

We have all the things
for shaving and for the hair
Right
Price too

The comfort of a shave depends upon the sort of shaving soap, brush, strop and razor you use and also upon the face balm and powder. We have the shaving stuff that will make shaving a joy.

How about your HAIR? It is easier to keep it from falling out than to restore it after it is gone. Get our TONICS.

We are always glad to make a suggestion.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store

We give you what you ASK for.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Miss Madge Muncy, who is teaching art in the Jonesville High School, spent the weekend in the Gap with her parents.

Miss Sarah Shields, of Cincinnati, arrived in the Gap Sunday where she will teach again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Taggart and children, of Kookee, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Miss Maude Ould, of Norton, spent several days in the Gap last week visiting her cousins, Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor and Mrs. J. A. Gilmer.

Mrs. Sadie Lanham arrived in town Friday night from Washington, D. C., where she spent the past three months with homefolks. Mrs. Lanham will again teach in the public school at this place.

Wise Slempp, agent for the L. & N., at Cumberland Gap, spent Sunday in Big Stone visiting relatives.

Misses Louise Goodloe and Ruth Prescott left Tuesday morning for Staunton, Va., where they will enter school in the Mary Baldwin Seminary.

Miss Matt Brown returned last week from a few weeks' visit to relatives in Jonesville and Pennington Gap.

Miss Kate Brown will have charge of the music class in the Pennington Gap high school this year and left Sunday night for that place to enter upon her duties.

Mrs. J. P. Wolfe, who bought J. M. Willis & Company's stock of goods at this place a few months ago, has sold out to Fuller Brothers.

Mrs. C. Francis Camp, of Dante, spent a few days in the Gap last week with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. McCormick.

Miss Maude Wolfe left Friday for Dante, where she has accepted the position as principal in the public school again for the coming year.

Misses Janet Bailey, of this place, and Ruby Willis, of East Stone Gap, are teaching the school above Blue Springs this year.

Misses Winifrey and Spangler, who are teaching in the East Stone Gap Public School, were shopping in the Gap Saturday.

Miss Olga Horton returned home Saturday from a week's visit to her uncle, I. T. Gilly at Rada.

Miss Cora Mahaffey spent part of last week in Lee County visiting relatives.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eagle, at Cadet, last Saturday morning a boy.

Miss Bess Young, of Stonega, spent Friday in town the guest of relatives.

Misses Margaret and Mary Bunn spent Saturday in Appalachia shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCormick returned last week from a visit to relatives and friends in Knoxville.

C. I. Culbertson and son, Carson, and Charles Young, of Stonega, motored through town in Mr. Culbertson's new Hudson 6 car Sunday.

Misses Kittie Horton, Gladys Wolfe and Mary Carnes left Sunday night for Osaka, Stonega and Rada, where they will teach school this year.

Miss Annie McCormick, of Knoxville, is visiting her brother, J. L. McCormick, in the Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lawson, left Monday on a visit to relatives and friends in Missouri and Colorado. If the climate is beneficial to Mrs. Lawson's health they will probably remain in the west for some time.

John Tucker, the local painter, spent all of last week at Olinger doing some paint work.

Mrs. H. K. Palmer has been quite sick for the past few days.

Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor entertained at six o'clock dinner Friday evening Misses Maude Ould, of Norton, Florence McCormick, Henry McCormick and Billy Mathews.

Miss Cora Mahaffey and Marvi Harwell spent Sunday at Pennington Gap with friends.

H. Sutton Wagoner, who formerly lived in the Gap near the extract works, but who now has a position with the Cambria Steel Company, at Johnstown, Pa., spent several days in the Gap last week.

Pearl Smith and Miss Edna Stewart, of East Stone Gap, will teach the public school at Arno this session.

Miss Glessie Gilly is teaching at Blackwood this year.

Miss Mollie Hurd, of East Stone Gap, is teaching school at Kelly View this fall and winter.

Miss Myrtle Wolfe, who is teaching at Southerland, spent Saturday and Sunday in the Gap.

Miss Janie Thompson spent Friday at Appalachia.

Mrs. L. B. Montague spent several days in Dante this week visiting friends.

Miss Melba Maddox, of Louisville, is the attractive guest of Miss Virginia Beverly in the Gap this week.

