

THE FARMERS' SONG.

The farmer's life we love, although Fatigued by toil we be;
 Contented to hard work we go, None happier than we,
 We love the lands we cultivate,
 The cattle that we rear;
 'Tis oh, vice, and slavery we hate,
 But count free labor dear.

CHORUS.
 We cast our seed on well tilled ground,
 We dress our crops with care;
 And when the harvest time comes round,
 We reap an abundance share.

We envy not the rich and great;
 The humblest farmer's lot Is better than a vast estate, By fraud or rapine got.
 By honest toil we win our bread,
 Beneath the glorious skies, Enjoy the beams of heaven's great,
 And high God's bounties prize.

From early dawn to closing day,
 To plough, to sow, and mow,
 The farmer's life, like away—
 His wife is busy too.
 To wash, to churn, to cook or sweep,
 By turns her hand she gives,
 Stops but to rock her babe to sleep,
 Or hush her children's cries.

'Tis busy life, but often here
 The affections of the heart
 In holiest purity appear,
 And highest bliss impart.
 We thank God for what God bestows,
 And learn to feel and know,
 That the best cure for human woes
 Is industry below.

We strive to culture heart and head,
 Our lives from vice to free,
 And trust, like well tilled grain, when dead, Give living bread to be.
 To more successful enterprise,
 Thus we ourselves have known,
 Our needs, whose future crops shall rise Superior to our own.

BEAUTY AND TIME.

BY S. LOVER, ESQ.

Time met Beauty one day in her garden,
 Where roses were blowing free;
 Time and Beauty were talking long,
 So she wondered what brought him there.

Poor Beauty exclaimed, with an anxious air,
 "I request, father Time, my roses you'll spare,"
 For Time was going to mow them all down; While Beauty exclaimed with her prettiest frown,
 "Fie, father Time! he, father Time!
 Oh, what a crime! he, father Time!"

"Well," said Time, "but let me gather A few of your roses here;
 'Tis part of my pride to be always supplied With roses the whole of the year."

Poor Beauty, concerned, thought half in despair,
 And time as he went asked a lock of her hair;
 And, as he stole the soft ringlet so bright,
 He vowed 'twas for love—but she knew 'twas for Time,
 Fie, father Time, &c.

Time went on, and left Beauty in tears—
 He's a tall tale, the world well knows;
 So he boasted to all of the fair lady's fall,
 And showed the lost ringlet and rose.

So shocked was poor Beauty, to find that her fame
 Was raked, though she was to no wise to blame,
 That she dropped like some flower that's torn From its stem.

And her friends all mysteriously said 'twas Time, Fie, father Time, &c.

THE PRISONER FOR DEBT.

BY JOHN C. WHITTIER.

Cast down, great God, the fates
 That to unyielding gain, Round us have risen—Temples, whose priesthood pore Moses and Jesus o'er,
 Their fold the poor man's prison.

Pierced.
 Look at him—through his door, on—grate,
 Feeds and cold the coming night,
 Comes steaming round him din and late,
 As if it louted the light.

Reclining on his shabby bed,
 His hand upholds his aching head—
 His bloodless cheeks are red and hot, Unborn his gray eyelids, heavily And o'er his brainy fingers, heavily His long, thin, shivering lips, heavily

No grateful face looks in his eyes,
 And yet the winter's chill is chill;
 And o'er his half-clothed person goes
 The frequent agonizing shiver.

Silent—save ever and anon,
 A sound, half murmur and half groan,
 Forces apart the painful grip
 Of the old scuff's bearded lip:
 O and o'er his shivering lips,
 Of old age chills and death's

Just God! why lives that old man there?
 A murderer shares his prison bed,
 Whose eye-balls through his horrid hair, Gleam on him fierce and red;
 And the rude earth and heartless jeer Fall ever on his loathing ear,
 And, or in wailful cry or groan, Nerves, flesh and fibre thrill and creep, Whence that ruffian's tossing limb, Crisp with murder touches him!

What has that gray haired prisoner done?
 Has murder stained his hands with gore?
 Not so: his crime's a foster one—God MADE THE OLD MAN POOR.

For this he shares a felon's cell—
 The fittest exile type of hell;
 For this—the hour for which he pined
 His young blood on the invader's sword
 And caught light the fearful coast—
 His blood-guined LIBERTY is lost!

And so, for such a place of rest, Old prisoner, poured thy blood as rain
 On Concord's field and Bunker's crest, And Saratoga's plain!

