

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

(Continued from page 11.)

son has taken A. W. Richardson's place on the section—C. E. Haskell has purchased a board saw and carriage to be placed in his mill, to take the place of the one removed some time since by his Elmore mill.

JOHNSON.

Anthony McGinnis died Monday morning after four weeks illness. Percy White has so far recovered from his fall that he is able to walk out—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sherwin have taken rooms at Mrs. J. L. Pierce's—The youngest daughter of George Elwood is dangerously ill with little hopes of recovery—Ruby Parker has gone to Providence to teach school—The American Mineral company shipped during the month of December 45 tons of talc—Glydas Chapel is assisting in the station—Phil French returned to New Albany, Pa. Monday—Several from here attended the Pomona Grange at Morrisville—Notwithstanding the inclement weather there was a good attendance at the installation of officers at the Grange Saturday.

WATERVILLE.

Elmer Leach is spending a few weeks in Canada—Mrs. George Ray of Essex Junction is stopping for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. James Ray—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Foster, Can., visited their daughter, Mrs. Gordia Mann—Alden Chamberlain has returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital, where he has been for treatment—Mrs. Hazel Childs of New York presented the Waterville town library with 64 books.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

The Rev. H. E. Harned of Rochester, N. Y., has accepted a call to the Congregational Church in this place, and is expected to occupy the parsonage at 355 Georgia Street on Monday, January 14. George Phelan has come to Guilford, N. H., to care for her mother, who is seriously ill—About 75 had dinner at Orson Hitchcock's last Thursday, for the benefit of the South Cambridge Cemetery association—Howard S. Baker and Henrietta Read of East Highgate were married at the home of the Rev. E. H. Harned, Friday evening, January 5. Mr. and Mrs. Harned will reside at the ancestral home on the South Cambridge road. It was formerly the home of Joseph Bennett Gallup and his wife, Mary Wallbridge Gallup, who spent their life there. More than three-fourths of a century ago, Mrs. Gallup, a young woman of small means, cleared the most of the land, living in a log house. The frame buildings were erected. Later it became the home of his only daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson A. Baker, and then the home of his grandson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Baker, and now the home of his great grandson and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker.

