Freshmen Throws Sophomore, Bound into a Lake. Seattle, Wash., Dec. 16.—The freshman-sophomore warfare at the State university has taken a serious turn. A band of freshmen were fired on while surrounding a house where Ormund, a sophomore, lived. The supposition was that they were burglars.

Ormund, bound hand and foot, was later thrown into Lake Union. He was rescued with difficulty. Miles Leiser, another sophomore, was thrown into the lake with his hands bound. He was seized with cramps, but was saved by a freshman.

The trouble started some days ago when the sophomores tore down a trophy which has been used in the decorations at the freshman class dance.

At that time a sophomore wounded a freshman with an ax.
