

Yes, Madam, May Possess the Charm of
WELL-KEPT HANDS

Will you spend three minutes each day to make your hands more attractive? That's all the time it takes to make and keep your hands in perfect condition! The new

Naloid Products

CONSISTING OF

- Cuticle Solvent
- Nail Polish Cake
- Paste Nail Bleach
- Rose Cuticle Cream
- Wonderdust Polish Powder

The complete set costs only $1.25, but if you prefer, you may buy each item separately.

You ought to know how beneficial NALOID PRODUCTS are—how attractive your hands will become with their use. May we have the pleasure of demonstrating these new toilet accessories to you?

Come in today and let us show you how easily the charm of well-kept hands may be acquired and maintained.

KELLY DRUG COMPANY

The Rexall Store

Big Stone Gap, Virginia

Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Wolfe, of Cleveland, Va., spent a few days last week in the Gap, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carter.

Mrs. S. Polly is visiting her son, W. H. Polly and wife, at Pennington Gap this week.

FOR SALE.—Three four months old pigs. Apply to Mrs. W. F. Baker.

Miss Edith Ballard left Monday for Bristol, where she will visit a few days before going to Washington, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Rock, and do clerical work for the government.

Miss Bertha Mahaffey, who is teaching school at Graden is spending several days in the Gap with homefolks, her school being closed on account of influenza.

Mrs. Eppie Smith, who has been spending several days in Gap visiting Mrs. M. V. Wells, returned to her home in Morris-town Monday morning.

TIME TO HOOVERIZE.—Say Mr. Magazine Buyer. You paid $5.20 last year, at news stands for that Literary Digest. Get it for $3.00 from W. C. Smith—"The Magazine Man."

Mrs. Helen Foster returned to the Gap this week from Bri tol, where she spent several months taking a business course.

William Beverly returned to his home in the Gap this week from Atlanta, Georgia, where he went to enter Georgio Tech, but failed on account of ear trouble.

Mrs. Belle Slemm was called to Louisville, W. Va., Saturday on account of the serious illness of her son, Bascom Slemm, who is attending school at the Green-brair Presbyterian Military Academy.

Miss Polly Dixon, the Domes-tic Science teacher in the pub-lic school at this place left Sat-urday for Bland, Va., where she will visit at the home of Judge F. B. Kegley.

A. L. Witt is spending a few days this week in Roanoke on business.

D. S. Yoakley returned Satur-day night from a business trip to Pineville and Harlan.

Mrs. D. D. Sizer and children returned to the Gap last week from an extended visit to rela-tives in Marion, Ohio.

Miss Mary Lee Maiden left Mon-day for Abingdon, where she will visit homefolks while the school at this place is closed.

LOST.—Between Southern de-pot and Smith Hardware Store a ladies' black purse, containing one key and small change. One dollar reward if returned to Smith Hardware Company.

Paul Jesse is confined to his room with illness for the past week. His father, S. R. Jesse is taking care of his busi-ness at the cafe.

Mrs. C. A. Tarwater and little daughter, Helen, who have been spending several days in Knox-ville and Bristol visiting rela-tives, will return home some time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wax are spending a few days in Knox-ville this week visiting rela-tives and attending the Knox-ville fair.

Mrs. G. W. Frazier and two children, of Oklahoma, who have been spending a few weeks in Scott county visiting rela-tives, arrived in town last Fri-day and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Daugherty.

Nice fresh fish and oysters at Paul's Cafe.

Miss Alice Bruce, who is teaching school at Dorchester, is spending the week at home, her school being closed on ac-count of influenza.

Mrs. Willis Slaughter, of Washington, D. C., arrived in the Gap last week, where she will spend some time. Her husband, Captain Slaughter, is in active service in France. Her nephew, John Bullitt Chalkley, who has been spending a few days in Washington, where his mother has been very ill, returned with her. Mrs. Chalkley is improving.

Rev. Roy Early has just re-turned from Dante and contig-uous points, where he made a number of "production" speech-es to the miners. He was en-thusiasmatically received wher-ever he went and splendid re-sults are noted by the operators wherever his appeal was heard. —Norton Progress.