ORANGE COUNTY

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Rose Whitney, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Ford, went to her home in Granville Saturday—Mrs. E. H. Joslyn entertained the Randolph Woman's Literary club at her home on Summer street Saturday afternoon—Miss Jessie Juterson arrived from Springfield Saturday to visit her cousins, Mrs. W. H. Sargent and Miss Mildred Fuller—Chief Judge John W. Rowell returned from Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. D. Mitchell, who has been in Bridgewater assisting in the care of her sister, Mrs. Vaughan, through a serious illness with pneumonia, has returned—Miss Bessie Shepard and another were in Bethel Sunday for Mrs. Sarah Sturtevant—Mrs. John McIntyre and Mrs. P. J. Blanchard returned from an overnight stay in Barre on Saturday, where Mr. McIntyre went to consult Dr. Goodrich in regard to his health—Saturday morning was the coldest of the season, the mercury ranging from 10 to 20 degrees below zero in different parts of the village—Mrs. E. H. Harned, who was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harned at the sanatorium, Mrs. Harned, who was the daughter of Mrs. Ellen Hixby of this town, is passing the winter here in the absence of her husband, who is in the west on business—The executive committee of the Federated churches met in the office of Dr. C. A. Fuller Friday night to complete business for the annual meeting Wednesday—The annual meeting was in favor of a continued federation—Mrs. Lora Dutton, an old resident of this place, has been visiting friends here this week, staying with Mrs. W. E. Lamson on Saturday afternoon she went to Cambridge before going to Milton, Mass., where she is living with her son, Clarence, who now has a position in a store in Haverhill, Mass.—A Duke is suffering from an abscess under her eye, caused by the grip, from which she has been suffering for 10 days, Wednesday it became necessary to have an operation for relief and since that time she has been more comfortable—Miss Gladys Carroll of Barre is the guest of Miss Edith Blanchard, arriving here Friday—Mrs. John Oney of Roxbury arrived Saturday to visit her husband, John Oney, who is recovering from a surgical operation at the sanatorium—The news of the death of A. B. Tewksbury was received Monday by his son, E. W. Tewksbury. Mr. Tewksbury had been in New Boston, N. H., for several months with Mrs. M. A. Tewksbury, who was the wife of his father and attorney in feeble health with Bright's disease, and had been as comfortable as usual, Monday morning he arose as usual and dressed, but death came from heart failure soon after. A. B. Tewksbury was born in New Boston, N. H., April 11, 1822, the eldest son of Amos W. and Annis (Cochran) Tewksbury. He attended the common schools and afterwards in the State normal school at Ferrisburgh, N. H., in January, 1856, he came with his parents to Randolph, where he became interested in the general mercantile business with his father and brother. Mr. Tewksbury was a life-long member of the Congregational Church, and for many years a deacon of Bethel Church. He was married to Miss Martha Stebbins, who died in 1862. In 1867 he married Anna M. Dodge, and to them were born two children, one of whom, Edward W. Tewksbury of this place, survives him. Mrs. Tewksbury died about two years ago. The remains were brought here for the funeral and burial today. Mr. Tewksbury is also survived by his sons, Mr. and Mrs. John Oney, who live here, and a sister, Mrs. E. P. Oney, also a resident in town. J. H. Wells died at his home in this place on Monday after a long and painful illness from Bright's disease. Mr. Wells had been confined to his bed for several weeks and the cause of a lengthy illness. Bright's disease was the cause of his illness. He was the father of John Oney and John Oney, who was born in Bethel, July 9, 1847. He received his education in the common schools and at the academy in Ferrisburgh, a measure of 15 to be born in a family where he was a member of the Baptist church, and also in Oregon, Montana and Idaho. In 1864 he returned and purchased a farm in Westford on which he lived two years. In 1880 he came to Randolph and purchased the Henry Hutchinson farm, where he lived about one year ago, when he sold it on account of ill health, and came to this place to reside. In politics Mr. Wells was a republican and had held the office of selectman, lister and town and county road commissioner, holding the last named office until about a year ago. He was also justice of the peace. He was a member of Phoenix Lodge, No. 28, F. and A. M., and of Bethel Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Mr. Wells married in 1865 Jane C. Brown of Fletcher and to them were born four children, Idaho E., who married Augustus Wetmore of Keene, N. H., John R. and Alfred C. Wells, both of whom reside in town, and Pay E. Wells, who is in the far West. Mr. Wells is also survived by his wife—The John Hutchinson farm, which was sold to Grant Post, A. B. and the Woman's Relief Corps, were held at the G. A. R. hall Saturday night, Capt. J. E. Eldridge acting as installing officer for the post and Mrs. Alfred Eaton for the corps. This was followed by refreshments—Miss Ruth Morrill was operated on Monday morning at the sanatorium for a kidney ailment, as a complication which could be expected—Miss Gifford left Monday for a few days in Boston—Mr. and Mrs. John Williams went to Burlington Monday for a brief stay.

The Rev. J. W. Chebro called a meeting of the Baptist Church Wednesday night to consider the conditions of a paper sent him last week, containing the conditions with which will probably bring at least half of the purchase price of a new pipe organ for the Baptist Church. The paper is from Andrew Carnegie, who, while Mr. Chebro was the pastor of the South Park, Me. Baptist Church, assisted in the purchase of an organ which was installed while he was there—Mrs. Leola Bland Smith will vacate the town of Mrs. Alice Hatch this week and Charles Butterfield will move from Weston street to that place—Mrs. Irving Chadwick, who has been the guest of Mrs. Lucius Goodheart, left for Malden, Mass., Tuesday—The White Cross milk plant is closed for the present and it is understood that the checks came for the patrons, that were unpaid, and Manager W. H. Manchester did not intend to sign them and become responsible for payment. It is understood that the expense given for sending them was that the person whose duty it was to sign them was away on a wedding trip. Meanwhile, the patrons and other interested parties await developments—Lemuel Richmond is confined to his bed by an attack of lumbago—The infant class of the First Baptist Church in the parish house Friday, at which there were about 15 teachers present. The meeting was under the direction of Superintendent H. W. Lewis, who led the discussion on "Elementary English and Technical Grammar."

