

We keep all kinds of Brushes and paints

It is not a "toss up" where to buy your brushes and paints. We carry the brushes that will HOLD their BRISTLES and paints that will hold their COLOR.

Do not be up in the air about where to buy your brushes and paints, but come straight to us, see our line and get our prices and you will hunt no further.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store

We give you what you ASK for.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dolph on last Friday morning, a girl.

J. C. Boatright, editor of the Jonesville Star, was a visitor to the Gap last Friday.

J. N. Hillman, county superintendent of schools, of Coeburn, visited this place last Friday.

Mrs. H. H. McClanahan, of Roda, spent the week end in town visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bounds.

Mrs. Robt. Amos and baby, of Roda, spent Friday in the Gap with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Body.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brown and son, Robert, of Middleboro, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting relatives.

Misses Laura and Neli Marrs, who are attending school at the Lee Baptist Institute at Pennington Gap, spent Easter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Marrs, in the Gap.

Mrs. Otis Mouser was shopping in Appalachia Friday afternoon.

FOR SALE:—Rhode Island Reds and Turkey Eggs. Apply to Mrs. J. P. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Morton and baby spent Friday in Appalachia with relatives.

Mrs. W. G. Painter and Mrs. Marvin Kelly were shopping in Appalachia Thursday.

N. D. Pressly, who occupied the Lane cottage on Poplar Hill for some time, moved into the Shemp property on Gilly Avenue last Saturday.

If you want job work done promptly, neatly and artistically, send it to the Wise Printing Company.

Mrs. E. R. Taylor spent a few days at Norton last week visiting her son, Sherman Taylor.

Miss Elizabeth Conner spent a few days in Norton last week.

Misses Georgia Hale, Mary Brown and Keita Cornell, of Appalachia, attended the Social given by the Baraca Class Saturday evening.

Miss Eula Friend who is attending school at Martha Washington Seminary, spent a few days in the Gap visiting Miss Grace Long enroute to her home at Clintwood.

FOR RENT—6 room house with modern conveniences at a reasonable price. Apply to C. C. Cochran.

Miss Addie Catron, of Wise, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Catron, at this place.

Mrs. Goodman and little daughter are the guests of Mrs. Lewis T. Winston.

Fritzi Schöff, queen of light opera, is making her initial bow in the field of films in Washington, D. C., in a charming society comedy drama, "Pretty Mrs. Smith," says an exchange.

Wade Barrier came in Sunday night to spend a few days with his family.

The children of Christ Church Sunday School enjoyed an egg hunt Monday afternoon in the rectory yard.

W. S. Beverly came over from Big Stone Gap last week to attend the Sunday School Convention and to visit his mother. —Gate City Herald.

Miss Mabel Johnson and Prof. Wampler motored down from Wise Sunday and spent the afternoon with Mrs. Robert D. Morrison.

FOR SALE—6 room house with 3 lots adjoining. Will exchange for real estate. Call on S. S. Sampson, Big Stone Gap, Virginia.

Mrs. Sarah Barker returned home last week from a visit to relatives in Mendota.

Mrs. J. S. Johnson spent Saturday at Norton with relatives. Her two little grandchildren, Harry and Ruth Johnson, returned home with her.

Mrs. H. A. Alexander and Mrs. J. H. Hagy, of Imboden, attended the Jonquil Tea at the home of Mrs. J. H. Mathews Friday afternoon.

J. M. Goodloe, of Big Stone Gap, was among those who attended the Sunday School Convention here last week. Mr. Goodloe is a zealous Christian worker. —Gate City Herald.

FOR RENT—6 room house with modern conveniences at a reasonable price. Apply to C. C. Cochran.

Hon. Harry M. Smythe, of North Tazewell, was visiting his nephew, Dr. J. W. Kelly, in the Gap the past week.

Mrs. George Taylor spent a few days at Norton last week visiting Miss Maude Ould, who left on Thursday night for Cincinnati, where she will attend the Conservatory of Music.

Miss Mary Fuller, of Russell County, spent several days in the Gap last week visiting her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilmer.

Miss Rachel Craft, who is attending school at Virginia Institute at Bristol this year, spent the Easter holiday with her father, Rev. J. B. Craft.

Miss Lucile Baughman, who is teaching at Keokee, was shopping in town Friday afternoon.

Mrs. C. L. Nash arrived in the Gap Wednesday from Washington, D. C., where she has been spending some time with her parents.

Carl Jones moved his family from here to Imboden last week.

Misses Reba and Anna Barron Collier spent Saturday and Sunday down in the Cove with their grandfather, J. K. P. Barron.

Give us your orders for ice cream in blocks. Four different flavors in one gallon. —Cash Meat Market.

The Guild of Christ Church will meet with Mrs. H. E. Fox Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

Misses Pearl Massie and Cassie Duval, teachers in the Keokee public school, spent Friday and Saturday in the Gap, the guests of Mrs. Harry Gilliam.

The Woman's Civic League did not hold its regular monthly meeting on last Friday afternoon as announced in the last issue of the Post, but adjourned to meet on next Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Odd Fellows Hall.

Mrs. Jim Chandler and children, of Corbin, Ky., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Darthula Wyatt, down in the "Cove."

S. W. Wax and son, Will, and Claude Kelly left Tuesday morning for Rogersville, where they will spend several days fishing.

