"The contest will close on December 25, 1895, and the prizes will be awarded as soon thereafter as it is possible to compare the returns and ascertain who have raised the winning hogs. Contestants will be required to send to the News and Courier not later than January 1, 1896, a certificate signed by three witnesses, and sworn to before the nearest Justice, giving the age, gross weight and net weight of their hogs, and stating as nearly as possible the methods employed in raising and fattening the hogs, the cost of raising them and the breed of each."

THE DIFFERENCE IN MEN.
While the Confederate veterans are shaking hands in Atlanta with Mrs. Gen. U. S. Grant, Congressman Dalzell, sometimes referred to as Private Dalzell, in striking contrast, is sprating about the "vigor of the young manhood that fought down the rebellion."

It is such men as Dalzell who seek to keep alive feelings others would allay; who would rekindle the fires of dissension if the thing were possible, and rejoice over the distress his acts had occasioned.
Fortunately for the country there are but few people of this kind left, and it were better if none lived at all.

THE REASON WHY.
Mr. T. Jefferson Coolidge, treasurer of the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company, of Massachusetts, has been interviewed by a Boston Journal on the subject of the removal of mills from New England to the South, and among other reasons given Mr. Coolidge said that labor is lower in the South than the North; the mills are nearer the cotton fields, and that there is a large saving in freight charges.

Southern railroads, he says, take cotton as fifth-class freight, while Northern roads take it as second and third-class, then coal in New England cost $4.50 per ton, while in the South it is not more than $1.50. These he thinks are sufficient reasons why the mills are moving South and why they will continue to do so.
Further on in the interview the gentlemen gave as other reasons equally as potent as the rest, that employers in the South are not hampered by the restrictions established by trades unions; that they are not menaced by strikes, or interfered with by unreasonable legislation, and that commercial business in the South is permitted to run in the ordinary channels established by the law of supply and demand, which conditions do not always obtain in New England. Upon the whole Mr. Coolidge furnished his interviewer with ample reasons why the Northern mills are moving South and they can not be questioned.

Letter From Gen. J. H. Bryant.
SEATTLE, WASH., January 9th, 1895.
M. Glennan, Esq., Editor Norfolk Virginian:
I am in receipt of copies of your very valuable and comprehensive edition of January 1st. The sketch and history of the city of Norfolk is complete. The citizens of that city certainly are under many obligations to you. THE VIRGINIAN has done an immense amount of work to advance its interests. I wish that I could be with you to help you and receive some of the benefits of your great labor. Truly yours,
Jno. H. BRYANT.

From a Citizen of Atlanta.

Editor of The Virginian:
Your New Year's edition arrived to-day. It is a splendid effort, for which you deserve and doubtless will get great commendation. Every department of the paper seems to have been prepared by an artist. I have shown it to a number of my friends who complimented. May you live long enough to see and enjoy that "Greater Norfolk" of which you so gloriously write.

BOTH PREPARING FOR WAR

Mexico and Guatemala Massing Frontier Forces.
A BIG WARSHIP PURCHASED

The Non-Interference of the United States in the Controversy Clearly Proclaimed by Mexico. The War Feeling Growing.
By Southern Associated Press.

MANZATLAN, Mex., January 30.—A large merchant vessel lying in this harbor has been purchased by the Government and is being fitted up for service in the threatened war with Guatemala. It is reported that a large force of troops from the States of Simulo and Durango will be transported to the Guatemala ports by this vessel as soon as war is declared. Several regiments of volunteers have already been raised in this State by patriotic citizens, and the people are anxious for the fighting to begin. It is also announced here that Guatemala is negotiating for the purchase of several merchant vessels engaged in the Pacific coast trade with a view of fitting out a navy to transport her troops to Mexico in case an invasion of this country is decided upon.

St. Louis, January 31.—A special from the City of Mexico to the Globe Democrat, says: "Under the heading of important rectification 'The Mexican Official, Government Daily, in its issue to-day says: 'Some of the newspapers of this city on the authority of information from the United States, have said that Washington authorities desire to intervene in our question with Guatemala. Although intending to publish at the proper time the correspondence on this subject, we are authorized to state that according to a telegram dated the 21st instant and a telegram from the same gentleman dated the 28th, the Secretary of State of the United States declares that he has expressed an opinion regarding the advisability of proposing to the Government of Mexico that it withdraw some of its demands and that he has not advised Guatemala that the United States does not care to intervene in that question nor impose conditions inasmuch as Mexico has a right to act as she thinks best. We make haste to publish this rectification in order to save our contemporaries from making comments on incorrect news.'

"The Globe Democrat correspondent was assured yesterday at the palace that this should put an end, for the present, at least to the rumors flying thick and fast of the intervention of the United States in the Guatemalan question. The Spanish papers of this city bitterly assail the intended meddling on the part of the United States and brand the effort as entirely unjust and uncalled for.

"The authoritative statement from the Government in its official daily will cause much rejoicing that the northern Republic will keep its hands off, and that Mexico and Guatemala will be left alone to fight the question out between themselves, so far as the United States is concerned.