There will be a meeting at the Federated Church next week, probably Tuesday evening. There will be a program of several selections by the double male quartette and a discussion. A social hour will follow. It is expected this will be the first of a series of evening entertainments—The funeral of J. B. Wells was held Wednesday afternoon at Bethel Church, the Rev. Frank B. Harned officiating. The funeral was attended in a body and had their ritual services for the dead at the church on account of the severity of the weather—Walter Gibbons, the son of Mrs. W. F. Brown, has left the employ of the Central Vermont railroad and gone to Costa Rica to take a position as conductor on the Pacific coast. It is expected that he will be away for a year—Miss Myrtle Smith, who has been here on her vacation from teaching, left for Hampton, Mass., to resume teaching Wednesday—Fay Burnell returned Wednesday from attending the funeral of his father, John Burnell, in St. Albans Tuesday afternoon—The Rev. Parkes Jackson officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth of New York, who has been with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moulton since Monday, returned to their home Wednesday—William Blanchard has decided to return to Boston with Walter Gardner, who has been here for a few days with the family of B. G. Goodwin—Miss Gladys Carroll of Barre will have been married on Saturday with Miss Edith Blanchard, returned Wednesday—John McIntyre, who was taken ill here on the street some time ago and removed to the home of his nephew, P. J. Blanchard, was able Tuesday to go to his home in East Braintree—Charles Abbott is ill with an attack of bronchial pneumonia, from which he is suffering. His wife, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Fred Fairbanks of Newport, N. H., are in town to attend the funeral of J. B. Wells—Mrs. W. H. Viall went to Northfield Tuesday to visit her sister, Miss Sallie Lamb—The remains of A. B. Tewksbury were brought here Wednesday and taken to the home of the ill to await the funeral on Friday morning at 10 o'clock—The National bank stockholders will hold Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and the following officers elected: President, W. H. Wright; vice-president, G. H. Young; cashier, E. H. Young; directors, W. H. Wright, G. H. Young, G. E. Hender, W. D. Nutting, A. G. Jones, C. H. Ross, C. E. Clark, E. H. Williams, Mr. A. S. Savoy, Mr. A. G. Sprague and Miss Ruth Sprague went Monday to Boston to attend the wedding of Miss Eleanor Coaling—Miss Carrie Cronshaw is in Enosburg Falls, the guest of Miss Lillian McLeod—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Brandon National bank was held at the bank building on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the following officers elected: President, E. J. Cronshaw; vice-president, D. D. Burditt; cashier, W. P. Scott; teller, James R. Leonard; directors, E. J. Cronshaw, D. D. Burditt, J. H. Farrington, H. A. Senger, J. E. Weeks, E. H. Burton, James E. Fallon is seriously ill at her home on the street in this place. Her recovery is expected. H. Baber, Jr., of Donkingspeck, N. Y., who has been spending 10 days at the Ocean cottage, Lake Dunmore, returned Tuesday.

RUTLAND COUNTY

BRANDON.

