NEWARK, N. J., May 6.—Special.—Newark had little or no trouble in defeating Richmond. Cogan kept the hard-hitting Southerners guessing from the start, while Newark made every hit count in scoring.

In the third four hits, two bases on balls, and some clever bunting were responsible for five runs. Donovan was wild, and after two Newarkers bunted successfully, the Richmond pitcher went up in the air for the rest of the inning. Cogswell landed on him for two two-baggers and a triple.

Richmond's fielding was ragged, compared with the work in the other two games. In the ninth Richmond got two men on bases, and Chesbro was sent to help matters along. The best he could do was a long fly. A hit batsman, Donovan's single, Wrigley's sacrifice, and an infield out, scored Richmond's only run.

Victory for the Jimps.

What the Jimplecutes did for the Stars yesterday afternoon was "Q. S." The Jimps put up an errorless game, full of snap and vim, but the Stars were not in it from start to finish. The Stars scored their lonely tailey in the first inning on a ball which made a bad bound over Spencer's head. The battery work of Hooker and Bethel was splendid, and each member of the team did himself proud.

Blacksburg Defeated Again.

Before a crowd of about 500 people the College Spiders defeated the boys from the Virginia Polytechnic Institute yesterday afternoon by the score of 8 to 4. Altogether the game was well played, and at times excitement ran high among the lusty rooters. McNeill at second base was the bright star of the game, accepting eight difficult chances without a misplay, and out of five times up came off with a base on balls, a three-bagger and two singles. Johnson was relieved in the sixth inning by McCormick, who had some difficulty in locating the plate. Lambert, for Richmond College, allowed only five hits, while he himself made a three-bagger.

The Blacksburg boys have, by their gentlemanly behavior, made themselves many friends, who hope to see them back next year.

The next game scheduled will be between Episcopal High School and Richmond College.

CAPT. JAKE WELLS.

against them, and odds were all against the pennant winners of last season.

Reading, too, was a surprise, and the Newark result made every rooter happy. Every man on the team did his whole duty. Dan Calhoun, the big first baseman, was injured in practice, so Tommy Hess took his place, and about lead the club in hitting on the trip, and his fielding average is away up. Ralph Seybold a hard-hitting and splendid fielding has much to do with the victories.

Joe Dolan hit hard and fielded grandly, as did Gus Dundon. George Wrigley went for everything in sight and made errors, but he took hard chances.

The Newark games will no doubt prove to be drawing cards, and will be interesting, inasmuch as the teams are evenly matched.

Thursday, Friday and two games Saturday with Lancaster, will afford the rooters a chance to see Piggy Ward, Sam Larocque, Dan Leahy, Henry Schmidt, Cal McVey, "Butler," and the rest of the used-to-be Champions.

There will no doubt be a great crowd at the ball park to-morrow afternoon. Chief Rooter Claiborne Epps and his aides, Simon Soloman, Simon Sycle, Tom Boudar, Charlie Phillips, Charlie Taylor, Frank Cunningham, Uncle Billy, Judge Davey, Justice John and the others.

Richmond has a strong pitching corps, and the Atlantic League teams needn't expect a picnic with any of them at the slab.

Manager Wells was delighted with his treatment in Wilkesbarre and assured me that if his first visit is a sample of what is to follow he could say enough for the true sportsmanlike spirit of the local management and the baseball enthusiasts of this valley. He secured a considerably larger amount at the gate than he expected, and remarked that it was the first chance he'd had to count money in a long time, for he had only been getting guarantees.—H. G. Merrell.

Since Ned Hanlon has made the deal with Washington that brings "Duke" Farrel and Jimmy Casey, it has been announced in several papers that Donovan, the promising young pitcher secured from Washington by Richmond along with Wrigley, will belong to Brooklyn at the end of the season.

Manager Jake Wells asserts, however, that he owns Donovan outright and that the claim is puerile. When he first went after the Washington players, two National League clubs refused to waive claim on two of the trio, and for a time the deal was off, but finally matters were straightened out and he secured the men. Mr. Wells was emphatic in the statement that the Brooklyn club had no possible claim on Donovan, and his apparent sincerity impressed me. From another source I learn that the trio cost Richmond $500, and if these men shall remain with the Cherubs at the end of the season when Philadelphia is willing to give a good sum—$2,000 my informant remarked—for them, the only conclusion is that Earl Wagner's astuteness was awfully stunned just about that time.

