

SATURDAY SPECIAL!

Just about a year ago we had a Fancy Flannel special and it was one of the best "CROWD PULLERS" we have had. This time the Flannels are better, the patterns prettier and the price less.

For pretty Waists, Kimonas and Children's Dresses you get the best cloth at the smallest price ever sold here.

On Saturday, only 8½c per yard.

NOTE—Some of the patterns are on exhibition in our window.

HOMER FITTS

Our Experience is Your Gain!

The many years of experience we have had has taught us that good Shoes—solid, honestly-made Shoes from toe to top—are cheaper in the end for the customers and a better advertisement for us than poorly-made Shoes at "way-down" prices. We give you our experience. Good Shoes for Men, Women and Children at lowest possible prices.

SIRENS AND SONS.

Russell Sage, still the largest leader in Wall street, is said to have more ready money than any other individual in the street.
William Jennings Bryan's latest acquisition is a $1,200 team of horses which were prize winners at a recent Milwaukee horse show.

Captain C. W. McRae, who succeeded Rear Admiral Melville as chief of the bureau of steam engineering, is the first Annapolis graduate to fill the place.

Professor Carl E. Myers, the aeronautical engineer, who has established a "balloon farm" in Herkimer county, N. Y., declares that the safest voyaging is in balloons.

Among August birthdays was that of Mr. Otto Goldschmidt, who married Jenny Lind. The relict of "the Swedish Nightingale" is now seventy-four years of age, and his romance is more than half a century old.

William Durant of Boston, who recently celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday anniversary, will in February next complete seventy years of active service in the office of the Boston Transcript. He is now the treasurer of that publication.

It is believed that there are but two survivors of the volunteer army that served in the Black Hawk war. These two veterans are John T. Knox of Los Angeles, Cal., and A. T. Sullenger of McLeansboro, Ill. The former has passed his ninety-third birthday, and the latter is nearing the ninety mark.

Chief O'Neill of the Chicago police department has for many years been collecting Gaelic folk songs and other Irish music, and his collection is now published in book form. It includes 625 songs and 380 reels among other compositions. The chief was assisted in his work by Patrolman James O'Neill.

Judge William Penn Lyon, the "grand old man" of Wisconsin, former chief justice, civil war colonel, statesman and institutional manager, is going to California, where he will live the remaining years of his life. He is eighty-one years old and has figured prominently in the history of the state of Wisconsin.

THE EDUCATORS.

Dr. Maurice Bloomfield, professor of Sanskrit and comparative philology at Johns Hopkins, is spending his vacation in reading the proof of a glossary of words found in the ancient Vedas of the Babylonians.

Leon C. Marshall, who has recently been called to the chair of economics in the Ohio Wesleyan university, is probably the youngest man to occupy such a position anywhere. He is now twenty-four years of age.

Miss Ellen Douglass of Cape May, N. J., has been appointed professor of Romance languages in the University of Missouri, to take the place of Professor Basset, who recently resigned to accept a similar position in Kansas university.

Women—Mrs. Jane Backus, Ruth Hall, Mrs. Marion Richardson, Mrs. P. J. Sheeter, Mrs. L. G. Spaulding, Mary Stenquist, Shirley White.

Letter To Virgil Avers.

Barre, Vt.
Dear Sir: Three gallons saved is $12 to $15 earned.
Mr. Hanford Platt of Bridgeport, Conn., ordered 15 gallons Devoe to paint his house, and returned 3 gallons. His painter said it would take 10; a lead-and-oil painter.
Hubbell & Wade Co. sold it. They say everybody has the same experience there. The reason is, of course; they are used to poor paint.
What is poor paint? Anything not Devoe; some worse than others.
Besides, paints wear about as they cover. Double the $12 to $15.
Yours truly,
F. W. Devoe & Co.
P. S.—Reynolds & Son sell our paint.
