

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

afternoon, the Rev. Edward Stone officiating. Mr. Brown was born in Swanton 76 years ago and had always resided here. He was a Civil War veteran in service from '62 until the close of the war, enlisting in Company F, 10th Vermont. He leaves a wife and several children. Word has been received from Miss Huxley, Miss Abbott, Miss Sargent and Miss Herrick who sailed for Hamilton, Bermuda, January 8 on the Bermudian. The voyage was a rough one and the Swanton passengers were sick all the way. They are delighted, however, with Bermuda and then the temperature to August weather in Vermont. Three of this party are experienced school teachers but have dropped out work on account of the better pay offered in hotel employment. Miss Marguerite Harwood, assistant principal of the Wilmington high school, is quarantined at that place on account of the mumps. The variety supper at the Congregational vestry Friday night was a success. Miss Lucille Cross, who has been very ill with mumps, is improving. Mrs. E. J. Hawley's condition remains about the same. Teams are crossing the ice from North Hero. The local horsemen tested the ice on the river Saturday with the view of having out a track and holding some races.

Mrs. Frank Towne is seriously ill. The Junior Auxiliary of Holy Trinity Church met at the rectory Monday afternoon. Mrs. A. A. Brooks, who seriously injured her hip by a fall on the ice a few weeks ago, has been taken to the St. Albans hospital. The seniors of the Swanton high school went to Franklin Monday evening for a class ride and supper. Miss Henrietta Smith will start for Troy today to visit friends and Miss Mollie Smith will go to Ohio for a few weeks with an old school mate. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bennett have been called to St. Armand by the serious illness of Henry Bennett, a brother, who has pneumonia. The ladies of the Episcopal Church took in about $25 at their supper in village hall Tuesday evening. John Mannix and Maj. E. N. Ballard are ill with the grip.

MONTGOMERY CENTER

Mrs. Brown has gone to Winooki to visit relatives. R. A. Holbrook has cut this fall and winter between 30,000 and 11,000 square logs on about 20 acres of land belonging to Fred Hutchins. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pond of Richford were in town Monday. A series of special revival services lasting one week will be held at the Baptist Church, commencing Sunday, February 9.

GRAND ISLE COUNTY

NORTH HERO

Edward Clark, aged 72 years, died Tuesday, January 14, after several months' illness. He had resided in this town with the exception of about 25 years when he was in business in Boston. Mr. Clark was a member of the Episcopal Church. The funeral was largely attended Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at his late home. The Rev. Mr. White was officiating. The bearers were Alton Landon, Luton Allen, Henry Conroy, James Dougherty. The deceased is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Hayden of Boston, Mrs. Kate Hubbard of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Hannah Clark of this town with whom he resided for the last few years, and by a brother, Herbert Clark of Boston. Those from out of town who were present at the funeral were Mrs. Fannie Hayden of Boston, Henry Wheeler, Bert Irish and Walter Irish of Burlington.

The entertainment at Maple Lawn Academy Tuesday evening was well attended. The recitations by the students were delivered in a pleasing manner and the music furnished during the evening by Mrs. Oggood, Miss Charlotte Oggood and Mr. Sanderson of Milton was of a high order and was much enjoyed. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the students.

NORTH HERO

Grand Isle county court adjourned Saturday night, having convened Tuesday forenoon. The next session will open the second Tuesday of August. Only one true bill was found by the grand jury, which did not complete its work until Saturday night. While the nature of the indictment was not made public, it was announced that it was not in connection with the alleged scandal at the L. and L. Mott hom. at South Hero, where two young girls charged improper conduct on the part of the manager. The facts apparently failed to substantiate the charges made.

GRAND ISLE
