

Virginia Stomach Victims Find Wonderful Remedy A Quick Relief.

Sufferers Tell of Swift Results From the use of Mayr's Treatment.

Hundreds of Virginia people are needlessly suffering from stomach and digestive ailments when relief is close at hand, if they would only take it. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy has a record of real results. Thousands and thousands of people have taken it with astonishing benefit.

Here are the words of some Virginians who have taken it: J. H. ROSENBERG, Dante, Va., writes: "I took your medicine and it proved to be just what you claimed it to be. I have felt better since than I have in fifteen years."

WILLIAM M. STEWART, JR., Kinkaid, Va., writes: "I was in bed when I began your treatment and the doctor had been treating me for forty days. After taking the first treatment of your medicine I got up and now am able to be about."

These are typical statements from the people who have taken Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. It gets results quick. The first dose proves—no long treatment.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and removes poisonous matter. It gives quick relief to sufferers from stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Many declare it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it has saved their lives.

We want all people who have chronic stomach trouble or constipation, no matter of how long standing, to try one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy—one dose will convince you. Mrs. W. H. Carrier Dead.

Mrs. W. H. Carrier, who was taken from here to a Louisville hospital last Thursday night and who died at 9 o'clock Monday night, will be buried this afternoon at Big Stone Gap. The funeral will be held at the Baptist church at about 1:30 p. m., Rev. Smith, of Norton, officiating.

The deceased was the mother of a large family, only three of whom are now living—Edna, Margaret and William Carrier, Jr., together with their father, reside here and have the sympathy of all who know them.

She ran the journey of her life in 38 years. It is a path marked with deeds of kindness and cheer. Flowers, not thorns, sunshine, not shadow, did she scatter everywhere. With these she was lavish. Truth was the inspiration of her life and by kindness she exemplified its great worth.

Let us, if possible, gather up the elements of the life of the departed one and weave of them a picture for the walls of memory.

The book of life was opened and a new name was written therein by the hand of love. Soon would be the unfolding of beauties of spring-time days charmed her coming. Today the eternal springtime with everlasting glories belongs to loved one. Her life was a rare jewel, her spirit as gold refined in the fire, ready for heaven.

To her the struggle and burden-bearing of earth is ended, and we confidently trust that like one who awakes from a troubled dream she has awakened to see life's endless morning break and knows herself at home with all the vast throng of loved ones, missed from earth, safe about her. Her home instincts were strong here in this favored world of disappointment. Her affection for friends and kindred was tender and abiding.

Among us all she ranked at ways as a woman of culture, refinement, sympathy, a kind neighbor, devoted mother and a true friend; and withal a woman of heroic mould in bravely meeting the stern requirements and often disappointments of life—Appalachia Progressive.

Dear Sir:

In connection with our agreement as to the use of money, etc., in the present campaign, and confining my recent conversation with you, I beg to say that I shall recommend to and use all proper influence at my command with the electoral board of this district to select a republican judge and clerk of election at each of the voting precincts in the district from a list of five names to be handed said board within a reasonable time prior to said election, by the respective county committees of your party, each through its chairman.

Very truly yours,
R. T. Irvine.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASS'N CONVENTION

46TH ANNUAL MEETING OF NATIONAL AMERICAN WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

ORGANIZED IN 43 STATES

Members From All Parts of United States Will Be in Nashville, Tenn., on November 10 and 11—Many Prominent Women Leaders Will Be in Attendance.

Suffragists from all parts of the United States will arrive in Nashville, Tennessee, on November 10 and 11, for the forty-sixth Annual Convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, and the delegates will represent over sixty branches of the association which have been organized in forty-three states. There will be women prominent socially, in the professions and in all kinds of reform work. Some of the delegates will come from rural suffrage states, and they will tell the result of votes for women from personal experience. Among them will be Jane Addams, of Hull House, who is now in Illinois voting; Mrs. Mary E. C. Bradford, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Colorado; Miss Helen Finkler, of Kansas; Mrs. Frances Munda, of Arizona, and Mrs. Catherine Vaughn McCullough, of Chicago, well-known as a lawyer and justice of the peace. The most interesting women voters, because they will be brand new ones, will come from states where suffrage amendments are to be voted on November 2d. These states are Montana, Nevada, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Missouri and Ohio. Miss Anne Martin, President of the Nevada Equal Franchise Association, writes that she can not miss the National Convention, but, on the other hand, how can she leave Nevada until all the returns are in, and it usually takes a week to know results there.

Sunday evening the officers of the National Association will give a reception to delegates and friends. On Monday evening the most grand and interesting feature of the convention will be a discussion of the "Vote for the Cause in Illinois." This is now making a speaking tour in Ohio, where her supporters are most enthusiastic over her success and will, Mr. Raymond Robbins is well known as the President of the National Woman's Trade Union League, and Mrs. Bradstreet of Chicago needs an introduction to southern auditors.

Miss Jane Addams, First Vice President National American Woman Suffrage Association.

Other delegates, who are leading their state campaigns this year, will be Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, of Ohio; Mrs. Prager Smith, of Nebraska; Miss Jeanette Rankin, of Montana; Mrs. Clara L. Darrow, of North Dakota; Mrs. Walter M. Nab Miller, of Missouri; and Mrs. Jean 1914, of South Dakota.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, President of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, will be in attendance. She will be the only one in the convention who has not been elected to the office of President of the National Association. She will be the only one in the convention who has not been elected to the office of President of the National Association. She will be the only one in the convention who has not been elected to the office of President of the National Association.

The rapid growth of the Southern organization has been such that it is now in a position to be able to conduct a campaign for the vote for women. In fact, it was generally said at Washington last year that the Southern women were the most interesting thing about the Convention. The Southern women will be the most interesting thing about the Convention. The Southern women will be the most interesting thing about the Convention.

Miss Mrs. Crozier French, President of the Tennessee Suffrage Association, and Mrs. Gifford Under, President of the Nashville Suffrage Association, will be in attendance. Dr. Shaw will make the annual address on that evening, and the convention will adjourn on November 11 at 10 o'clock.

Friday, November 11, Voter's Evening will be held under the auspices of the Women's League of Women Suffrage, with Mr. James Lee Wallace, of New York, presiding. At the evening meeting on Saturday there will be a discussion of State and National campaigns, with Mrs. Alice Stone Blackwell, of Boston, editor of the Woman's Journal; Mrs. Antoinette Tibbitts, of Chicago; and Mrs. Gladys Smith, of New York. Miss Zona Gale will read a new Friendship Village story, with a suffrage moral.

On Sunday afternoon there will be a mass meeting at which the speakers will be Miss Jane Addams, Mrs. Rosina Schwimmer, of Budapest; Mrs. Raymond Robbins, of Chicago; and Mrs. Debra Bradstreet, of Chicago. Mrs. Bradstreet is Secretary of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance, and is a most active worker for the cause in Illinois. She is now making a speaking tour in Ohio, where her supporters are most enthusiastic over her success and will, Mr. Raymond Robbins is well known as the President of the National Woman's Trade Union League, and Mrs. Bradstreet of Chicago needs an introduction to southern auditors.