James W. Bish, an employe of the Wise Printing Company, will leave Saturday morning for Nashville, Tenn., having been summoned to appear before the United States District Court on the 14th in the case of the United States vs. Empire Realty & Mortgage Company, a realty corporation whose representa-tives operated in Abingdon a few years ago.

Mrs. Stella Harwell, who has been spending several months in the Gap left last week for Dayton, Ohio, where she will visit friends before going to California to visit her son.

Carl Gilly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gilly of the Cove has been spending several days in Richmond, where he took his fine Hereford calf and entered it at the State Fair. He won first prize at the Jonesville fair this year.

Jas. B. Ayers left last week for Washington, D. C., where he has accepted a government position. Mrs. Ayers, who is visiting relatives in Louisville, will also have a government position in Washington this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Marrs, baby and nurse, who have been spending some time in the Gap with Mrs. Marrs' aunt, Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor and down in the Cove with her grandfather, J. K. Polk Barron, returned to their home Saturday in Quanna, Texas, near Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Gilly and baby, of Gate City, are in the Gap this week visiting at the home of Johnny Gilly.

Safe as the United States Buy Liberty Bonds.

Henry Long, who has been doing a livery stable business here for the past two or three years, has sold his outfit to Robert Skeen, of Turkey Cove, and W. B. Gilly, of East Stone Gap, the deal taking effect the first of October. Mr. Skeen and Gilly will continue the business as heretofore at the same place.

W. B. Kilbourn received a telegram Sunday night from Camp Benjamin Harrison stat-ing that his son, Fate, was se-riously ill with Spanish influ-enza and not expected to live. On Tuesday, however, he re-ceived another message, which stated that his condition was somewhat improved.

J. Polk Wolfe is visiting home-folks in town this week. He resigned as comptroller of the Clinchfield Coal Corporation at Dante, recently, and will report to the Officer's Training School at Camp Lee about the 15th of this month. He has been in Class 3 on industrial grounds, but asked to be placed in Class 1, so that he might enter the Army service.

James Gilly left here Mon-day morning for Richmond, where he was called in re-sponse to a telegram received Sunday stating that his son, Carl, was ill in a hospital. Carl went to Richmond last week with some prize cattle to place on exhibit at the Fair at that place. No details in telegram was given as to the nature of his sickness but is thought he probably has Spanish influen-za.

W. G. Coultts, the plumber, is installing a new pipeless fur-nace for Ezra T. Carter in the Robert Bruce house. This is the latest thing in a heating system and costs $260.00 for an eight room house. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed, your money back if you want it. Mr. Coultts has already installed a number of these plants for the Stonega Coke and Coal Com-pany.—adv.

Death of Another Soldier.

The Post wishes to make a correction in announcing the death of Ballard Creech in our last issue, as it was his brother, James P. Creech, that died at Camp Lee on September 23rd instead. Ballard, however, is seriously ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Creech. Worley Creech, another brother, who was at Camp Humphreys near Washington City, was notified of his brother's death and came here for the funeral and took suddenly ill with Spanish influenza and died on Thursday, October 3rd as a result of complications. Funeral services were conducted at the home on Friday afternoon by Rev. J. M. Smith, of this place, and the body was interred in the family burying ground near the home.

CORN FEED PORK

This little pig got so round and so fat. Eating corn on the cob and such as that. His life was cut short, as curly tail, And now we have got him here "For Sale."

Nothing so tempting as Roast Pork With Spiced Apples
You can find here any portion of the pig at reasonable prices

All Accounts paid on 10th of month must be settled in full to date.
PLACE YOUR ORDERS EARLY

Hisel's Meat Market

In Polly Building. Big Stone Gap, Virginia

No Wasting of Bar Soap!

NO—decidedly no, when GRANDMA is around. No bar soap lying in water wasting away. No chipping, slicing or shaving off more than you need. GRANDMA is a wonderful soap—and it is Powdered. That's the big secret. You just measure out what you need, no more. Sprinkle it in the tub and presto—just like magic, millions of glorious, cleansing suds in an instant. Then, the whitest, cleanest, freshest clothes that ever hung on a wash line.

