

THE SILVER DEBATE

OPENED BY MR. BLAND IN FAVOR OF HIS FREE COINAGE BILL.

Republicans Object to Mr. Williams Making the Leading Speech in Reply, But Are Overruled by the Speaker...

WASHINGTON, March 22.—In the House today several bills were reported from committee and referred, after which the Bland bill was called up as a special order...

The gentleman from Missouri (Mr. Bland) had asked whether our monetary system was to be regulated by the rest of the world...

The gentleman from Ohio said: "The Bland bill will do what the Bland bill does, and the Bland bill does what the Bland bill does..."

Mr. Taylor—That was not the order in the discussion in the last House. The minority report was made by one gentleman...

Mr. Taylor—There was no understanding. The chair said the gentleman from Massachusetts was the minority representative.

HE USED A HATCHET.

A BOSTON MAN MURDEROUSLY ASSAULTS A RELATIVE.

Five Acres Burned Over—Cambridge Carriage Factory, Dwellings and Stores Burned—Whalen Murder Trial Begun at Pittsfield.

BOSTON, March 22.—Mrs. Annie Powell, aged 34, living at 18 Rockingham place, Roxbury, at the city hospital suffering from numerous wounds to the face and head, alleged to have been inflicted by her brother-in-law, John J. Brennan, she may not live. Her face was almost chopped to pieces, a keen-edged hatchet being the weapon used.

According to Mrs. Powell's version given to the police, Brennan, considerably the worse for liquor, entered the house shortly before 4 o'clock, went into the cellar and threatened her as she was about to get up stairs with a box of coal.

A hatchet used by one of the tenants lay on the floor, and Brennan, she says, picked it up and approached her, demanding a retraction of some statement she made. She was not cowed by his possession of the implement and the discussion waxed warmer.

Brennan, she says, struck her over the head, falling her to the floor, and he is alleged to have followed up the attack by striking her twice more across the face while she was prostrate, each blow laying her cheek open to the bone.

Mrs. Powell was not found until after 7 o'clock, and in the meantime she had lost a large amount of blood. She was taken to the hospital, and is in a precarious condition.

Brennan was found concealed in a house in North street. He was taken into custody and locked up, charged with assault and battery with a deadly weapon.
