There were several brothers present who stand very high in Masonic circles and it is regretted that there was not more time to devote to the speaking program. This was one of the largest Masonic gatherings ever held in Big Stone Gap, and every one reported a most enjoyable evening.

COMPLIMENTARY TO MISS GRIFFIN

Miss Cara Griffin and Doris Warner entertained delightfully on last Saturday evening with four tables of Hearts complimentary to Miss Griffin's sister, Miss Julette Griffin, of Mt. Vernon, Ky. The quaint little cottage was tastefully decorated in rhododendrum, ferns and cut flowers and numerous jack lanterns hung in the trees on the large lawn.

Miss Ruth Smith won the girl's prize and Tom Gaboury won the boy's prize for having the least number of hearts. Nita Goodloe and Clifford Smith won the booby prizes, and Evelyn Abover and Arthur Foster won the consolation prizes. At a late hour a delicious course consisting of fried chicken, potato chips, beaten biscuits, pickles, olives, tomato salad, ice cream and cake, was served to those present. The invited guests for the occasion were: Misses Ruth Smith, Frances Scott, of Knoxville; Nita Goodloe, Evelyn Abover, Kathleen Morgan, Pearl Miller, Henrietta Shoun, and Juliet Knight. Messrs. Edward Goodloe, William Beverly and guest, Tom Gaboury, of Jacksonville, Ala.; Arthur Foster, Harry Mitchell, Dan Pierson, Clifford Smith and Rufus Pettit.

NEW ENTERPRISE FOR THE GAP WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

For years the need of a permanent place of sale for the many beautiful and useful articles of needle work and fancy cookery made by the ladies of the Gap and the surrounding country have been keenly felt by our women; and so the ladies of the Baptist Aid Society will conduct such an enterprise. Members solicited. Dues one dollar per year, for which one has the privilege of placing on sale any number of articles during the year. Mrs. R. L. Hilton, chairman of the membership committee, will explain all details and receive dues of any time. The exchange will be operated in a building opposite the post office, open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. each day and in connection with a tea room, known as "Ye Sign of the Blue Tea Pot." A gracious hostess will have charge of both of these enterprises each day. Saturday, July 1st, will be the opening day and the following menu will be served:

- Salads Chicken-Potato Tomatoes Sandwiches Club, Ham, Chicken Beverages Coffee-Iced Tea Meat Shred Ham Sweets Ice Cream Cake

HEARTS FOR VISITOR

On last Saturday afternoon Mrs. J. J. Kelly, Jr., entertained with a delightful heart party complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. Daudridge Murrell, of Lynchburg. The house was decorated attractively in old fashion garden flowers and nasturtiums.

J. A. MORRIS, BIG STONE GAP, - VIRGINIA

MR. DUFF VISITOR HERE

J. R. Duff, better known in this section as "Rad" Duff, foreman on the Nebraska State Journal, one of the leading daily papers of Lincoln, Neb., has been spending several days at Appalachia visiting his sister, Mrs. Alice Sullivan. He also came down several times to meet up again with his many friends in the Gap who knew him well back in the early nineties when his mother operated one of the first hotels in Big Stone Gap, known as the Duff House and now owned by Frank Sturgill. Rad has been absent from this section for eighteen years and he was overjoyed to be back again on the old "stamping ground." He went into the newspaper business directly after leaving here and has qualified himself in this profession to a high standard. He came through from Lincoln accompanied by Mrs. Duff by overland to Mt. Sterling, Ky., and upon being informed that the roads were rough in some parts this side of Mt. Sterling he decided to come by rail the rest of the trip.

CAMPING PARTY

Misses Nita Goodloe, Lucy and Ann Maury, Julia Dickenson, of Castlewood, Messrs. Gordon and John Allen Goodloe, Dan Pierson, Tom Goodloe, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith are camping near Dryden.
