

Our drug store deserves your trade because we give you what you ask for and charge you only a fair price.

Competent Registered Pharmacists compound every prescription with skill and care. Pure fresh drugs only being used.

We have the store, the stock, and the men to give you the best possible service, and you can't be disappointed when you deal with us.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store
BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr. Grace May and Mr. Dick Peters, of Alexandria, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Miss Nell Anderson, Miss Mabel Gaines, H. W. Wood and Carl Gibson, motored down from Norton Sunday, and took supper at the Monte Vista.

V. M. Thomas and son, of Johnson City, spent Monday in town on business.

E. E. Devins, of Coeburn, was in town Monday.

Ray Sutton, of Bristol, spent Monday in the Gap.

W. Kirk Smith, of New York City, is visiting his brother, H. F. Smith, on Wood Avenue.

Miss Kate Muser, of Abingdon, is visiting Miss Matt Brown.

Mr. B. E. Smith has been quite sick for several days.

W. S. Gilderleeve has returned to Johnson City after spending a few days on business in the Gap.

Geo. A. Thorpe, of the Underwood Typewriter Company, Richmond, was in town on business last week.

B. E. Plenary and J. M. Allen, of Norton, were business visitors in town Friday.

S. E. Puckett, of Pocket, was in the Gap Saturday.

A. M. Kinnard, the well known insurance man of Middleboro, was in town last week.

Mr. C. F. Camp, and Miss Sarah Lovell attended a party at the home of Mrs. Lewis at Toms Creek, Friday afternoon.

Miss Rachel Craft returned Friday night from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Gate City and Rye Cove.

Miss Maude Wolfe left this week for Dante, where she will spend a week with her brother. From there she will go to Cincinnati, where she will spend several days.

G. B. Jenkins, our fine photographer, will leave this week for Cleveland, Ohio, where he will spend several days attending the National Photographers' Convention.

Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Wolfe will leave this week for a two weeks' visit to relatives in Russell County.

Mrs. Ed Taylor and little son, Ed, Jr., spent Wednesday at Appalachia with relatives.

Mrs. Sally A. Bailey spent a few days at Coeburn this week having her eyes treated.

Cassius Clay, of Paris, Ky., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Shackelford.

The Lloyd Guild will meet with Mrs. W. R. Peck on Thursday of this week.

Mr. Bean, of the Ford Service Shop, spent the weekend at Chincoteague on business for the Mineral Water Company.

Miss Ida Charrell Compton is the guest of her brother, F. A. Compton, at this place.

Hon. R. T. Irvine returned Saturday night from an extended business trip.

Mrs. Wm. Beaman, formerly of this place, is very sick at her home at Groesbeek, Va.

Misses Susie McDaniel and Anna Cannon, of Gate City, are the attractive guests of Mrs. J. B. Wampler at this place.

J. E. Price, Jr., of Stonega, spent Sunday in the Gap the guest of friends.

Dr. Burks and W. J. Willets, of Norton, were the guests of R. B. Alcover Sunday.

FANCY EDEN GEM CAN. TALOUPES, quality fine, $1.10 per crate. Cash with order. J. F. Ray, Lumburg, N. C.

Miss Elizabeth Agee, of Washington, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Potts.

Miss Ruth Jones and two little brothers, Roy and Claude Swanson, left Sunday for Russell County on a few days' visit.

The Children of the Confederacy will meet with Miss Frances Long on Wednesday at four o'clock.

A. L. Holton, general freight and passenger agent of the Interstate Railroad Company, spent Saturday in Knoxville on business.

Simon Banks spent Sunday in Bristol visiting friends.

Monroe Gilly was operated on for appendicitis at East Stone Gap Saturday morning by Dr. J. A. Gilmer, of this place, and is rapidly convalescing.

Mrs. J. C. Mitchell and two small children spent a few days last week at Jasper with Mr. Mitchell, who has a position at that place.

Miss Ina Frances Doak left Friday morning for her home at Rural Retreat, after spending two weeks with her brothers, D. R. and Autry Doak.

