Davis-Tomlinson

On last Tuesday evening at six thirty o'clock, Miss Ottilie Tomlinson and Mr. Dewey Davis were quietly married at the Presbyterian Manse. Rev. James M. Smith performed the ceremony. Following the ceremony a very delicious dinner was served the bridal couple and a few relatives and friends at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Nancy Tomlinson.

The bride is one of the most deserving young ladies of the Gap. Until recently she held a position in the hosiery mill at this place and supported her mother and a number of small sisters and brothers. She is well known and liked by a large circle of friends. The groom is also well known in the Gap where he has made his home for sometime. At present he is driving one of the ice trucks for the Norton Ice Company.

The happy couple will make their home near the L. & N. station.

Beautiful Card Party

One of the most prominent events of the fall season, was the beautiful-planned card party by Mrs. D. B. Pierson Saturday afternoon at her lovely home on Poplar Hill.

For this auspicious event, the whole lower floor of the Pierson home, which is ideally arranged for entertaining was beautifully decorated with vases and bowls of gorgeous dahlias, nasturtiums and other fall flowers. Attractive tally cards appointed the guests to the twelve card tables at which "Progressive Hearts" was enthusiastically played during the afternoon.

At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. R. B. Tinsley had received the least number of Hearts and won the prize, a handsome flower bowl and Miss Minnie Fox received the greatest number and won the loopy prize, an attractive powder jar and puff. Mrs. Fred L. Troy cut the lowest card and received the consolation prize, a beautiful handpainted picture.

At the close of the game, luncheon clothes were arranged on the card tables and elaborate salad and ice course were served the guests.

Those present were: Mesdames J. K. Taggart, J. L. Camblos, Sam McCluen, of Norton, Fred L. Troy, of Josephine, S. J. Gundry, H. A. Alexander, of Stonega, H. S. Specialist Now Permanently Located in Appalachia

Dr. Wm. N. Botts, specialist in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, who has been temporarily located in the Tamer Building, has recently moved into permanent quarters over the Old Dominion Drug Store in Appalachia, where he has had the rooms remodeled to conform to the needs of the specialist in his work.

Dr. Botts now has one of the most thoroughly equipped offices in this section of Virginia, he having almost all the modern equipment used by specialists usually found in the highest class offices in the large cities.

His brother, Dr. Geo. W. Botts, who was associated with him in the Appalachia office, has moved to Norton.

Constable: "Halt, ye're under arrest."

Motorist: "What for?"

Constable: "Never ye mind. I ain't goin' tuh give ye any chance tuh think up excuses."—Life.

Mother of Eighteen Children Passes Away

Mrs. Dave Slemp, of Turkey Cove, Lee County, who has been ill for the past four years, passed away at her home several days ago. Mrs. Slemp before her marriage was Miss Callie Waddle, of Lee County.

Mrs. Slemp, who was near sixty years old was the mother of eighteen children, nine of whom are dead and nine are living. She was a good, loyal mother and wife and a christian, having joined the church when she was quite young.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Slemp Cemetery near Olinger. The following survive her: Her husband, Dave Slemp and children, Mrs. Corrie Nichols, of Big Stone Gap, Mrs. Henry Reasor, Mrs. Milford Taylor, Miss Maude and Alpha Slemp, Hop, Letch, Irvine and Ora Slemp, of the Cove. Sam Slemp, who was recently killed in a shooting at fray at Olinger, was one of her sons.

And still, the fact that the other fellow is a man after your own heart may not be to his credit.

INTERESTING PRICES

Based upon immediate shipment from well assorted stocks, are being quoted on the following:

Black and Galvanized sheets, line and track material, hack saw blades, hinges, black, galvanized and sewer pipe, nails, shovels, rivets, washers, wire and manila rope, round, flat and angle iron, locks, coil chain, wrenches, belting, packing, electrical supplies, etc.

Before making a purchase of Hardware, Mine and Mill supplies of any kind it will pay you to get in touch with us and see what we have to offer; as the Coal strike and Railroad strike combined have decreased production, to such an extent that it will require many months of full operation on the part of manufacturers of supplies in our line to take care of the urgent needs of their customers and supplies will be scarce the balance of the year.
