sociation of a life time and join ourselves to a little band of men who stood by the old-fashioned Democratic principles as handed down from the fathers of old.

Of course, we were misjudged and harshly criticised, and we were denounced as a renegade, a Republican, ally and an enemy of Virginia.

There has been a great change in the situation since the campaign of 1896. The clouds have lifted, in spite of the evil prophecies to the contrary, there is a great abundance of money, so much money, in fact, that there is a danger now that the people will go wild with speculation.

THE HOPE OF HARMONY. The hope of popular government in this country is in the Democratic party, for it is the only party which represents the true principles upon which the Republic is founded.

ADVICE FROM THE ENEMY. The Petersburg Index-Appeal reproduces some remarks of ours concerning the May Conference, and renews its argument in favor of delay.

AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS. It goes out from Washington that the President will call the new Congress into extra session at the beginning of October next.

CURRENT COMMENT. The State of Virginia promises to add a large mileage of new railroad line to its present railroad facilities this year.

Wish we could say that the prospect of adequate currency legislation was as good. But we do not believe there is the smallest probability of any currency legislation that will give the country the smallest real relief even.

of adequate currency legislation was as good. But we do not believe there is the smallest probability of any currency legislation that will give the country the smallest real relief even.

WITH THE VIRGINIA EDITORS. We have no desire to press the question of the Richmond Times' consistency in the matter of the "May Conference."

A GENTLEMAN'S APOLOGY. As we knew would be the case, the Charlotte, N. C. Observer in a graceful and good tempered article begs Richmond's pardon for saying that she had turned away the proposition of the Chesapeake and Ohio and the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina railroad companies.

ROBERTSON'S WARFARE ON CORPORATIONS seems to be conducted mostly with brass bands. Atkinson pulled off the neat piece of advertising for his pamphlets that all books get when suppressed in the mails.

THE PROFITS AT MONTE CARLO this year were $5,000,000. The man who prevented this state of affairs once has evidently retired. A Chicago medical college has just graduated a Dr. Duck. He would not use quack medicines, of course.

AGUINALDO seems to figure that it would take three months to pull his Congress out of the bushes. The presence of a wheelbarrow in which to serve their meals shows that the Virginia soldiers lacked quality and not quantity of food.

OUR NEIGHBOR, the Amelia Record, has secured the services of Mr. W. E. Lippincott to take charge of its editorial department. Mr. Lippincott has quite an enviable reputation as an editorial writer, and the Record is to be congratulated upon its good fortune.

THE BALTIMORE SUN says: The State of Virginia promises to add a large mileage of new railroad line to its present railroad facilities this year.

hood of Orlando, Fla., is now assuming large proportions, and one planter is preparing to put in two hundred acres.

TRIMMED FOR SAILING. "I wonder why they always call ships 'she'?" "Why, because they are all rigged up." Philadelphia Bulletin.

RIGHT COLOR. "Well, well, it is always the expected that happens." "It never happens to me; I always expect it." Chicago Record.

MUST HAVE HAD A FLUSH. One of the hottest poker games on record was the one where the "boy stood on the burning" and "called" his father. L. A. W. Bulletin.

RETALIATION. Paterfamilias-Nelly, I want an explanation from you. I saw you kiss young Johnson this evening. Kelly-Well, papa, he kissed me first. Harlem Life.

CHEAPER. Landlady-It is our custom to return thanks each meal. New Boarder-Well, I rather think I will like that better than the old way of paying cash. Indianapolis Journal.

ROUGH ON ANTIE. Tommy-That church is over two hundred years old. Cissy-My auntie says it's only one hundred. Tommy-Oh, well, I suppose that's as far back as she can remember. The Rival.

LIVED AN OLD MAN. Miss Passes (sentimentally)-"Do you think it possible to love an old man?" Miss Pert (roughly)-"Yes, it is. For I do." Miss Passes-"Oh! I hadn't heard. Who is it?" Miss Pert (laughingly)-"It's pa." Harper's Bazar.

would take place in about four months. She expressly stipulated that the ashes of her husband should be placed near her heart as she lay in her coffin, and that the burial should take place in Woodlawn in a spot selected by her.