"Yesterday's reports from Guatemala of the stand taken by other Central American Republics, has made the fever of war perceptibly rise in this capital and throughout the Republic. If the demands of the Government from Guatemala do not receive an immediate answer without the intervention of other nations the Mexican Government would be justified in taking steps for the prosecution of a war against that country and against all the Central American Republics if necessary to force a settlement of the question.
"Both sides are massing troops on the frontier, and non-combatants are leaving that section by all manner of conveyances. The United States of Mexico seems unanimous with President Diaz and his policy, and will spare no means or expense in the way of arming and equipping soldiers."

RIBOT SUSTAINED.
Credit Granted for Marshal Canrobert's Funeral.

By Southern Associated Press.
PARIS, January 31.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day the Government asked for a credit of 20,000 francs for the purpose of defraying the expenses of a state funeral for Marshal Canrobert. M. Hubbard, Radical, opposed the proposal on account of his action at the time of the base and treacherous surrender at Metz and his ceaseless opposition to the Republic, which ended only with his death.

Ribot pointed out that the matter was simply one of rendering the homage of the army to the person of a hero.
The sitting throughout was a stormy one, the Socialists taunting Premier Ribot with having formerly been a servant of the Empire, while the members of the Right employed obstructive tactics to prevent M. Hubbard from speaking, which they were successful in doing for twenty minutes.

Urgency was finally voted upon and the obsequies of the marshal were fixed for Sunday.
The credit was carried by a vote of 288 to 159.
King Alexander, of Servia, was present during the debate in the chamber and later visited the Senate, where the Amnesty bill was under consideration.

SET FOR SATURDAY

The Motion to Dissolve the Whiskey Trust Receivership.

CHICAGO, January 31.—Judge Grosscup this morning named Saturday for hearing counsel on both sides of the whiskey trust controversy on the motion made on behalf of the majority stockholders for a dissolution of the receivership instituted Monday evening at Judge Grosscup's residence. Judge Grosscup in announcing the date said:

"The bill filed in this case was on behalf of the stockholders. It was very voluminous, but the gist of it was that the Distillers and Cattle Feeding Company had assets throughout the United States, and was practically insolvent. It was further set forth that unless the administration of this company was put into the hands of receivers injury would result. The situation set forth was such that it was necessary that the order should be entered and action taken immediately. It was necessary that the company should be brought into the shelter of a court of equity.

"A petition has now been brought by other stockholders, who claim that the parties who made application for the receivership represented but a small portion of the stockholders. They ask that, under these circumstances, the court hear them on an application to dissolve the receivership. I will, therefore, appoint Saturday morning as the date to hear this case, and I will require Mr. Greenhut and Mr. Lawrence, the two receivers, to be in court in person."

Attorney Mayor asked if matters were to be permitted to remain in statu quo. To this Judge Grosscup replied: "I shall expect no move whatever to be taken by these receivers before this time."

Attorney Runnells protested, but it did not good. Subpoenas will be issued for all the officers of the Whiskey Trust to appear in court Saturday morning.
Attorneys for the majority stockholders have no doubt that Judge Grosscup will dissolve the receivership Saturday morning, after hearing both sides of the case.

Among those present in court this morning was Nelson Morris, the millionaire packer, whose interests in the Whiskey Trust are said to be identical with those of President Greenhut, but who denies that this is so. Mr. Morris was personally represented by counsel, who, however, took no part in the proceedings.

HEART DISEASE.

Fluttering, No Appetite, Could not Sleep, Wind on Stomach.

"For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. Could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try and am happy to say it has cured me. I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. Its effect was truly marvelous."
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR!
There's not one cent's difference in the Value of a Gold Dollar and a dollar's Worth of Wearing Apparel at the Under Value Cut Rate Prices. Both are Full Face Values, and represent one hundred cents for a dollar. The Ten Dollar Men's Suits in the West Window are Marvelous Values, and the people are not slow in finding it out.

MONEY LOST!
The Lost Money is what you pay for goods that are cheaply made to sell cheap. More money is lost in the effort to economize in the buying of Shoddy, Cheap Stuffs than there is ever saved in the buying. For Three Dollars we offer a choice of Well-Made Men's Trousers, made by our own tailors, better made and far better at that, than any grade of Ready-Made Pants on the market ready to wear, and furthermore better fitting and decidedly better than goods of their class can be had anywhere else.

MONEY SAVED!
Common sense teaches that careful and judicious buying means money saved. The Suits for young men, now quoted at only Seven Dollars, in sizes 32, 33 and 34 inches, breast measure, are great money savers, and will prove a clear saving of from Three to Five Dollars on each and every one of them. They are positively good, honest, serviceable, slightly materials, well made and finished and unquestionably a money saving purchase to those they will fit, and decidedly the best values for the money we've ever offered.

MONEY MADE!
No dollar's worth can be worth more than the value of the dollar's worth placed in the Pants Department at the Undervalue scale of prices. Money made by saving never comes easier. The Men's Pants at only Five Dollars are Capital Fine Qualities, and represent all of the value in points of merit, beauty and service, fit included, that it is ever possible to crowd into a V.

MONEY FOUND!
The quality of the goods represents the monied value. Any article bought here contains full value of the price in quality. Linen Collars 50c each or 50c per dozen is certainly money found. Underwear Remnants, marked at only twenty-five cents, are just as staple for value as one quarter is worth another. Heavy Stuffs of every kind and character at heavy discount prices means money found. Children's Knee Pants at only twenty-five cents proves a clear finding of twenty-five cents on every pair. Size to age 15. They are neat looking and stout goods, and represent the money's worth for every penny charged.
