MRS. ASTOR SEEKS DIVORCE

Allegations of Millionaire's Wife Are Shrouded by Mystery.

New York, Oct. 27.—It was learned that on Oct. 18, the day after Mrs. John J. Astor arrived here from Europe, Supreme Court Justice Mills appointed Charles H. Young referee to take testimony in a suit brought by Mrs. Astor for a separation from Colonel John Jacob Astor.

While it is said that the referee has held several hearings in the case, the allegations in the complaint could not be learned.

Up to the present time there had been no intimation that the domestic life of Colonel and Mrs. Astor were not happy. They were married Feb. 1, 1891. Mrs. Astor was Alva L. Willing, daughter of Edward Shippen Willing, a banker, of Philadelphia. They have two children.

FLIES WITHOUT WRIGHT

Lieutenants Humphreys and Lahm Guide Aeroplane Successfully.

College Park, Md., Oct. 27.—Unaccompanied by Wilbur Wright, the instructor, Lieutenants Humphreys and Lahm, of the aeronautical division of the signal corps, made successful flights in the government aeroplane.

It was the first time in the United States that a Wright aeroplane had been guided through the air without carrying either of the Wright brothers. The two officers were warmly congratulated.

FOOTBALL PLAYER DIES

Wilmington Youth Was Injured During Scrimmage In Game.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 27.—Clarence Pierce, aged nineteen years, died at the Delaware hospital from injuries received in a game of football Saturday afternoon. During a scrimmage Pierce was thrown to the ground and several of the players jumped upon his stomach. The youth was carried to his home, and on Sunday his condition became so serious that he was taken to the hospital.

Personal Prejudice.
"What part of a railway train do you regard as the most dangerous?" Inquired the nervous man.
"The dining car," answered the dyspeptic.—Washington Star.

Taking Chances.
Harker—That fellow Buggins is always making bad breaks.
Parker—Yes. He's one of those chaps who believe that it's never too late to mend.—Detroit Free Press.

What Could He Have Meant?
"Do you ever write on an empty stomach?" asked the mere man.
"Sir," exclaimed the literary person, "I am a poet, not a tattoo artist!"—Puck.

People who boast that they never give up sometimes are shown up.

The only way to make an end to a thing is to tell the truth about it.