Look forth, thou man of many scars,
 Through thy dim dragon's iron bars;
 It must be joy, in south, to see,
 You monuments appeared to thee—
 Piled granite and a prison cell—
 The land repays thy service well!

Go, ring the bells and fire the guns,
 And fling the quarry banner out;
 Shout "freedom!" till your lips are gone,
 Give back their cradle shout;
 Let beautiful eloquence declaim
 Of honor, liberty, and fame;
 Still let the poor's strain be heard,
 With "glory" for each sounding word,
 And every thing with breath agree To praise our "glorious liberty!"

But when the patriot cannon jays
 That prison's cold and gloomy wall
 And through its grates the stripes and stars Rise on the wind and fall, Think you that prisoner's aged ear Rejoices in the general cheer?
 Think ye his dim and failing eye
 Is kindled at your pageantry?
 Snarling steel and clanged of limb,
 What is your carnival to him?

Down with the law that binds him thus!
 Unworthy freedom let it find No refuge from the withering curse
 Of God and human kind!
 Open the prison's iron door,
 And let the prisoner's aged ear Hear the voice of his savage God,
 No longer dare as crime to brand
 The enslaving of the Almighty's hand.

IMPORTANT

TO persons suffering from RHEUM-ATIC COMPLAINTS. To the Editor of the Enquirer.—Sir, On the principle inculcated by the great and good Dr.
 Franklin, to diffuse as widely as possible every means within our power to mitigate or soften the afflictions of suffering humanity, I feel it incumbent on me to make known through the medium of your useful paper, that on reading therein an advertisement of Dr. Jebb's Liment, for the cure of RHEUMATISM, I was forcibly impressed with a belief that it was calculated to remove the severe Rheumatic affection to which I had been for seven or eight years subjected, some times almost depriving me of the use of my limbs. I accordingly procured a bottle, and before I had used the whole of it, I found very sensible relief. This increased my confidence in it, and led me to obtain another bottle, the use of which has completely removed the swellings and pains of my limbs, together with the cramp, and restored them to their wonted vigor. I am respectfully yours, GEO. TAYLOR, jr.
 Hempstead, L. I. March 24.

Persons suffering from the above complaints, and in despair of a cure from the failure of the various remedies they have used, are invited to make trial of this long celebrated medicine, which has in years past cured and relieved, as it is now doing, thousands who had despaired of relief.— Nothing but a fair trial can give an idea of its unrivalled excellence. It is also one of the best applications known for stiffness of the joints, numbness, sprains and chilblains.

LIFE! LIFE! LIFE!

ESSENCE OF LIFE.

A valuable Medicine, which if rightly applied will be the means of saving thousands from an untimely grave.

It has been sold and used for thirty years, with great success, and found very efficacious in the following cases, viz. Consumption, Whooping Coughs, common Coughs, Colds, difficult Breathing, Influenza, Quinsy, Asthma, Phtisis, Spitting of Blood, Flatulency, Indigestion, Looseness of the Bowels, Fits of every kind, Cramps, Rickets, Colic, Catarrh, Dysentery, Fainting, Hypochondriac Affections, Head-aches, Sickness at Stomach, Measles, a preventive of Contagious Diseases, Gout and Rheumatism.

This Essence answers a valuable purpose in almost every case of debility; and there are but few, if any diseases, which do not arise from that source. It may be given to either sex, and at any period, it is weakness generally, the composition being entirely di-rived from the vegetable kingdom. The whooping cough may be cured in a week, if taken at the commencement of the disease.
 Dose for an adult, forty drops, (taken after repeated once in two hours, in urgent cases); a child 8 years old, 20; one year old, 10, given in a table spoonful of milk. The best mode of giving the drops to infants is in a little breast milk. But respect must be paid to the age and constitution of the patient, for some will bear double the quantity that others will the better way is to begin with small doses and increase as the patient may require. The following are a few of more than a thousand RECOMMENDATIONS.

"The undersigned ministers of the gospel in the county of Windham, Vermont, knowing the efficacy of Dr. Jonathan Moore's Essence of Life, having used it ourselves in our families, consider it a valuable composition; particularly efficacious and useful in removing complaints of the lungs, and indeed a safe and restorative medicine in the various disorders named in the Doctor's accompanying label and do most cheerfully recommend its general use, believing it well worthy the patronage of the public." Oct. 9, 1835.