Mrs. John Parsons, who lives near the L. & N. depot, is visiting her sons, Cameron and Leonard Parsons, at Toms Creek, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolfe and baby, of Corbin, Ky., have been visiting Mrs. Wolfe's brother, Summers Graham, below the L. & N. depot.

F. O. R. R. E. N. D.—Five room dwelling, all modern improvements, water and electricity. P. O. C. Lehman.

Postmaster G. E. Gilly spent Sunday afternoon at Osaka visiting relatives.

Misses Sarah and Katharine Laxey, of Cincinnati, who have been spending several days in the Gap with friends, left Saturday for Lebanon to visit relatives.

The Electric Transmission Company has just installed an Electric Range in Pat. Barron's Restaurant on corner of Wood Ave. and East Street.

J. C. Taryn was among the traveling men from Knoxville in town last week.

Nat. St. John, of Bristol, was calling on the trade in the city last week.

W. P. Brewer, of Bristol, was in town Wednesday on business.

Lost—Half of gold and silver oval shaped, in vicinity of postoffice. Finder will receive suitable reward by returning same to B. E. Rhoads.

Miss Guy White, of Abingdon, who has been visiting relatives at Toms Creek, is the guest of her cousins, Mrs. W. H. Robertson and Miss Margie White.

F. P. Whitehead, of Norton, was a business visitor in town last week.

Bruce Tyler is spending a few days in the Gap on business.

B. H. Baskerville, of Huntsman Bros., Bristol, was a visitor in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Polly spent Sunday with relatives in Pennington. Mrs. Polly expects to remain there several weeks.

Robert Imboden, of the V. & S. W., of Bristol, was in the city on business last week.

E. P. Scott, a well known traveling man, was in town Saturday on business.

Jno. A. Crocker, of Arno, was a business visitor in town last week.

D. W. Holyfield was down from Coeburn Friday.

T. L. Rich, of Norton, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Miss Mary Jones and Miss Lussie McNeil, of Bristol, who are visiting in Norton, Messrs. Fred Stultz, J. S. Fleming and W. R. Fleming took supper at the Monte Vista Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Bogard had as their guests for dinner at the Monte Vista Sunday Miss Annie Byck, Miss Ruby Benjamin, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Benjamin and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Taylor.

Prof. Akers' Summer School will close Friday. There has been an attendance of twenty or more, at Mr. Akers' classes and much has been accomplished by the students. We are glad to know that Mr. Akers will be a member of the faculty of the Big Stone Gap High School again next year.

D. E. Allen, returned Saturday night from a business trip to Harlan, Ky. Mr. Allen is still very lame from his recent accident.

B. Pate and W. J. Christian left Monday morning with a camping outfit bound for High Knob, where they will spend eighteen months surveying the immense Hagan estate for Fox & Peck, civil engineering firm at this place.

Master George Rowe hoped to have a Birthday Party Saturday in honor of his third birthday, but it rained and rained and rained and little George was inconsolable.

Otis Mouser left Monday for a business trip south.

Mrs. A. H. Reeder and attractive daughter, Miss Betty, arrived in the Gap Tuesday night from Washington, D. C., where they will spend the summer at the beautiful bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilliam.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Goodloe and five children returned Thursday night from Charlottesville, where they have been spending the past month visiting relatives.

Miss Clara Rucker, of Washington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Karl Stoshr, in the Gap.

C. A. Johnson, Ex-County Clerk, succeeds the late James Dorton as Deputy Clerk. Mr. Johnson is a man of energy, integrity and ability, and will serve the public satisfactorily to all.—Wise Republican.

Mrs. Raymond Harris returned last week from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Knoxville.

Miss Maude Ould and brother, Eugene, of Norton, spent a few hours in town Thursday with their cousin, Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor.

Mrs. W. J. Draper and three children, Lucile, Irene and Hiram, left Thursday for Hot Springs, Arkansas, where they will spend a few weeks on account of Mrs. Draper, who has been suffering with rheumatism for some time.

Mrs. C. F. Camp is spending a few days in the Gap with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. McCormick. Mrs. Camp has just returned from a few weeks' visit to friends at Dante and other points.