Mr. Wells incidentally remarked that he was opposed to "farming" and would not accept a player without he controlled him absolutely. He was also somewhat anxious concerning the status the sport will occupy in the minds of the people this season. He had not been able to gather a straw on which to base an intelligent conclusion. Two seasons ago Richmond opened the season to something over $700, while last year the receipts were in the neighborhood of $100, climatic conditions mitigating against last year's first crowds. Manager Wells was quite reassured by the opening crowd in Wilksbarre, which was the largest in the history of the sport for the past ten years.—Sporting News.

GUN CLUB.

The Old Dominion Held a Successful Shoot Yesterday.

The Old Dominion Gun Club opened the season yesterday afternoon with a large attendance notwithstanding the threatening weather.

The magantrap worked well, great speed and numerous angles.

Besides the regular club medal for the best average during the season, there will, also, be a handicap shoot for a very handsome cup. The handicap will be based on the score made by each member during May.

Mr. M. D. Hart, of Louisa, led the club with the high score of 45 out of 50.

H. S. Hawes, second, with 41 and R. L. Gill, third, with 37.

RANGE OF THERMOMETER.

The thermometer at The Times office yesterday ranged as follows: 9 A. M. 64; 12 M. 70; 3 P. M. 72; 6 P. M. 66; 9 P. M. 62; 12 M. 61. Average, 65 5-6.

MANY a dutiful daughter pays in pain for her mother's ignorance or perhaps neglect.

The mother suffered and she thinks her daughter must suffer also. This is true only to a limited extent. No excessive pain is healthy. Every mother should inform herself for her own sake and especially for the sake of her daughter. Write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for her advice about all matters concerning the ills of the feminine organs.

INDULGENT MOTHERS

Many a young girl's beauty is wasted by unnecessary pain at time of menstruation, and many indulgent mothers with mistaken kindness permit their daughters to grow careless about physical health.

MISS CARRIE M. LAMB, Big Beaver, Mich., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—A year ago I suffered from profuse and irregular menstruation and leucorrhœa. My appetite was variable, stomach sour and bowels were not regular, and was subject to pains like colic during menstruation. I wrote you and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used two packages of Sanative Wash. You can't imagine my relief. My courses are natural and general health improved."

MRS. NANNIE ADKINS, La Due, Mo., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I feel it my duty to tell you of the good your Vegetable Compound has done my daughter. She suffered untold agony at time of menstruation before taking your medicine; but the Compound has relieved the pain, given her a better color, and she feels stronger, and has improved every way. I am very grateful to you for the benefit she has received. It is a great medicine for young girls."

SPRING RACING AT MORRIS PARK

The Aqueduct Meeting Was Little More Than a Curtain-Raiser.

CHURCHILL DOWNS PROGRAMME.

Bangle Won the Louisville Handicap in a Gallop—Jockey Johnny Tamle Was Suspended at the Newport Track.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Racing in real earnest for 1899 began to-day at Morris Park, the spring meeting at Aqueduct being little more than a curtain raiser for the greater events of the year. The day was such a fine one that the people came in crowds, and when the first race was run there was scarcely a vacant seat on the grand-stand and the lawn was filled. When the time came for the Metropolitan Handicap there were at least 20,000 people at the track.

Shortly before 4 o'clock the candidates for the Metropolitan—fourteen in all—were sent out for their final furlong through the stretch, and every one was full of life. The closing of the betting showed Filigrane a consistent favorite all the way through.

There was considerable delay at the post, owing to the actions of Box, who refused to join his field, but they finally got away well, with Algol first to show. Previous was close behind, Sanders next and St. Cloud following. They had pretty well settled into their places when a quarter had been run, and Sanders was out in front.

SANDERS LED.

Sanders led as they straightened out in the stretch. Ethelbert, however, had quickened his pace a trifle and got his neck in front of Filigrane, Imp half a length behind him, and Algol fourth. The others were out of it then. Down to the last furlong pole went the leaders, with the jockeys driving hard. Sanders was still in front, but the thundering hoofs were getting nearer and nearer, and horse and rider strained their utmost to hold the slight advantage that was slipping away so fast. Ethelbert was almost at his throat latch a furlong from home and was gaining with every stride and the crowd yelled wildly for the game three-year-old. It was but for an instant, then the all-scarlet jacket of Clawson on Filigrane flashed by them as if they were standing still—and the race was over.

FILIGRANE THE WINNER.

The Morris stable had again won the Metropolitan, and with the favorite this time. It was a well-time rush of Clawson's and he won by two lengths, although he had
