

THEY WERE CARRIED

Three of the Pollard Jurors Said to Be Conscience-Stricken.

PETITION FOR A NEW TRIAL

It Will Be Presented as Soon as the Certified Record is Received—Mr. Neblett's Letter as to the Military—Other Features.

The Lunenburg murder case is so prominent of new phases as Solomon Marable, one of the convicted murderers, is of new stories, and almost daily facts are cropping out which have hitherto been shrouded in darkness.

WILL COME TO-DAY

Messrs. T. C. Gregory and George E. Smith, who came to Richmond on behalf of the people of Lunenburg to secure the publication of the full and comprehensive statement of facts in the case, which was printed in the Dispatch yesterday, will arrive in their homes to-day.

ANOTHER JURY WITH HIM

On the following Tuesday, Mr. Harlow returned to the lawyer's home in company with Mr. Criss Edwards, of Nonnewington, Lunenburg county, who was with him on the jury in the Polkey farm case, and the two, united in an appeal to the attorney to bestir himself in behalf of the negroes.

THE PETITION FOR APPEAL

Captain George D. Wise, Judge H. W. Flournoy, and Mr. A. H. Gilson, attorneys for the negro women, who probably will be ready to file their petition for appeal to-day, are expected to appear before Judge Coleman and present a petition for a new trial.

AS TO THE MILITARY

The various applications which have been made upon the military of this city by some of the less conservative people of Lunenburg have caused no little comment here.

LETTER FROM MR. NEBLETT

In connection with the military phase of the case, the following letter to the Governor from Commonwealth's Attorney Neblett, of Lunenburg, may well be interesting.

LETTERS MILLS, VA., July 25, 1895