Mrs. Mary Hill, wife of the late Hubbard H. Hill, died Friday afternoon at her home in Brandon. She was 78 years of age and for many years a resident of this town—The Brandon Congregational church will hold their annual conference on Thursday evening instead of Wednesday—Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Harriet Scammon, who died in Brooklyn, N. Y., after a long illness on Monday, December 10. Mrs. Scammon spent several months in town last summer at G. H. Kelley's—Ex-Gov. E. J. Cronshaw recently been appointed aide-de-camp on the staff of the national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic—The engagement of Miss Edna Nason of Rutland, formerly of Brandon, and Horace P. Brown of Clareville, Vt., has been announced. Mr. Brown was for some time employed here as superintendent at the Vermont Marble company's mill—A mixed ice club has been organized in the high school and the first rehearsal was held Friday afternoon—Mrs. M. E. Brainerd, of Middlebury, returned Saturday—Urban Tice's house near Barr pond was destroyed by fire about five o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Tice were away from home when the fire started and the cause is not known, but it is supposed to have been from a defective chimney. Nearly all the furniture was burned and the loss is estimated at between $2,000 and $3,000, with only a small insurance. The house had only been built about a year and a half, to replace the one burned about that time. The annual meeting of the Vermont Congregational club will be held in Middlebury Tuesday, January 16. Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Leonard Brackett last Sunday at her home in Rochester, Ind. Mrs. Brackett was Miss Sarah Merriam and formerly resided here—James A. Rowe has exchanged his farm in Sudbury with Clifford Hack for two houses on Depot street and other considerations. Mr. Hack will move to the farm in the spring—The National bank stockholders will hold Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and the following officers elected: President, W. H. Wright; vice-president, G. H. Young; cashier, E. H. Young; directors, W. H. Wright, G. H. Young, G. E. Hender, W. D. Nutting, A. G. Jones, C. H. Ross, C. E. Clark, E. H. Williams, Mr. A. S. Savoy, Mr. A. G. Sprague and Miss Ruth Sprague went Monday to Boston to attend the wedding of Miss Eleanor Coaling—Miss Carrie Cronshaw is in Enosburg Falls, the guest of Miss Lillian McLeod—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Brandon National bank was held at the bank building on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the following officers elected: President, E. J. Cronshaw; vice-president, D. D. Burditt; cashier, W. P. Scott; teller, James R. Leonard; directors, E. J. Cronshaw, D. D. Burditt, J. H. Farrington, H. A. Senger, J. E. Weeks, E. H. Burton, James E. Fallon is seriously ill at her home on the street in this place. Her recovery is expected. H. Baber, Jr., of Donkingspeck, N. Y., who has been spending 10 days at the Ocean cottage, Lake Dunmore, returned Tuesday.

RANDOLPH CENTER.

One of Harry Fisk's boys is seriously ill with pneumonia. Lida Hyzer is also ill with the same disease—Members of the Congregational Church held their annual meeting last week Wednesday and closed a meeting in their own church after the Federation expires May 1—Miss Elizabeth Holden, who has been at home two weeks, returned to the Boston Domestic Science school—Mrs. Lucy Parish has returned from Barzen and Shannon, T. S. A. H. of Derby, Conn., has telegraphed that his daughter has just had an operation for appendicitis at the New Bedford hospital and that it appears successful. Miss Mary Altis is well known here.

ORLEANS COUNTY

GREENSBORO.

Mrs. Messer and children have returned from several days in Newport, N. H.—Mrs. Bettie Goodrich is spending a few days in Montpelier with her sister, Mrs. Comstock, who is in poor health—Miss Alice Fay has returned to her old position at the post office as Miss Lindsey's assistant. Mrs. E. P. Dow is still in a critical condition—E. Harrison was in Hardwick Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. Spence of Craftsbury are at the Mountain Lake House. Mr. Spence will manage the barber shop.

CRAFTSBURY.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Byrd, who died recently, is being buried in the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school. The funeral was held at the People's Telephone office after a several weeks' absence on account of illness. Miss Jennie Toomey, who has been assisting during Miss Byrd's absence, has returned to her home in Granville, N. H., and the funeral will be held on Monday with about 50 members and not last evening in the army hall. Harry Chambers of Middlebury is the instructor and Miss Nellie Daves has been engaged as pianist. Mrs. Fred Kinsley has been called to Pittsford by the serious illness of her father, W. B. Shaw. Miss Alice Harrison is confined to the house by illness—The local postoffice has been designated as a postal savings depository, effective Monday, January 15. Inspector W. E. Harley visited the office Tuesday in connection with the new work.

WESTFIELD.

