

LANOILLE COUNTY

MORRISVILLE. Carlos, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross, is at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington for a second treatment and the fitting of steel braces to his legs in which he underwent an operation at that institution a few months ago.

STOWE. Mrs. Etta Hazleton, who was taken to Burlington last Thursday for an operation, died there in St. Albans, Vermont, Sunday afternoon.

W. H. Westover, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Brown spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Norris, at West Berkshire. Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Titilston spent several days the past week with their daughter, Mrs. James McComb, at Johnsonville.

BELVIDERE. Vernal Coburn has hired out to J. R. McCuen. Daniel Bennett is moving from J. R. McCuen's farm to Cadding hollow to work for Frank Laraway and run the boarding school he has begun in town.

Green Cut Bone For Poultry. During freezing weather we cut up a great many tons of green bone and meat. There is nothing better for poultry. Price $3.50 per barrel of 200 pounds, at which price we prepay freights to almost any station.

ORLEANS COUNTY

NEWPORT. F. A. Martin, United States district attorney, has received from the federal building to look after the interests of the government in smuggling cases.

CRAFTSBURY. Charles Hoyt has sold his farm to Eric and Sawyer. Mrs. Clarence Woodbury was called to Coventry last Thursday by the serious illness of her mother.

DERBY LINE. Fred Laythe is at home from an extended trip in the West. Mrs. A. P. Foster and Miss Mary have returned from Chicago and other points West.

BROWNINGTON. Mrs. Orne has been at Boston for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Grapes, who is sick with the measles.

LOWELL. Harry Wellman was home from Dartmouth for Thanksgiving. Adelbert Longley has moved from Fall River, Mass., and taken possession of his farm.

MORGAN. Robert Blood will attend Derby Academy the coming winter term. Gerald Brown is home from Barton for his vacation.

WATERVILLE. J. L. Rix was in Boston on business last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jackson visited his sister at Clinton, Mass., last week.

ORANGE COUNTY

RANDOLPH. Mrs. Caroline (Katham), wife of A. B. Kinney, died Wednesday Nov. 29 at the hospital in Waterbury to which she was taken a month ago.

CHelsea Academy began its winter term Monday after only a week's vacation instead of the customary fortnight, as one week was lost in mid-term, owing to measles epidemic.

FORESTDALE. L. C. Bump has gone on a business trip to Boston, Mass., New York city and Baltimore, Md. He expects to be absent about two weeks.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

MORETOWN. Mrs. Wm. McDonough was buried Tuesday. The funeral was held at the house, the Rev. W. M. Roberts officiating.

WARREN. George Hall of Roxbury was the guest of his son, H. P. Hall, last week. Pearl Hall went to Williamstown Tuesday.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

WATERVILLE. J. L. Rix was in Boston on business last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jackson visited his sister at Clinton, Mass., last week.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

TO-DAY HOLIDAY

OPENING EXHIBIT.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

W. G. REYNOLDS FURNITURE AND CARPETS

Every experience points to the wisdom of early Christmas buying. Stocks are now full, and the wise need not be told that the most desirable goods go first.

Mission Chair Built of solid oak with real Spanish leather cushions, they will last a life-time.

ROTTLAND COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

MORETOWN. Mrs. Wm. McDonough was buried Tuesday. The funeral was held at the house, the Rev. W. M. Roberts officiating.

WARREN. George Hall of Roxbury was the guest of his son, H. P. Hall, last week. Pearl Hall went to Williamstown Tuesday.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

TO-DAY HOLIDAY

OPENING EXHIBIT.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

W. G. REYNOLDS FURNITURE AND CARPETS

Every experience points to the wisdom of early Christmas buying. Stocks are now full, and the wise need not be told that the most desirable goods go first.

Mission Chair Built of solid oak with real Spanish leather cushions, they will last a life-time.

ROTTLAND COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

MORETOWN. Mrs. Wm. McDonough was buried Tuesday. The funeral was held at the house, the Rev. W. M. Roberts officiating.

WARREN. George Hall of Roxbury was the guest of his son, H. P. Hall, last week. Pearl Hall went to Williamstown Tuesday.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

TO-DAY HOLIDAY

OPENING EXHIBIT.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

W. G. REYNOLDS FURNITURE AND CARPETS

Every experience points to the wisdom of early Christmas buying. Stocks are now full, and the wise need not be told that the most desirable goods go first.

Mission Chair Built of solid oak with real Spanish leather cushions, they will last a life-time.

ROTTLAND COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

MORETOWN. Mrs. Wm. McDonough was buried Tuesday. The funeral was held at the house, the Rev. W. M. Roberts officiating.

WARREN. George Hall of Roxbury was the guest of his son, H. P. Hall, last week. Pearl Hall went to Williamstown Tuesday.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

TO-DAY HOLIDAY

OPENING EXHIBIT.

H. W. ALLEN & CO.

W. G. REYNOLDS FURNITURE AND CARPETS

Every experience points to the wisdom of early Christmas buying. Stocks are now full, and the wise need not be told that the most desirable goods go first.

Mission Chair Built of solid oak with real Spanish leather cushions, they will last a life-time.

ROTTLAND COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, who has been in poor health for several months, died last night at Evergreen home on South Pleasant street.

MORETOWN. Mrs. Wm. McDonough was buried Tuesday. The funeral was held at the house, the Rev. W. M. Roberts officiating.

WARREN. George Hall of Roxbury was the guest of his son, H. P. Hall, last week. Pearl Hall went to Williamstown Tuesday.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

EAST CALAIS. Mr. Dwinell made a family Thanksgiving and entertained his sons and families, also Mrs. Dwinell's daughter.

WATERBURY CENTER. Ernest Moody and wife of South Royalton, who were guests at E. B. Moody's Thanksgiving day, returned home Thursday night.

(Continued on 5th page)