

For Easy Terms of Payment and Best Service Get That

Genuine Victrola

From the Kelly Drug Co.

Large stock from which to make your selection. All styles and finishes

Prices from $25, $35, $50, $75, $125, $150, $225 up.

With Very Special Easy Terms of Payment

No Down Payment Required on Victrola
Pay Cash for Your Records Only

TERMS AS LOW AS $1.00 PER WEEK

We Prepay All Shipping Charges to Out-of-Town Patrons

Victrola Owners

The Victor Company releases New Records the last day of each month. Be sure to hear these records every month.

Kelly Drug Company

AGENTS FOR

Spalding's Athletic Goods
Whitman's and Huyler's Candies
Stationery and Blank Books

Victrolas
Waterman and Parker Pens
Eastman Kodaks

LOCAL ITEMS.

C. C. Palmer, of Gate City, was a visitor to Big Stone Gap one day last week.

Miss Tempa Rhea is visiting relatives and friends in Gate City.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Sargent and children spent Sunday with relatives in Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Campbell, spent a few days in Bristol this week.

R. L. Kemper, of Louisville, Ky., was among the travelling men in town this week.

Gus W. Lovell, of Cincinnati, who travels for a Lynchburg house, was among the traveling men in the Gap last week.

Miss Kate Lewis Pettit, of Beattyville, Ky., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Bullitt, Jr., in the Gap.

Mrs. J. J. Kelly, Jr., and daughter left Monday for a two weeks visit in Lynchburg.

TOMATO PLANTS—Brimmer, Pink and Golden Ponderosa, Beefsteak and Stone. Phone or write Lindsey Horton.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Weems and daughter, Dorothy, and Mrs. Jas. R. Taylor were in Norton Wednesday afternoon shopping.

Box Carr, of Cumberland Gap, was among the traveling men in town last week.

Supt. J. J. Kelly, Jr., left Monday for Charlottesville, Va., where he will attend a four days conference of division superintendents.

The Lloyd Guild of the Christ church will meet with Mrs. J. L. McCormick Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Miss Frances Haguwood, of near Memphis, Tenn., is the attractive guest of Mrs. Fred L. Troy at Josephine this week.

Mrs. Gertrude Schenauer, of Reading, Pa., who has been in the Gap for sometime has been very ill in the Norton Hospital for a few days.

Mrs. J. W. Kelly, who has been ill for some time left Thursday for Baltimore, where she will undergo treatment in the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Clifford Smith, who has been attending school the past year at Washington & Lee University returned to his home in the Gap last week.

Lyle Youell, who has been attending school in Maryville, Tenn., the past year, has returned to his home in the Gap for his summer vacation.

Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Honeycutt and baby left Saturday afternoon for Dungannon, where they will spend a few days with relatives.

Bailwick Colantha Johan, a registered Holstein Bull will serve a limited number of cows for a fee of three dollars. I also have a registered Duroc Boar.—John B. Payne.—adv.

The June meeting of the music study club has been postponed until July.

Miss Rosemond Wren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wren, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lowry in Johnson City.

Edgar Young, of New York, spent several days last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Young, in Turkey Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wax returned last week from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Denver, Col., and Dallas, Texas.

E. E. Goodloe, Jr., William Beverly and Gordon Goodloe, who have been attending school at Georgia Tech, Atlanta, returned to their homes in the Gap last week.

Mrs. Harvey Brown, of El Dorado, Ark., who has been visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. H. A. W. Skeen, in the Gap, and sister Miss Henrietta Skeen left Tuesday morning for Middlesboro where they will spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Alcover and daughter, Miss Evelyn, Misses Ruth Prescott and Edith Van Gorder and A. L. Holton were among those from the Gap who attended the Kiwanis banquet at Norton Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gilmer were shopping in Norton Thursday.

Mrs. C. C. Cochran spent a few days in Bristol last week the guest of friends.

Dr. Thomas F. Staley announces as associate in his infirmary, Dr. Arthur Hooks, recent house surgeon in Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital, New Orleans, La. The firm name to be Drs. Staley & Hooks, 26 4th Street, Bristol, Tenn.

Misses Reba and Anna Barron Collier, who have been attending school at Stonewall Jackson College in Abingdon, have returned to their home in the Cove for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thomas, who have been visiting Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McGuckin, in the Gap, left for Los Angeles, California, Tuesday where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Sayers and children left last Thursday night for Columbus, Ohio, where they will spend some time visiting relatives and friends.

PLANTS FOR SALE—Old Kentucky White, Nancy Hall, Norfolk Yellow, Japanese Yam and Southern Queen Sweet Potato Plants. Phone or write to Lindsey Horton, Big Stone Gap, Va.—Adv.

Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Chalkley, Mr. and Mrs. Josh Bullitt, Jr., R. E. Taggart, Miss Minnie Fox, Mrs. E. E. Goodloe, Miss Anita Goodloe, Mrs. R. B. Tinsley, were among those from the Gap who attended the funeral of little James L. Camblos, Jr., in Norton Saturday morning.

Joseph Miner, the popular monument man from Rogersville, spent several days the past week in the Gap. His firm is one of the best of its kind in either East Tennessee or Southwest Virginia and their work is of the very best and guaranteed in every particular.

J. W. Guntner, of Appalachia, and J. H. McCue, of Bristol, left last Wednesday night for Rochester, Minn., where they will take treatment under the direction of Mayo Brothers, specialists.—Independent.

Try our Electric Silver Cleaner Plate. Cleanses all silver in stantly and perfectly without rubbing, scouring or scratching. See demonstration at D. M. Booher's Jewelry Store.—adv.

