H. G. Morison, of Johnson City, a member of the law firm of Morison, Morison, and Robertson, of this place, spent a few days in town last week on professional business.

The Gilbert Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, at Hickory Flats, near Pennington Gap, will be dedicated on the first Sunday in October. Dr. Francisco, Dr. J. A. Patten, Dr. Dixon, and Dr. Woodyard are expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Montague will leave the Gap the last of the month for Martinsville, Va., where Mr. Montague has accepted a position as manager of a new drug store to be started in that city. Their many friends here will regret very much to learn that they are going away.

Mrs. James Camblos, (Nea Miss Margaret Bullitt), and little son, James, who has been spending the summer in the Gap with relatives, returned to her home in Marietta, Ga., last Thursday. Miss Camblos, Mrs. James Camblos' sister-in-law, of Marietta, returned with her after, spending a week in the Gap.

Miss Salome Walker returned to Bristol Wednesday after a visit to Norton and Big Stone Gap, Va. While at the latter place Miss Walker participated in a mock marriage, and some one, believing the wedding to have been a legal one, reported it at the Herald-Courier office and the account was erroneously published.—Bristol Herald-Courier.

Mrs. Bruce Tinsley was in Bristol Wednesday on her return from Big Stone Gap, Va., where she has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Goodloe. Mrs. Tinsley has gone to New York to join Mr. Tinsley on an extended trip through the Northwest and West, which will include a sightseeing trip to the Yellowstone National Park and a visit to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley have been for three years on the island of Trinidad, where Mr. Tinsley has been civil engineer for the government.—Bristol Herald-Courier.

Our idea of a mean woman is one who refuses to pay the Doctor after he has converted the late lamented's insurance policy into ready money.

Labor Day.

The colored population of Big Stone Gap and vicinity gathered at the baseball park here Monday to observe Labor Day. A parade by the Knights of Pythias and two baseball games were the main attractions of the day. The first ball game was played at 1 o'clock between the Big Stone Gap and Dryden small boys, in which the former won by a score of 7 to 6. The big game took place immediately after this between Benham, Ky., and Big Stone Gap, in which the Gap team was victorious after a hard battle of eleven innings, by a score of 2 to 1.

The day's program was ended with a big reception and dance in Collier's hall.

Mature reflection over the statement that it costs $1,500 in modern war to kill a man forces the confession that it is more than some men are worth.
