visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Anderson.

Morgan Anderson, of Jenkins, Ky., spent Saturday and Sunday in the Gap visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Anderson.

B. L. Armstrong, a well known traveling man of Knoxville, was calling on the trade in the Gap last week.

Dr. Thos. F. Staley, of Bristol, was in town last Friday on professional business.

M. W. Boyd, of Cincinnati, and A. H. King, of Richmond, were stopping at the Monte Vista Friday.

Mrs. Frost Litts returned Sunday night from a week's visit to relatives in Norton.

Francis Camp, who has a position with the Clinchfield Coal Company at Dante, spent Sunday in the Gap.

J. W. Rush, of the Lowry-Rush Company at Norton, and Vivion Mouser motored to Jonesville Saturday morning.

George Blake, of Sweetwater, Tenn., who has been spending several days in the Gap with Isaac Martin, returned to his home Thursday.

W. F. Kibler, of Glamorgan, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Miss Blanche Kilbourne spent several days last week visiting relatives at St. Charles.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Hall, of Norton, motored down to the Gap Wednesday in their new Studebaker automobile.

Little Misses Reba and Anna Barron Collier are spending several days down in the Cove with their grandfather, J. K. P. Barron.

Miss Jesse McCorkle, who has been attending school at Hollins, near Roanoke, returned home last week.

Miss Bobbie Garrison, who has been spending several days in the Cove, returned home Wednesday.

H. H. Eaton, traveling for Mitchell-Powers Hardware Company, and R. E. Gobbel, of E. W. King & Company, both of Bristol, were calling on the trade in the Gap last week.

R. C. Duff, of the R. C. Duff Lumber Company, of Duffield, was a business visitor to the Gap last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Steel and little daughter Hazel of Ottawa, Tenn., spent several days in the Gap last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Archie Johnson near the L. & N. Station.

Mrs. P. M. Reasor and two small sons spent Sunday at Mendota visiting relatives.

Misses Caroline Rhodes, Jessie McCorkle and Miss Kelly, of Roanoke, attended the ball game at Keokee Saturday.

Miss Virginia Beverly and Anna Agee left Monday for Pennington Gap, where Miss Agee will be a bride's maid at the Polly-Pennington wedding this evening at six o'clock.

Miss Georgina Cox, the accommodating night telephone operator, spent Thursday visiting her little sister, Helen, at Roda.

Miss Janet Bailey spent Thursday and Friday at St. Paul visiting Miss Ashby Greear.

Mrs. E. F. Burgess left Saturday for Frankfort, Ky., where she will spend several days visiting relatives. Little Miss Arlene Alsover accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Reasor, of the "Cove", spent Saturday in the Gap.

Floyd Olinger and daughter, Mrs. Creed Reasor, were in the Gap Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tate and Mrs. W. M. Slemp and little son, Campbell, from the Cove, were shopping in town Monday.

Mrs. James Camblos spent Saturday at Keokee with her sister, Mrs. Jack Taggart, who returned with her to the Gap Sunday afternoon for a few days visit with relatives.

Miss Corrie Long spent a few days last week with relatives at Tacoma.

Miss Julia Bullitt left Monday morning for Charlottesville, where she will visit friends a few days and attend the "Finals" at the University of Virginia.

Hon. Harry M. Smythe, of Tazewell, spent several days in town last week on business.

W. H. Gildersleeve returned to Johnson City Friday after a business visit to the Gap.

Mrs. J. B. Wampler and little daughter, Alma Sue, returned last week from a visit to relatives in Gate City.

Misses Grace and Orena Gilly, of East Stone Gap, are spending a few days in the Gap visiting their sister, Mrs. Andrew Williams.

Misses Eura Wright and Edna Stewart, of East Stone Gap, will leave Sunday for East Radford, where they will attend the Summer Normal.

G. W. Orr, of London, Ky., was in the city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Irish, of Jasper, spent Saturday in the Gap.

AT THE AMUZU
Tomorrow Night
"Rorke's Drift"
An episode of the Zulu War.
Intensely interesting, thrilling and much out of the ordinary.
Produced by Edison Company which means the best in Motion Pictures.
REGULAR PRICES: 5c and 10c

FOR SALE—Seven room cottage with bath, hot and cold water, hot water heat with radiator in every room, good basement and coal room, desirably located on Swance Avenue in Big Stone Gap and until recently occupied by myself and family. Will sell at a bargain.—G. N. Knight.

Rav. P. H. Chelf, of Salem, will preach in the Baptist Church Sunday morning, and at night will give an illustrated lecture on the Baptist Orphanage at Salem. This lecture is fine, and the people of the town, especially the children, are cordially invited to attend.

James C. Fuller has been quite sick for several days the past week with stomach trouble, but is better at this writing.

Miss Winnie Mullins, who has been attending school at Roanoke College at Salem, has returned home for the summer vacation.

Miss Edith Ballard left Tuesday for Bristol, where she will spend a few weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cummings and baby left Tuesday morning for a few days visit in Scott county.

Mrs. Ramsey and daughter, Miss Mary Ramsey, are spending a few weeks with relatives in Birmingham, Ala.