The meetings held by the Rev. Ralph Gilliam have been well attended considering the weather. A considerable interest has been shown, especially among the young people—Mrs. Eliza Rider has been very ill with bronchitis but is gaining. Her daughter, Winnie, came from Lowell, Mass., Thursday to see and care for her—Mrs. Lillian Wright has had a telephone installed at her mother's home—Mrs. R. H. Wright, who has been gaining, was worse a few days ago—L. S. Woodworth has returned to the home of his son, D. C. Woodworth—M. C. Hitchcock attained the age of 87 years Friday, but owing to feebleness the event was quietly celebrated by the family with only two friends as guests. He is fairly well for one of his years—Miss Eva Gilpin came from Barton Thursday to remain for a few days during the evangelistic meetings—Miss Chella Miller, who has been visiting her uncle in Hartford, Conn., was expected Tuesday—Elmer Edmunds became suddenly deaf January 1 and is in Boston under medical observation as they cannot understand the cause of his condition.

LOWELL.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Springfield, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Richard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Austin—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frazier are the parents of a daughter, born January 10—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Colburn of a son, born January 7—Ray Laythe was called to Hardwick Wednesday by the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Mitchell Deane—Mrs. Alfred Hoyt of Manchester, N. H., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dindash—Mrs. J. P. Stone has moved to the Randolph tenement vacated by Mrs. Mary B. Tucker—Mrs. J. P. Stone returned from Jay and moved into the basement tenement of his home.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

MONTPELIER.

A cold wave of marked intensity settled over this region Saturday and Sunday. Saturday the thermometer registered as low as 23 degrees below zero and Sunday to below was reported in the early hours of the morning with no great moderation during the day—A stillborn chimney fire broke out in the house occupied by E. W. Hatch at 2 Cliff street called out several from Sunday noon in response to a still alarm. A garden hose and several extinguishers were used to put out the blaze which burned a hole in the roof. The damage was about $1.

The farmhouse of P. L. Stinson on the East Montpelier road was burned to the ground Saturday morning, the fire catching near the chimney. Neighbors saved the contents of the house, which was insured. The loss is about $3,000.

Thomas Brady, who gave his residence in Boston, pleaded guilty to petty larceny in this case on Saturday morning on a charge of stealing a suitcase from a traveling man in a Barre street car Friday night. Brady evidently thought the suitcase contained liquor and threw it away when he discovered its error.

The funeral of Royal Plummer Bonjardin was held Monday afternoon at the late home on South Street. Mr. Bonjardin died Friday night. He was born in Marshfield in 1841, and was a Civil War veteran and member of Brooks Post.

According to statistics compiled by C. Def. Harnett, there were 50 deaths of male adult residents in town in 1911 and 35 of female adult residents. The average age of the males was 78 years and of the females 78 years.

The Rev. Bernard Walter McMahon of this city, who was ordained to the priesthood two weeks ago, has been assigned by Bishop J. J. Rice of Burlington to be assistant pastor at Fair Haven and Castleton.

Mrs. Levi Swift was in Barre Saturday—Ramon Wells, who has come from Boston to spend his holidays with his father, returned to Barre Thursday on a short stay—John Egan is very low—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherman are the parents of a daughter—Samuel Bellong served his 50th birthday Friday. He received a shower of 50 postcards and had several letters—There will be held in the brick church on Tuesday evening, January 16, an annual meeting of the Friends of St. Albans. Mr. Crockett of Montpelier and Superintendent Mason S. Stone will speak in the past year. Mrs. Levi Swift kept on an average through the year 90 bees of the three breeds, White Wyandottes, Black Neckers and Buff Rocks. She sold during the year 2,322 from the flock sold for $14,222.25, and sold 1,000 for $14,222.25, not profit $1,900. From such she received $1,900 to pay for her flock, $2,385 a week. She gathered from the flock 50 dozen eggs—Mrs. Frederick Myers of Chittenden was a guest at the Bailey for the first of the week—Mrs. Howard Colton of Montpelier and Mrs. E. Myers of Chittenden were in town and several of the mill Thursday evening—The Rev. J. W. H. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in Montpelier Friday—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Johnson and son, Paul, were in South Londonderry Sunday. Charles Smith, who has been sharing his home in Winslow, returned to the home in Montpelier Saturday—Mrs. J. W. Harned, who has been in the Phillips cemetery in Dixbury, Frank Sawyer and Frank Bullock were in