Delightful Affair.

Coburn, Va., June 28.—Probably one of the largest afternoon affairs of the early summer season to claim the attention of guests, was the charming function given Monday afternoon by Mrs. E. C. Greer, in social compliment to Mrs. Elaine Whitley, of Galax.

For her pleasure a number of friends were invited and music proved the division of the hour.

At six an elaborate luncheon was served in the dining room, the guests assisting in serving. One of the guests presided at the coffee urn. For the affair the Greer home was made beautiful by the use of red and white June roses, giving a decided and attractive appearance to the house.