FOR SALE—Five room cottage with bath. Splendid location. For further particulars write or call on Owen Upchurch.

J. L. Rose, of Abingdon, the progressive candidate for congress in the Ninth District, passed through town Sunday night en route to Jonesville, where he spoke Monday.

Governor Henry C. Stuart spent Sunday night in the Gap and went to Jonesville Monday morning, where he spoke Monday in the interest of Mr. Irvine's candidacy for congress. He also spoke at Lebanon on Tuesday.

W. F. Bentley, representing Huntsman Brothers of Bristol, was calling on the trade in the Gap last week.

Misses Ora McFarland and Ethel Garrett, of Middleboro, spent a few days last week in the Gap, the guests of Misses Parilee and Hettie Biekeley and Miss Kathleen Knight.

R. D. Baker, who spends most of his time at Hazard, Ky., where he has business interests, is spending a few days in the Gap this week with his family.

Eugene Brown, of Middleboro, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting relatives and friends.

H. P. Wyman returned to Bristol Monday after spending Sunday in the Gap.

Geo. Buchanan, of the V. & S. W., Bristol, spent Sunday the guest of friends in the Gap.

Mrs. L. T. Winston has returned from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Lynchburg and Bluefield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Taggart, of Stonega, spent Sunday with relatives in the Gap.

Col. J. S. Browning, of Roanoke, passed through town Sunday night, enroute to Jonesville, where he participated in the public speaking at that place on Monday.

J. C. Fuller, who has been suffering from stomach trouble for some time, went to Richmond, accompanied by Dr. R. W. Holly, of Appalachia, last week, where he is receiving treatment at a hospital.

Mrs. R. L. Brown, of Middleboro, spent last Friday visiting relatives in town. While here she rented her residence to W. H. Carnes, who moved his family into it on Monday of this week.

W. B. St. John, of Bristol, was in town last Wednesday.

J. C. Pritchard, of Roanoke, spent a few days with friends in the Gap last week.

Dr. Thos. F. Staley, of Bristol, was in town last week on professional business.

FOR SALE—Chalmer's Automobile, 1912 model. For particulars apply to J. B. Eberlian, London, Ky.—adv. 37 39.

Mrs. H. P. Young and little son, and mother, Mrs. Jones, went to London, Ky., last week on a visit to relatives and friends.

Miss Mable Willis returned last week from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Naff, at Knoxville.

Mrs. J. C. Fuller spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Appalachia.

W. T. Morris, of Lexington, was among the traveling men in town last week.

Dr. Hagy, of Inboden, and Dr. Bowyer, of Stonega, were in town last Wednesday.

W. O. Gloster came down from Stonega last Wednesday on business.

M. Redfern, of Louisville, was among the traveling men in town last week.

W. B. Riddell, has returned to Chattanooga, after spending several days visiting the tannery and extract works at this place.

H. J. Brady, a well known traveling salesman of Roanoke, was a business visitor to the Gap last week.

Miss Marguerite Drennen, after a visit of several days to Mr. and Mrs. E. Drennen, at their beautiful home on Poplar Hill, returned to Jenkins, Ky., Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Kemp, of Dorchester, Mrs. J. A. Esser, Miss Esser and Miss Brown, of Norton, were guests of friends in town last Friday.

Chas. I. Wade, Jr., returned Saturday from his vacation spent with homefolks at Christiansburg, Va.

Miss Sarah Shields has returned from her home in Cincinnati to resume her work as teacher in the public school at this place.

Frank Bell, route agent for the Southern Express Company was in town last week on business for his Company.

Joseph T. Alderson, a popular traveling salesman from Middleboro, was calling on the trade in the Gap last week.

Prof. R. H. Akers returned Friday from his home at Snowville to resume his work in the public school at this place.

Kannah Collier, J. H. Matthews, Marshall Belcher and G. W. Scott went to Jonesville Monday morning in Hunter McCorkle's car to attend the public speaking and returned home Monday night. They reported the attendance was enormous, the largest in fact that ever gathered at Jonesville.

W. T. Mahaffey attended the public speaking at Jonesville Monday and returned home with Dr. J. A. Gilmer in his Ford car. Immediately after leaving Jonesville they collided head on with another car on a sharp curve in the road, damaging both cars to some extent.

