

THE IRRELENT STATUE HERE. ARRIVAL SUNDAY BY THE FREDERICKSBURG ROAD.

Guarded by Police on West Broad Street. Removal to be Made To-Morrow Afternoon at 5 o'clock—Relic Hunters Out in Swarms.

The two cars containing the equestrian statue of R. E. Lee arrived at Elba Station Sunday afternoon, at 5 o'clock. Not an accident has occurred; the statue since it left the factory. It made the voyage across the ocean to New York, and from there to Philadelphia, and from Philadelphia to Richmond.

The Governor of the State, and the treasurer, are members of the Lee Monument Association. The committee, which is in charge of the statue, is composed of Messrs. W. E. Lee, C. C. Lee, and others.

The statue is a masterpiece of art, and is the work of the sculptor, John J. Crawford. It is a full-length equestrian statue, and is the largest of its kind in the world.

The statue is now in the hands of the sculptor, and is being guarded by the police. It is expected to be removed to its permanent home in Richmond tomorrow afternoon.

The statue is a masterpiece of art, and is the work of the sculptor, John J. Crawford. It is a full-length equestrian statue, and is the largest of its kind in the world.

The statue is now in the hands of the sculptor, and is being guarded by the police. It is expected to be removed to its permanent home in Richmond tomorrow afternoon.

The statue is a masterpiece of art, and is the work of the sculptor, John J. Crawford. It is a full-length equestrian statue, and is the largest of its kind in the world.

The statue is now in the hands of the sculptor, and is being guarded by the police. It is expected to be removed to its permanent home in Richmond tomorrow afternoon.

The statue is a masterpiece of art, and is the work of the sculptor, John J. Crawford. It is a full-length equestrian statue, and is the largest of its kind in the world.

SOUTHERN METHODISTS. ELEVENTH QUADRENNIAL SESSION IN ST. LOUIS.

Questions to Come Before the General Conference—The North and the South—History of the Church in America—Elect Bishops.

The Eleventh Quadrennial General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South will meet this week in St. Louis, and a great deal of important business will come before the body, which is composed of many representative men of the South, and which is thus summarized by the Atlanta Constitution:

There will be ten or twelve standing committees, which will be in review respectively of the various departments of the church, such as education, Sunday-school, and other departments in the work of the church. Rooms have been rented in the Exposition building for the sessions of this committee.

The opening session of the conference will be held Wednesday morning, May 7th, at 10 o'clock. The first day will be devoted to the election of the presiding officer, and the reading of the report of the last general conference.

The conference will be held in the Exposition building, and will continue for several days. It is expected that a large number of delegates will attend, and that the sessions will be of great interest.

The conference will be held in the Exposition building, and will continue for several days. It is expected that a large number of delegates will attend, and that the sessions will be of great interest.

The conference will be held in the Exposition building, and will continue for several days. It is expected that a large number of delegates will attend, and that the sessions will be of great interest.

The conference will be held in the Exposition building, and will continue for several days. It is expected that a large number of delegates will attend, and that the sessions will be of great interest.

The conference will be held in the Exposition building, and will continue for several days. It is expected that a large number of delegates will attend, and that the sessions will be of great interest.

The conference will be held in the Exposition building, and will continue for several days. It is expected that a large number of delegates will attend, and that the sessions will be of great interest.

COMMON COUNCIL MEETS. THE APPROPRIATION ORDINANCE FINALLY ADOPTED.

Electric Railway Poles on Main Street Ordered Down Conditionally—New Ice House—Reports From Various Committees—Resolutions Introduced.

The monthly meeting of the Common Council opened with a very full attendance yesterday evening at 7 o'clock. The clerk read the letter from Mrs. Jefferson Davis, acknowledging the receipt of the resolutions on the death of President Davis, and tendering her place in the city for his remains.

The Council then proceeded to the consideration of the ordinance relating to the electric railway poles on Main Street. It was ordered that the poles be removed, subject to the condition that the city should provide for the removal of the poles.

The Council then considered the report of the committee on the new ice house. It was ordered that the city should purchase a new ice house, and that the purchase should be made on the terms proposed by the committee.

The Council then considered the report of the committee on the various committees. It was ordered that the city should purchase a new ice house, and that the purchase should be made on the terms proposed by the committee.

The Council then considered the report of the committee on the various committees. It was ordered that the city should purchase a new ice house, and that the purchase should be made on the terms proposed by the committee.

The Council then considered the report of the committee on the various committees. It was ordered that the city should purchase a new ice house, and that the purchase should be made on the terms proposed by the committee.

The Council then considered the report of the committee on the various committees. It was ordered that the city should purchase a new ice house, and that the purchase should be made on the terms proposed by the committee.

The Council then considered the report of the committee on the various committees. It was ordered that the city should purchase a new ice house, and that the purchase should be made on the terms proposed by the committee.

The Council then considered the report of the committee on the various committees. It was ordered that the city should purchase a new ice house, and that the purchase should be made on the terms proposed by the committee.

TALK ABOUT BOYS. ADDRESS BY MR. HOZELAND AT BROAD-STREET CHURCH.

A large audience was present Sunday night at the Broad-street M. E. Church, to listen to an address by Mr. A. H. Hozeland, president of the Boys' and Girls' National Home and Employment Association.

Mr. Hozeland's address was a most interesting and instructive one. He spoke of the importance of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home, and of the need for more such institutions in this country.

Mr. Hozeland also spoke of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home in other parts of the country, and of the success which has attended their efforts.

Mr. Hozeland's address was a most interesting and instructive one. He spoke of the importance of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home, and of the need for more such institutions in this country.

Mr. Hozeland also spoke of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home in other parts of the country, and of the success which has attended their efforts.

Mr. Hozeland's address was a most interesting and instructive one. He spoke of the importance of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home, and of the need for more such institutions in this country.

Mr. Hozeland also spoke of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home in other parts of the country, and of the success which has attended their efforts.

Mr. Hozeland's address was a most interesting and instructive one. He spoke of the importance of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home, and of the need for more such institutions in this country.

Mr. Hozeland also spoke of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home in other parts of the country, and of the success which has attended their efforts.

Mr. Hozeland's address was a most interesting and instructive one. He spoke of the importance of the work of the Boys' and Girls' National Home, and of the need for more such institutions in this country.

IN THE COURTS. THE GRAND JURY ADJOURNS UNTIL THE 19TH.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

The grand jury adjourned until the 19th inst. for the purpose of re-organizing the grand jury, and of selecting a new foreman.

PERSONAL MENTION. PEOPLE GOING AWAY AND RETURNING—DEPARTING.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

Mr. Richard L. Brown, son of Mr. Richard L. Brown of this city, has been appointed a member of the Board of Health.

THE RICHMOND CITY RAILWAY. NEW COMPANY ORGANIZED AND OFFICERS ELECTED.

All the Car Lines in the City Embraced in the Management—The Off-Made Promises of Good Service Again Heard From Other Lips.

The organization of the Richmond Railway and Electric Company was effected yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

The new company was organized yesterday at a meeting of the stockholders of the new consolidation company. The new company embraces all of the street railway companies in the city and the two electric light companies.

W. F. A. HER FORECAST. STATE OF THE RICHMOND MARKET.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1890. The market for wheat is quiet, and the price is steady. The market for cotton is also quiet, and the price is steady.