

Friends Sometime Judge You

BY YOUR WRITING PAPER

Ever noticed how favorably you were impressed upon the receipt of a letter written on neat attractive paper and enclosed in an envelope to match?

Symphony Lawn, Eaton, Crane & Pike

Papers are absolutely correct. They are everywhere recognized as the Standard in the matter of Style. We have Symphony Lawn, Eaton, Crane & Pike Papers by the box, the pound, and in pads with envelopes to match. Don't fail to see our assortment.

KELLY DRUG COMPANY

The Rexall Store
BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kirk spent Sunday at Pennington Gap visiting relatives.

A. P. Hammond has moved his family into the L. E. Jesse property east of the Southern depot.

Dr. Karl Stoehr left Monday night for Cincinnati, where he will spend a few days on business.

Paul Bruce, of the Southern Railway, was visiting in Knoxville Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Alcover spent Sunday at Norton with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bastie left Monday morning for a few days visit to relatives in Scott county.

If you have an old stable you want to sell telephone No. 145.—John B. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tate and children, Mrs. J. M. Young and Mrs. M. V. Horton were down from Stonega a few hours Sunday afternoon.

H. S. Benjamin has purchased lots adjoining the residence of W. S. Miller, where he will build a residence in the near future.

Robert Brown, of Middleboro, spent several days this week in the Gap visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Bickley.

Miss Grace Long left last Wednesday for Tazewell, where she will visit relatives for two weeks before going to Darlington, S. C., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Fred Law, for several months.

Mrs. D. F. Orr and daughter, Mrs. Gibson, of Castlewoods, are guests of Mrs. H. A. W. Skeen in the Gap this week.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Barham, of Newsoms, South Hampton county, arrived in the Gap last week where they will make their home with their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Smith.

Mrs. E. W. Nickles returned to her home in the Gap Sunday night after spending three weeks at Blackwater, Tenn., visiting relatives.

Miss Elsie Taylor has accepted a position as stenographer in the offices of the Stonega Coke and Coal Company at Stonega.

Mrs. Vilas Wells spent Thursday at Bristol, where she met her cousin, Miss Payne, who will attend school in the Gap this next session.

William T. Goodloe, Jr. returned to his home in the Gap Saturday night from a visit of several weeks to Spartansburg, S. C., and Johnson City, Tenn.

Mrs. Mand Manning, son Carl, and George Stacy, returned last week from Anderson, Ind., where they spent ten days visiting their sister, Mrs. Mary Begley.

Miss Bertha Mahaffey left Monday for Inman, where she will teach the public school this session.

Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. W. C. Moore returned to their home in Washington, D. C., last week after spending a few days in the Gap with Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. J. W. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sproles and daughter, Mrs. Leland Benedict, and her two children spent Wednesday in Stonega with friends.

Mrs. Bunch and her sister, Mrs. Moore, spent Thursday in Bistol shopping.

Mrs. A. Byck, who has been spending a few weeks in the Gap visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Benjamin, left last week for her home in New York City.

Miss Dorothy Owens left last Thursday night for Lawrence, Kansas, where she will attend school for her third year at the University of Kansas, from which institution she will graduate this next year in literature and modern science.

W. S. Palmer, of Keokee, was in town Saturday afternoon and gave this office a pleasant call. Mr. Palmer, who is one of Lee county's most prominent citizens, is a candidate for the House of Delegates. He stands for good schools, good roads, and clean politics, and the voters of Lee will do well to elect him.

Mrs. George Connor and children, who have been visiting relatives in Russell county, are spending a few days in the Gap visiting relatives before leaving for Atlanta, Ga., where Mr. Connor has a position.

Miss Miriam Taylor left last week for the country near Bluefield, where she will spend a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neale and little daughter Gertrude, of Dorchester, and guest, Miss Ruby Morgan, of Roanoke, spent a few hours in the Gap Sunday afternoon with friends.

Misses Mary and Blanche Kilbourne left last week for points in Kentucky, where they are visiting friends and relatives. They attended the county fair at London, Ky., a few days last week.

Mrs. Marvin Kelly and little son Erskin, and Miss Mary Ramsey returned to their home in the Gap last week from a few weeks visit to Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. J. B. Ayers and two daughters, Martha Louise and Emily, who have been spending the summer at the mines near Keokee, where Mr. Ayers is superintendent, returned to the Gap last Friday in order that the little girls may attend school this winter.

Pro. H. L. Sulfridge, principal of our public schools, moved his family from Appalachia to the Gap last week and occupies apartments in the Touraine.

FOR SALE.—A one-story ten room house, light and water. Newly painted and fenced, near Southern depot. Good neighborhood. For quick sale, a real bargain. For price and terms see owner.—J. C. Moore, Big Stone Gap, Va. 34-37.

Mrs. Albaladejo, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Alfred Ownes, left last week for her home in Lawrence, Kan.

