Theatrical.

"Come Along Mary" the new Westlyn-Paulton musical success with a big company of forty people is the underlined attraction at the Amuzu Theatre on next Saturday, September 20.

It has brilliant, joyous, piquant music, songs that are tuneful and of the whistly kind, along with an interesting plot that is continuous in laughter.

The large cast of principals is made up of many well known musical comedy favorites including Kenneth Christy, Helen Johns, John Buckley, Elna Raymond and the dancing Tackmans.

The chorus has been carefully selected and will appear in some of the most elaborate and gorgeous gowns ever seen in musical comedy.

"Come Along Mary" should attract a large audience next Saturday as it is being booked as one of the best attractions here this season.
