

LETTER SALES.—The great sale of letters through the year in the State of Vermont was commenced on Monday. Over half the immense catalogue of books, largely of the "do-it-yourself" sort, but with sprinkling enough of the genuine to induce a lively competition. The sale of three hundred articles in the collection are packages of patent medicines, in the shape of pills, powders, unguents, oils, ointments, and ointments, all of which are of a very high quality, and are of the relief of every malady known to man or woman. There are over one hundred and fifty gold (supposed to be) watches on the catalogue, and no end of silver watches. Also, an indescribable mass of all the varieties of wares known to civilization. Among the odd articles that pass through Uncle Sam's hands, finding their way to the Dead Letter office, are sets of abraham's keys, packages of type, ladies' wigs, bundles of clothing, duplicate parts of sewing machines, packages of felt hats, iron cog wheels (mainly lots of lamp-work, dress elevators, false bosoms (ladies'), shoulder-strips, pieces of a piano, lamp shades, hundreds of military books, &c. The proceeds of the sale will be deposited, subject to the order of the owners, should any of them ever turn up.

Not Hay.—The turkey hunt is commenced while raising the stuffing season, to the terror of the ill-bred damed left to watch it, who ran to kill his mistress. "Ma'm," she screamed, "come down and see the turkey." "Is he coming?" asked, but some of the compliments is better than the turkey. "The compliments" is good.

A New Move.—The most inspiring and dispiriting of the New York dressers has introduced the custom of dressing the hair of his lovely customers, by adding and blending with the natural growth tresses of hair into locks of yellow, or intermediate shades of the golden brown, while the darker hair of the brunettes are striped with black. This unique style is called the "New Hair," and it is expected that it will be a great success.

Not a Boy.—"Day Times"—The not very promising son of an anxious parent or mother had been employed, at home, in a store, for six months, and was, on the day of his discharge, being asked how he liked the store. "Head of concern answers briefly: 'Boy good, but the store is not a very good place to work in.'—Herald Register.

Old Daze.—The leading physicians in Paris have come to the conclusion that one of the best remedies for cholera is a mixture of tea, and in consequence a large amount of tea has been consumed in France within the last fortnight. This remedy was known in England a great many years ago, for the old song says: "When I was a young man, I used to drink tea, and it was a very good thing for me."—Herald Register.

The People of Leyden, Holland, recently made a raid on the New York dressers, and one night stole some six hundred. They had no music in their ranks, and didn't want so much music in their ears.

An Irish peasant in being asked why he permitted his pig to take up his quarters with his family, made an answer bounding with wit and satire. "Why not? Does a pig care for the old song says: 'The pig will take up every convenience that a pig can have.'—Herald Register.

At the meeting of the Taunton Association of Ministers at Fall River last week, and the pastor lamenting the small number of children in his Sunday school, was asked by another if many marriages were taking place in the parish. "No," he replied, "it is too much like heaven in that respect."

Apron Bradley, a colored lawyer at Savannah, Geo., has been convicted of using unparliamentary language in public assemblages, inciting lawlessness and disturbance of the peace and good order, and sentenced to a year's imprisonment, or according to one account for one year.

U. H. Crosby, the Chicago man who assumed a large fortune by holding for a time and speculating in high wares, and then put most of it into the splendid opera house erected by him not long ago in that city, made a general assignment of his property on Wednesday, for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities amount to between $400,000 and $500,000. Trustees are to sell the opera house, March 5.

New Attractions, at the Vermont Gallery of Art. The proprietor of the establishment has just returned from Boston, where he has purchased a very large assortment of paintings of different sizes, which will be on exhibition and for sale at the gallery in a few days.

A lady who asked her other day why she chose to live a single life. She naively replied: "Because I'm not able to support a husband." Sharp.

FROM WASHINGTON. General Grant's Movements. The general will not start south again for a week or two. The general and party are expected back in a day or two from the wedding. The general will not start south again for a week or two.

There is considerable talk here to-day over the allegation of the colored people that the President refused to see them on New Year's Day. It is alleged that the President gave orders that the colored people should not be admitted till the reception was over when he immediately retired to his private apartments. The colored people were then admitted to take a very brief look at the public rooms in the Presidential apartments.

Several members of Congress who arrived here during the recess have been preparing important bills which they will introduce immediately after Congress meets. It is rumored that Senator Doolittle has prepared a speech in which he will take a strong ground in favor of immediate admission of the Southern claimants. The first contest will be over the Tenn. delegation.

Prize Money for the Navy. A Washington dispatch says that a list of the prize money paid to different commanders and flag officers of vessels during the rebellion, $9,000,000 has been paid thus far. 600 captures remain unadjudged which will add the aggregate to about $15,000,000.

lost and unroofed buildings and temporarily destroyed telegraph communication with the South. There was some disturbance on Christmas at Clarksville between the whites and the negroes. Particulars not yet received.

New York, Dec. 28. Steamship Saxonia from Southampton 13th has arrived. It is understood in diplomatic circles that the French troops will soon be entirely withdrawn from Mexico. This is in consequence of an understanding between the French and American Governments, that when France leaves Maximilian to himself this Government shall not interfere, in short he is to be left to the Mexicans. His friends in Europe say that in such a contingency he will quit Mexico.

The friends of a higher tariff are organizing their forces during the recess. They will be prepared to carry through their measures. Mr. Morrill, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee is opposed to any further increase, but the Penn. interest is so tremendous that it will succeed with New England facilities it may want.

The President's house is undergoing purification to-day, for New Year's reception. There is every prospect for the usual result of the people. It is to be still further enlarged—Gen. Grant's visit to New Orleans is to see how clear a reduction Sherman's army will bear.

The Chronicle has ceased to argue in favor of negro suffrage in this district. The enemies of the proposed reform assert that this indicates that the President will veto the bill. Mr. Stanton this morning assured a prominent statesman that all rumors of a disagreement between himself and the President were wholly false. He expects to remain in the Cabinet for some time to come.

President, R. I., Dec. 29. The steamer Commonwealth of the Stoughton Line, together with the depot, adjoining buildings, and 30 freight cars, 16 of which were loaded with freight, were totally destroyed by fire this morning at Boston, for the first time since 1842. The Commonwealth was one of the best boats on the Sound, and had arrived from New York last night.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. Snow commenced falling early this morning. At 11 o'clock the ground was covered to the depth of three or four inches. The storm still continues. Some of the papers erroneously stated that the great Seaman is kept in iron.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. It is showing last here at 2 P. M. Rumors of a Proclamation. The story is again revived that the President will issue a proclamation in two or three weeks announcing to the country that the work of reconstruction is complete. This would greatly embarrass Congress. Prominent Republicans assert that it cannot be true, as the President has stated to them repeatedly that he desires to avoid a conflict with Congress.

Death of Winter Davis. WASHINGTON, Jan. 2. A number of members of Congress have gone up to attend the funeral of Winter Davis at Baltimore. His sudden death has produced a great impression here. Yesterday morning the mail service on all the routes which have been in Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida went into operation. It is said that but few routes remain vacant in the first three States.