Miss Ora Rush, of Abingdon, was the attractive guest of her brother, J. W. Rush, a few days in the Gap this week, enroute to Memphis, Tenn., where she will spend some time visiting her sister.

Mrs. Black, who has been spending some time in the Gap with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Williams, returned to her home in Barboursville, Ky., last Saturday night.

Joseph Miner, the popular tombstone manufacturer of Rogersville, Tenn., is in town this week in the interest of his firm. Some of the best tombstones in this section were made and erected by him.

Work on the Presbyterian manse on Wyandotte Avenue, is progressing rapidly and when completed will be one of the prettiest residences in the Gap and one the Presbyterians will justly be proud of.

Born to Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Honeycutt at their country home above town, on Monday, a son, whom they have named Groves Cleveland, Jr.

John Qualls, of East Stone Gap, has bought the Harris property on East Fifth Street, occupied by Frank Witt, and will move his family into it within a few days.

C. L. Perry, who has accepted a position as store manager for the Virginia Banner Coal Corporation at Trammel, Dickenson county spent Sunday in the Gap with his wife, who accompanied him to Trammel Monday, where they will probably move in a short time.

Miss Beverly Bane Taylor, who has been spending a few days in the Gap visiting Miss Florence McCormick, returned Saturday to her home at White Gate, Va.

Mrs. J. Procter Brown and little son spent Friday in Bristol.

Mrs. Meta Reaser, of Gate City, spent a few days in the Gap last week on business.

Miss Margaret Barron, who has been attending the State Normal School at Harrisonburg, Va., for the month of August returned to her home in the Gap Sunday night. Miss Barron has accepted a position in the public school at Tacoma, where she will begin teaching this week.

Charles Johnson, formerly with Mack Patton, is doing cleaning, pressing and repairing at Williams' call station. All work guaranteed. A trial will convince that all work is first class and prices to suit. Phone Williams' call station for service.—adv. 35-37.

"Bobbie" Christian, of Richmond, who has been working in the Gap for several months with the engineers of the Stonega Coke and Coal Company, left Saturday for his home in Richmond, where he will spend a few days before entering school for the winter at the University of Virginia.

Miss Mattie Spivey, of Clinchport, has accepted a position as stenographer in the purchasing department of the Stonega Coke and Coal Company. Miss Spivey is a sister of Mr. Ben Spivey, who formerly worked in the Gap for the above company, but is now working at Kingport.

Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Wolfe, who spent the summer in South Dakota, where Mr. Wolfe had charge of a church, were in town Monday enroute to Dunganon, Scott county, where they will teach school the coming year. Prof. Wolfe having been elected principal of the school at that place.

The regular monthly meeting of the Community League will be held at the School Hall Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Prof. Mack Schoen, from the University of Illinois, who is professor of music in that institution, will speak on the importance of music in the public school, and other discussions concerning improvement of the school will make this meeting of special interest. All are cordially invited to be present.

High Cost of Living Reduced

NEW LINE OF

Dry Goods and Notions

just received. Look at some prices below on a few items:

Dress Gingham, per yard	24c
Percales, per yard	28c
Domestic, per yard	20c and 25c
Outings, Flanelles, per yard	25c
Flour	$1.65
Meal	$1.35
Golden Drip Coffee	40c
Loose Roasted	33c
Bucket Lard	37½c
Loose Lard	35c

Bargains in Shoes, Silk Waists, Dress Skirts, Men's and Boys Pants, Overalls and Work Shirts. Call and see me before buying your Fall Goods.

H. O. GILES

Near Southern Depot. Big Stone Gap, Va.

Quality Steaks

A good piece of steak is always in order. If you want a porterhouse, sirloin, club, tenderloin, flank or round steak you will find we can meet your every requirement, and the people of this community know that our market stands for the best quality in meats of all kinds.

W. T. MAHAFFEY BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

Lee Baptist Institute

LOCATED AT PENNINGTON GAP, VA.

is under the auspices of the Home Mission Board and the Powell River Baptist Association, but liberally patronized by other denominations.

173 Pupils the past year of whom 72 were in High School Department. We had 70 boarding pupils. The school employs 8 teachers. The best possible 4 year High School course is arranged. Excellent course in music, college trained teachers.

All Charges Reasonable.

Fall term begins August 19, 1919, school year 9 months. Brick buildings, electric lights, and Girl's home heated by steam and water in buildings. For further information write

CHAS. H. UTLEY, Principal.

At the Pinnacle of Hope, Desire, Achievement lies Success which comes to him only who courts it. The foundation of

Business Success

is the Bank Account. Have you laid the foundation? We are interested in your Success.

STRENGTH SERVICE SECURITY

INTERSTATE FINANCE & TRUST CO.

G. S. CARTER, PRESIDENT J. B. WANFLER, CASHIER

BIG STONE GAP, VA.