SCHOOL SUPPLIES

We cater to the demands of the teachers in the public schools, who inform us as to the proper supplies to carry.

Different studies require different styles of note books, the same applies to different grades; we have these different kinds at different prices to meet the demand of the teachers and pupils.

You can send your children to this store with perfect confidence that they are buying the proper supplies to comply with their studies.

Next Saturday the Barre A. C. will cross bats with the strong St. Johnsbury A. C. on Goddard campus. St. Johnsbury has the strongest team it has had in years and is bound to give the local team a hard battle. Lavasseur, the young lefthander, has attracted considerable attention and it is generally admitted that he will be seen in fast company before long. Come out and look him over. Admission, 25c; ladies, free.
Workmen are engaged in repairing the piece of road in the town of Berlin just below the Central Vermont grade crossing at Dodge's bridge, on the road to Montpelier. For some time past this stretch of road has been in poor condition. The road has been underdrained with stone and two corrugated iron culverts have been laid to replace the former wooden box drains. The stretch, which is about 500 feet in length, has been widened to 21 feet, the regulation width for state roads and has been graded. A foot of the best gravel has been used for a coating.