Miss Ruth Jones, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Castledow, returned home Sunday. Miss Ruth returned before she intended to on account of an accident in which she broke her left arm.

D. R. Doak, a former employee and manager of the Times office at Rural Retreat, Va., arrived in town Thursday to accept a position with the Wise Printing Company. Mrs. Doak and baby came Sunday night and they are at present stopping with the family of W. B. Bounds.

Miss Mary Quillen, of Nickelsville, Scott county, arrived in town last week to attend school. She will stay with her sister, Mrs. N. D. Pressly.

Clint Slempp, of Dot, Va., is visiting his uncle, Ulysses Slempp, in the valley above town.

Will Jeesee came up from Middleboro Monday night to spend a few days here with homefolks.

Miss Berry Pressly, of Rogersville, Tenn., arrived in town last week to visit her brother, N. D. Pressly. She will remain here in order to attend school.

WAR IS HELL

Watch This Space

Piedmont Business College

Incorporated

Fall Session Opens With Large Enrollment of select students from Virginia, West Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Texas and Oregon. Students from other states are coming soon.

Have Enrolled Students From Thirteen States

A package of postal group photos may be had free.

Students Placed From Twenty Colleges and Seven States

See their letters and photographs in waiting.

Thirty-Seven Students From Seven Colleges have recently accepted positions paying as much as $1000. Placed a typewriter and a $25 per month clerk this week.

Our Special September Credit Proposition

will interest you. Scholarship and on credit. Reply for monthly from salary. Positions guaranteed $200 start. Write us today for details. Tuition refunded if we fail.

Ten-Thousand Large New Handsome Catalogs

Keeps interested party should have a copy. Get yours at once. Payment will do more for you. Get the story.

W. P. Musick, Pres.

Sam Jack Musick, Mgr. Lynchburg, Va.

People Who Walk

Must Protect Their Feet

For without good feet they will not go far. Do it THE ONLY WAY—by wearing shoes made for EASE and COMFORT and DURABILITY. They cost no more than other shoes, but are much better, more comfortable, and last longer.

We Sell Them

D. C. WOLFE

Life's Greatest Joy

IS IN THE HOME

Good furniture will add a hundred fold to the joys of your home—like wise to your comfort.

Make your wife happy by telling her to pick out that new set she has been wanting for so long a time.

Then watch the change in her countenance—note the joyous spring to her walk, to every action.

Try it. You'll feel better yourself.

W. W. TAYLOR & SONS

BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA.

WHAT BUSINESS COLLEGE?

The selection is vital. It makes or mars a start in life. No two business colleges are alike. They differ widely. You want the best. Many young people think they are attending a cheap, new or inefficient business college or the so-called commercial or shorthand department of a University or literary school.

Read our advertisement for week points. Careful investigation alone will bring them out. The

ROANOKE National Business College, ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

A Commercial School of the higher order. The one big Business College of Virginia will stand the closest investigation.

For teachers, $25,000 building and equipment, two Commercial Departments, Banking and Office Department, Telegraphy, Dictography, ten typewriters, Shorthand Department of cutting and substituting setting, etc.

Banking as outlined by the Federal Reserve Act. Positions for qualified students. Bookkeeping and Commercial Contract for the boy or young man who prefers to stay on the farm.

All these advantages, one or all studies, six months' tuition only $2000, nine months $2500, twelve months $3000.

Twenty-student, scientific method, etc. Just write today for free catalogue, college journal and specimen of penmanship.

Address

E. M. COULTIER, Pres., Roanoke, Va.

CALL UP 63 AT

Burgess' Pure Food Store

and order a

24 lb. Sack of Beverly Flour

Made from the best native wheat of Scott County and ground by an old fashioned water power mill. It makes the best and healthiest bread possible. You will be pleased. Try it.

Just
A
Word
About
School
Supplies

The Advantage of an Ample Stock

There is always an advantage in making selections from an ample stock. This is especially true where quality is high and prices low.

We urge parents to come in and see our stock. The completeness of it will be impressive and cause you to send the children to us for their various needs. The line includes:

Tablets, Composition Books, Inks, Pens, Pencils, Slates, Crayons, Drawing Instruments, Etc.

We give the children careful and courteous attention.

MUTUAL DRUG CO.

BIG STONE GAP, VA.