For fancy work and other articles visit the New York booth, where you will be greeted by Indian maidens such as we read of in the Leatherstocking Tales, at the Universalist fair next week.

The next meeting of the Ministers' Monday club will be in the Methodist church of Barre, Nov. 9, at 10 o'clock. Paper, Rev. B. C. Roberts, The Eucharist; paper, Rev. T. H. Mitchell, The Ultimate Tribunal of Appeal. Discussion, W. A. Kinzie's, Sec'y.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The ladies of the Universalist church are making elaborate preparations for their annual chocolate pie supper and bazaar, to be Friday, Nov. 13, at the town hall. They will present some very novel attractions, a country store and post office, a Japanese booth, Mother Shipton and the African Dodger, home made candles and other attractions. A Gibson girl will preside over the Ladies' Home Journal booth. Subscriptions will be taken there. A musical programme will be given during the evening.

MINISTER'S NOVEL WAGER.

Stakes include Communion Service and Suit of Clothing.

After the prayer meeting services at Shiloh Baptist church, near Reading, Pa., the other night Rev. Moses E. Braxton, the pastor, made a novel proposition to the members of the congregation, which was received with favor.

The minister proposes to collect the sum of $50 before his entire congregation will collect $50, and if he loses he will buy a handsome communion service for use in the church. If he wins, the congregation is to buy him a new black suit, the cost not to exceed $25.

The congregation is desirous of purchasing a church lot and is trying hard to raise the necessary money.

Can the Silk Hat Be Going?

Is the silk hat doomed? That its use, except on quite formal occasions, is being discarded both by professional and commercial men there can be no question, says the London Telegraph. For every tall hat asked for there are quite fifty or sixty felt hats and caps sold. In other directions the silk hat has also been very badly hit. It used to be a custom for all bank clerks to appear at business in the regulation silk hat. What happens now? Half the men wear caps or straws and the other half bowlers. This breaking of a time honored custom was due to a large extent to the example set by the members of the London Stock Exchange.

A Social Gem.

One must go to the Kansas newspapers for new and picturesque forms of expression, says the Kansas City Journal. Speaking of the girl who passed the coffee and sandwiches at a recent party, a Jewell county paper says, "She waited upon the guests with a magnificent social alertness most pleasing to all."

Tumult the Future Great.

The Australian federation seems likely to settle upon Tumut as the permanent capital of the commonwealth, but it is a condition that the town must change its name, says the New York World. Ottawa, the capital of Canada, was originally named Bytown, but Tumut is much worse.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Barre Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read the statements of Barre citizens. And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it.

C. Milne (retired), address 35 Branch St., says: "When I first noticed a dull aching in the small of my back, about three years ago I did not pay much attention to it, although very often the twinges radiated to the shoulders. But by and by, when I noticed it every morning when getting up after an hour or so, and when in the evening I sat down to read a newspaper I found that the dull chronic aching kept up its aggravation, then I became anxious about my condition, for I knew there was some disturbed action of the kidneys. I was often so nervous from the irksome aching that I was compelled to get up and walk around the rooms so as to keep the miserable feeling under subjection. When suffering very acutely I happened to read about Doan's Kidney Pills and I was induced from the advertisement to go to E. A. Brown's drug store for a box. After a few days' treatment I noticed a decided improvement and a continuation of the use of the pills completely stopped the annoying attack. Since then I have not noticed any symptoms of a recurrence."
