ESTATE OF WILLIAM McCUEN AND ELLEN McCUEN, BURLINGTON.

STATE OF VERMONT, District of Chittenden, ss.

The Honorable Probate Court, for the District of Chittenden.

To all persons interested in the estate of Ellen and William McCuen of Burlington,

GREETING:

Whereas, application in writing hath been made to this Court by the guardian of Ellen and William McCuen for license to sell the real estate of said wards, setting forth therein that his said wards, who are husband and wife, own real estate in the city of Burlington, Vt., he the entirety as husband and wife, their personal estate is insufficient to pay the debts of said wards and that the liabilities accruing for support and maintainance of said wards shows that the house and land, No. 63 North street, being the west part of the property on southwest corner of Battery and North streets, is a part of this estate by the entirety.

And thereupon the said court appointed and assigned the 3rd day of May, 1907, at the Probate Court rooms, in said district, to hear and decide upon said application, and ordered that public notice thereof be given to all persons therein, by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Burlington Weekly Free Press, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested therein; all which publications shall be previous to the time appointed for the hearing.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at time and place aforesaid, then and there, in said court, to object to the granting of such license, if you see cause.

[illegible]

Given under my hand, at the Probate Court rooms, this 12th day of April, 1907.