Wash the Woolen Socks You Knit with Grandma's

GRANDMA'S Powdered Soap

Your Grocer Has It!

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Truck has proven its superior value as an economic force in business, along all lines of commercial work to the contractor and builder, the manufacturer, the wholesaler and the retailer. It is saving money on the farm. It took its place at once as a progressive utility, combining in light weight all the great strength of heat-treated vanadium steel, and all the valuable flexibility of Ford design, with that ease, simplicity and economy in operation and maintenance that have made Ford cars so universally in demand.

It will be wise under present conditions to get your order for a Ford Truck on file without delay. We may or we may not be able to make immediate delivery, but by having your order on file you will be saved all possible delay. Give your order to any one of the authorized Ford dealers listed below and you are assured of prompt attention, and that "after service" so essential to thorough satisfaction.

Mineral Motor Company
Big Stone Gap, Va.

New Coal Yard

I am prepared to furnish Roda Block Coal by the ton weighed. Call or 'phone all orders to Long's Garage

C. C. LONG

BIG STONE GAP, . . . VIRGINIA

Buy War Savings Stamps and Help Win the War.

LOCAL ITEMS.

W. S. Rose spent a few days in Johnson City, last week on business.

Mrs. W. H. Wren and two children are visiting relatives at Chilhowie this week, while Mr. Wren is in Richmond and Roanoke on business.

Charles Bunn, who is in training at Camp Lee is spending his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bunn, in the Gap.

Miss Ora Rush, of Abingdon, spent the week-end in the Gap visiting her brother, J. W. Rush.

Miss Mary Akers, assistant principal in the High School left Friday afternoon for Emory, where she will visit her parents while the school here is closed.

Mrs. A. D. Owens spent several days in Cincinnati last week where she went to consult a specialist for ear trouble.

Miss Ethel Van Gorder returned to her home in the Gap Thursday night after spending the past six months in Pough-keepsie, N. Y., where she at-tended the Poughkeepsie Busi-ness College.

Mrs. J. A. Vicars, a member of the faculty of the public school went to Wise Saturday where she will visit relatives until school opens again.

J. A. Gaines, of Kingsport, Tenn., has accepted a position in the purchasing department of the Stonega Coke and Coal Company and will move his family to the Gap as soon as he can secure a dwelling.

Mack Patton has been ap-pointed fireman at the postoffice building to take the place of Owen Mason, who has resigned. Mack will also continue to op-erate his pressing shop.

For Sale.—Thorough Bred Airedale Pups, 2 months old. $10.00 each. H. L. Cummings, Big Stone Gap, Va.

Miss Frances Long, who is attending school at the Radford State Normal, arrived in the Gap Sunday night, where she will remain until the epidemic of Spanish influenza is over.

Miss Emma Duncan, of Rad-ford, spent a few days in the Gap this week visiting her sis-ter, Mrs. W. A. Baker, enroute to her home in Jonesville.

Gordon and Edward Goodloe, who are attending school at Emory and Henry College, re-turned to their homes in the Gap Sunday night on account of the epidemic of influenza at Emory.

Mrs. J. L. McCormick spent last week in Middlesboro visit-ing relatives.

Mrs. J. O. Smith returned to her home in the Gap Sunday night after spending several days in Knoxville visiting her parents.

Major J. F. Bullitt, of Phila-delphia, general counsel for the Stonega Coke & Coal Company, arrived in the Gap Sunday night, where he will spend sev-eral days on business.

J. J. Kelly, of Wise, was a visitor to the Gap on last Sun-day.

Dr. T. F. Staley, the special-ist, of Bristol, filled his regular monthly appointment at Appa-lachia, on last Friday.

No Ambitious Man

is without a bank account. Its possession shows you to be a man of

Method, Caution and Thrift

The people with whom you deal have more respect for you if you pay by check instead of currency. As a matter of prudence as well as ambition, open your ac-count with us.

STRENGTH SERVICE SECURITY
INTERSTATE FINANCE & TRUST CO.
C. S. CARTER, PRESIDENT. J. B. WAMPLER, CASHIER.
BIG STONE GAP, VA.