Garret Scott spent several days in Richmond last week on business.

Full line of kid and silk gloves. All the latest novelties. —Fullers.

Dr. Thos. F. Staley, of Bristol, was in town last week on professional business.

C. E. Witt was up from Pennington Gap Friday on business.

Hugh H. Eaton, of Bristol, was among the traveling men in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Price, Jr., went to Philadelphia last Friday to spend Easter with home-folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Taylor, of Norton, spent Sunday with Mr. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Taylor.

Martin Stone, of Blackwood, was visiting his brother, Guy E. Stone, in the Gap Sunday.

We handle Peter Korn's, F. O. Stone's and John Davis' cakes. A complete assortment. —Cash Meat Market.

Hubert Potter came down from Norton Saturday to see the ball game.

Mrs. G. B. Southward is in Middleboro this week visiting relatives.

Mrs. C. G. Duffy, of Stonega, was shopping in town Saturday.

Mrs. Everett Drennen entertained the dancing club last Monday night.

E. R. Taylor, of Jenkins, Ky., spent several days last week visiting his family in the Gap.

Rev. W. H. Wampler, of East Stone Gap, will preach at the Southern Methodist Church here on next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Misses Mary Brown, Keita Cornell and Georgia Hale, of Appalachia, were the guests of Mrs. Geo. R. Marrs the first of the week.

The "Delineator" for one year at 75c, regular price, $1.50. —Fullers.

Mr. and Mrs. Auburn Hambleton were up from the Cove last week.

Don't fail to hear Dr. Young at the Baptist Church tonight (Wednesday) at 8 o'clock. He is one of the ablest of the National Anti-Saloon League force, and is said to be one of the finest speakers in all the land. Don't miss it.

Mrs. R. L. Gant returned to her home in Bristol Tuesday, after spending several days here with her son, J. W. Gant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Nickels spent Sunday at Norton visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Montague returned to the Gap Monday morning from Louisville, where Mrs. Montague underwent treatment in a hospital at that place.

CANCER—J. B. Smith, cancer specialist, of Bristol, Tenn., guarantees to cure cancer or anything in cancer nature, without knife or X-ray. Place money in bank until cured. Write for reference.—adv.

Mrs. A. L. Holton arrived in the Gap last week and will make this place her future home. Mr. Holton holds a prominent position with the Interstate Railroad Company at this place, being general freight and passenger agent of that road.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church met with Mrs. Jno. W. Chalkley Thursday afternoon. Those in attendance were Mrs. R. T. Irvine, President; Mrs. A. D. Owens, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Robt. D. Morrison, Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor, Mrs. Mayo Cabell and Mrs. R. L. Parks. Delicious cocoa with whipped cream and sandwiches were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Our Special Sale

Is A Big Success

Hundreds of people have availed themselves of this great Bargain Event and if you have not made any purchases yet do so at once and get the pick of the bargains. This is our last reduction on Spring Goods. It is the final clean up. If you want to profit by it don't lose time.

Sales Continues to May 1st

There Are Still Many Bargains

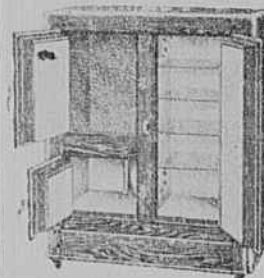

We have decided to continue this sale a month longer in order for everyone to have a share in this great sale. It will pay you to buy from us even if you don't need it now. You can save it for future use.

Mrs. G. W. Kilbourne

Near L. & N. Depot.

CADET, VA.

REFRIGERATORS

Spring is here and it is time for the house wife to begin thinking of buying a refrigerator. We have the most complete line in town this year which is especially suited for your home and pocket book. Our refrigerators will keep your foods cool, clean, fresh, sanitary, and save one-third on ice bills. It is easy to keep them spotless clean.

Call in and see us Now!

W. W. TAYLOR & SONS

BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

FARMS FOR SALE!

I have for sale many desirable farms, all of which are bargains, and each farm is near good schools on pike roads. These farms contain from 40 acres to 800 acres. Write to

J. S. REMINE

STRAW PLAINS, TENN.

Deering Cultivators

Can be adapted to several different uses and serves to meet the many conditions common to each crop that is to be cultivated. These Cultivators are very, yet are light and compact. The frames are made of steel and shaped so that the Cultivator runs steady and is easy to pull. We have several different varieties of these Cultivators and will gladly show them to anyone interested.

HAMBLEN BROTHERS

BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

South-West Insurance Agency

Incorporated

Fire, Life, Accident and Casualty Insurance. Fidelity and Other Bonds. Real Estate and Commission Brokers.

Office in Intermont Building

BIG STONE GAP, VA.

Read Our Advertisements

For Authentic Drug Store News

Advertising is store news and we try to keep our ads live and up-to-date so that they may be read with the same interest as the editorials or any other part of the newspaper.

Cultivate the habit of reading our advertisements. Something new in every issue. Keep posted.

WATCH OUR WINDOW DISPLAYS

We change our windows just as regularly as we change our ads. Don't think of windows as mere displays, but consider them as salesmen. Give them a chance to tell their story.

Read Our Advertisements.
See Our Windows.
Visit Our Store.

MUTUAL DRUG COMPANY

INCORPORATED

BIG STONE GAP, VA.