Master William Beverly and William Goodloe returned home Thursday morning from Pineville, Ky. Master Frank Parks accompanied them home and is spending a few days with friends in the Gap.

WANTED—A good pay roll man to handle pay roll for a medium sized coal operation. Address "Coal Mines," Box 238, Big Stone Gap, Va. tf

Mrs. C. F. Blanton and Miss Minnie Fox left Sunday night on a visit to Mrs. R. L. Parks at Pineville.

Miss Blanche Witten, of Bluefield, is the attractive guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Sterne, at the Monte Vista.

Pat Hammonds and John Gilley spent Sunday in Gate City.

P. W. Slemp, agent for the L. & N. at Cumberland Gap, spent Sunday visiting homefolks at Blue Springs.

James W. Fox, after a visit of several days to relatives in the Gap, returned to New York Sunday morning.

Marvin Harwell, of the Royal Laundry Company in the Gap, spent Sunday at Keokee.

The Guild of Christ Church will meet with Mrs. D. B. Sayers, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Guy Pugh, of St. Paul, spent Sunday in the Gap.

W. H. Lippis, of Wise, was in the Gap Friday and Saturday.

G. W. Montgomery, of Knoxville, spent Sunday in the city.

J. M. Young, of Richmond, was calling on the trade in the Gap last week.

Edgar Young, who has been spending several weeks visiting relatives and friends in the Gap and Lee county, left Monday morning for New York, where he holds a position with a prominent firm operating in South America.

R. G. Hanson, of the Virginia and Southwestern, with headquarters in Bristol, was a visitor to the Gap the latter part of last week.

Misses Maude Wolfe and Madge Dingess, who have been teaching school at Dante, returned to their homes in the Gap last week for the summer.

Furniture For That New Home

If you want any furniture for that home, you can get it here. We can furnish your home from cellar to garret and from parlor to kitchen, and make your purse go farther than you would at first have believed possible.

Every woman who keeps house should be interested in our furniture. Whether it's a mansion or a cottage, a luxurious home or a cozy little home, we offer the very things to make that home more beautiful and more comfortable, at prices that mean a very great saving.

Call and see us if you are contemplating furnishing an entire house or buying a single piece of furniture.

We have everything you may need.

W. W. TAYLOR & SONS

The Favorite Store of Big Stone Gap

D. C. WOLFE

—DEALER IN—

General Merchandise

Staple and Fancy Groceries

A large and complete line of Shoes that will be sold at a bargain. We also have a line Straw Hats to be sold cheap.

For The Ladies

Needles, Shuttles and Bobbins for use in All Makes of Sewing Machines.

Needles, Shuttles, Bobbins and Belts for your Machine. We can fit any machine no difference what name.

HAMBLEN BROTHERS

Radford Summer Normal

The Radford Summer Normal will offer all the courses usually offered in summer normals for Professional certificates. Courses will also be offered in preparation for examinations for first, second and third grade certificates. Renewal of some forms of certificates is granted for attendance. Free tuition to all teachers. Regular Summer quarter of eleven weeks will also be offered with credit toward certificate. Expenses very moderate. Send for catalogue.

J. P. McCONNELL, President, East Radford, Va.

W. W. Ramey, O. M. Smith, Isaac Byrd and L. P. Kane, of Gate City, were visitors to the Gap last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seay, Miss Annie Hendrickson and S. P. Hurt motored down from Norton Sunday.

Miss Prince, of Bluefield, returned home Sunday after a visit to Mrs. J. A. Sterne at the Monte Vista.

Jessie Anderson, of Blackwater, was in town this week visiting relatives.

Little Miss Hazel Fuller visited relatives in Appalachia several days the past week.

Misses Hannah and Nina Kibler, Messrs. Fink Coeman, Walker, Vance and Rasmie motored down to the Gap Friday from Glamorgan and spent a few hours with the Misses Johnson.

Miss Alice Bruce, who has been teaching at Coeburn the past year, returned home last week for the summer vacation.

C. B. Crisp, manager of the Blue Sulphur Hotel at St. Paul, was a business visitor to the Gap Monday.

Miss Laura Mae Bailey, of Olinger, was in town Saturday.

Misses Cora Mahaffey and Rebecca Wade, from the Cove, spent Saturday and Sunday at Keokee with Miss Rhoda Jones.

Mrs. Sally A. Bailey left Tuesday morning for Johnson City, Tenn., where she is a delegate to the annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Before returning home she will spend two weeks visiting her aunt, Mrs. Daniel Bruce, at Joppa, near Knoxville.

Ball Game Here Today.

The Big Stone Gap and Stonega teams are scheduled to play here this afternoon and a good game is expected, as both teams are now leading the league. Game will be called at 3:30. The same teams will play at Crossbrook Saturday afternoon.

FOR SALE

Show Cases, Tables, Smith Premier Typewriter, Scale, Clothing Racks, Folding Display Stands, Window Display Fixtures, Glove Case, Lace Case, Tall Ladder, Cash Drawer, at

Fred Weckessers

Big Sale

Appalachia, Va.

Across from L. & N. Depot.

MEET ME AT THE MUTUAL

Meet your friends at the Mutual. You will find it cool and inviting. Make our store your headquarters. Glad to have you come in whether you buy or not.