Misses Kate Guthrie, Louise Nickels and Margaret Wolfe returned Thursday from Abingdon, where they spent several days attending the Christian Endeavor convention at Stonewall Jackson College.

Circle No. 3 of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. I. Nickels, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Addington and son, James, have returned from a two weeks visit to relatives at Hilton, Va.

Mrs. W. I. Nickels spent the week end with relatives at Es-serville.

Misses Henrietta Williams, of Gate City, and Dakota Barnes, of Appalachia, are the guests of Miss Ora Clark, this week.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet at the M. E. Church, South, Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Mrs. Burton, the new district secretary and the presidents of the auxiliaries of the district will meet with them at that time.

Miss Cora Griffin spent several days last week visiting relatives and friends in Kentucky.

James Gilly and Ray Littrell left last Wednesday for Shulls Mills, North Carolina, where they have accepted positions with the Boone Fork Lumber Company.

Announcements have been received in the Gap by a large number of friends from Mrs. M. E. Odell, of Anderson, Ind., announcing the birth of a daughter June 8th which has been named Ledia Madga Odell. Mrs. Odell was formerly Miss Trula Beaman, of the Gap, a sister of Mrs. Lindsey J. Horton.

Mrs. John S. Hamblen, who spent the winter for her health at Amherst, Mass., visiting her brother, Prof. W. H. Hamilton, and several weeks at Jonesboro, Tenn., visiting her father, Rev. H. S. Hamilton, returned to her home in the Gap on last Tuesday night. We are glad to say that she is much improved in health.

Something new, big improvement over others. Silver and Gold "Superlite" Pencils that propels, repels and expels the lead. Best out yet. See them on display at D. M. Booher's Jewelry Store. Prices $1.00 to $3.50.—adv.

J. H. Pierpont, of the St. Charles Hotel, at Norton, formerly of the Gap, has returned from his home at Peonion Springs near Washington, D. C., where he was called several days ago on account of the illness of his father, Fred L. Troy, of Josephine, assisted Mrs. Pierpont in the office of the hotel during Mr. Pierpont's absence.

W. S. Beverley, operator for the Southern Railway at Inter-mont, had the misfortune to step into an engine pit one night last week and had a narrow escape from being seriously injured if not killed. Two of his ribs were broken and he was otherwise bruised up. We are glad to state, however, that he is improving and will soon be able for work again.

Misses Corrie and Frances Long left last Wednesday for Abingdon, where Miss Frances will undergo an examination at the hospital. Miss Corrie will go on to Washington, D. C., to attend the graduation exercises of the class of 1921 of which she is a member of the Army School of Nursing at the Walter Reed General Hospital on Thursday morning, June sixteenth at ten o'clock. President Harding will deliver the diplomas to the graduating nurses.

Pitcher Kelly, of Big Stone Gap, who has been working this spring with the Norfolk club of the Virginia League, will report to Bristol for a tryout. Kelly's ability is well known and if there is room for him on the team he should prove to be a valuable man. He has been released from the Norfolk club on account of a bad case of tonsillitis, from which he has recovered.—Bristol Herald Courier.

J. Polk Wolfe, of Johnson City, and W. E. Wolfe, of Wilder, were in the Gap Tuesday, having come here to cast their votes in the local election.

Prof. H. L. Sulfridge, who has been attending the finals at William & Mary College at Williamsburg, Va., the past week was among the five alumni who were elected and initiated into the Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity at Williamsburg last Thursday. The privilege of wearing the Phi Beta Kappa key is a highly honored one and only honor graduates and alumni who have attained distinction are elected with few exceptions.

Young Men's Club Invited to Appalachia.

The Chamber of Commerce, of Appalachia, has extended an invitation to the Young Men's Club to attend their get-together luncheon Thursday night.

G. L. Taylor, president of the Young Men's Club, wants fifty live wires to assemble at the Monte Vista Hotel at 7:30 o'clock and go up to the big meeting.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the many friends and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our beloved daughter and sister, also for the beautiful floral offerings. May God's richest blessings be with you all.
Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Shelton and Children.

Coal

Coal

BUY THE

Famous Black Mountain EGG OR BLOCK

The coal you want for the range. Prompt service. 'Phone 49.

A. P. HAMMOND

Coal! Coal!

Roda or Keokee BLOCK

$6.00 Per Ton Delivered. Special price on winter supply.

Long's Coal Yard

BUY YOUR COAL

FROM THE

Wise Supply Company

Black Mountain Egg Coal

$6.00 PER TON

MONEY INVESTED WISELY

is invested to return the greatest possible good.

AN INVESTMENT IN

Kentucky Utilities Co. Preferred Stock

YIELDS 7 Per Cent

MOREOVER the Proceeds are being used toward improvement of the company's holdings, in bettering the service, and toward raising the standard of utility conditions in your city to the highest possible level. Is Non-Taxable, exempt from all taxation, the income derived therefrom not subject to the normal Federal Income Tax. Combine these qualities with the fact that, an investment in your public utility company, the people's servant, is both a benefit to your city and yourself, and you have invested wisely.

PRICE $85 Per Share Either cash or $10.00 per share with subscription and $7.50 per month for 10 months.

ALLOW US to convince you of the extraordinary merits of our security. The man who reads your meter, the cashier to whom you pay your bills, the manager in your city, in fact any one connected with the company will gladly give you further information or

Mail This
Coupon
To-day

BOND AND STOCK DEPARTMENT
KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY, INC.
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

With no obligation on my part I shall be pleased to receive further information about your Cumulative Preferred Stock.

Name _____

Address _____