J. A. Wilson, of Big Stone Gap, called Monday to pay his respects, and also his subscription, to the Republican. Mr. Wilson is one of Big Stone's leading young men, and it gives us a marked degree of pleasure to include his name on our subscription list.—Wise Republican.

Glady's, the two and a half year old little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Orr, (nee Miss Pearl Pippin), died last Monday after a short illness of whooping cough and spinal meningitis, at the home of her parents at Cadet. The little remains were interred in Geneva Cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Janet Bailey left Sunday morning for Huntsville, Ala., where she will spend a few days visiting Miss Boss Wigton. From there she will go to Memphis, where she will spend several days visiting Mrs. Clarence Elam, who was formerly Miss Pearl Rush.

Private Herbert Brown, of Big Stone Gap, doing patrol duty on the border, had an experience on the 11th, which was worse than being chased by the greasers. The lightning struck his gun, tearing it out of his hands and demolishing it. Herbert writes that the electricity played all around him for a few minutes.

LOST—Bunch of keys between J. C. Fuller's residence and M. C. Bostic's Store. Please return to Mrs. J. C. Fuller.

Notice to Tax Payers of Wise County.

The local Board of Review for Wise County will meet at Wise on July 24th and continue from time to time for the purpose of adjusting all taxes and matters legally brought before them.

C. F. Kilgore, Chairman
July 19, 1916.

May We Have Your Patronage?

No man who is human can fail to appreciate high quality in CLOTHING when it is sold at modest or medium prices.

We are selling summer clothing of the finest quality at extremely low prices, and you can not help a feeling of elation when you buy one of them. Everybody who gets them does—and nearly everybody gets them from us. Our Hats, Underclothing, Collars, Cuffs, Ties, Hosiery, etc., are all sold on the same low price basis. When you want anything GOOD, come to us. You always come out ahead when you buy clothing and furnishings at this store.

W. W. Taylor & Sons
BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

It's So Easy To Be Sure

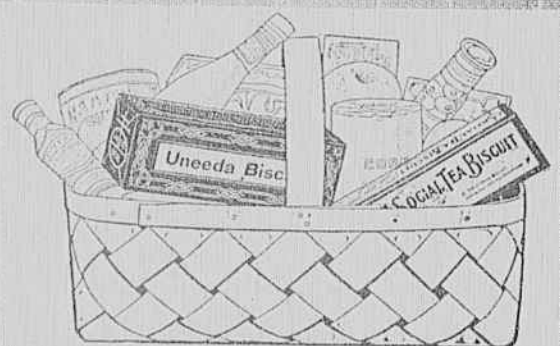

How often you hesitate about doing something because you have not the facts—because you are uncertain. There is a way to get absolute information about things and that is the telephone way.

Don't go on living in uncertainty from day to day when a little thing like a telephone talk will do away with doubt and make things clear.

Ask our local manager.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND POTOMAC TELEPHONE COMPANY OF VIRGINIA.
E. E. MULLYON, Local Manager, Big Stone Gap, Va.
Tel. 9033

Cheer Up!

Here's Some Good News For You

You can spend a dollar to wonderful good advantage at our store. We make it our business to serve our patrons economically and efficiently, because we want them back again. We want you, too.

M. C. BOSTIC
Big Stone Gap, Va.

Work Called For and Delivered

The Royal Laundry

R. P. BARRON, Proprietor

Phone No. 113. Big Stone Gap, Va.

South-West Insurance Agency

Incorporated

Fire, Life, Accident and Casualty Insurance, Fidelity and Other Bonds

Real Estate and Commission Brokers.

Office in Intermont Building

BIG STONE GAP, VA.

LADIES

THIS IS TO YOU

It is an easy matter for any woman to remain young and fresh in appearance these days. It is all in the care you exercise and in the quality of the face creams and other toilet preparations you use.

Our toilet articles are very high grade, and yet we sell them at popular prices regardless of their great merit.

We will be delighted to show them if you will honor us with a call.

Mutual Drug Company

INCORPORATED

BIG STONE GAP, VA.