CURRENT COMMENT

Don't Knock—Boost.
Many a candidate for political office has killed himself by abusing his opponent. The average man has such a strong sense of fair play that he will instinctively side with the one who is being attacked.

The disapproval of high buildings in the city of Springfield, Mass., finds its reflection in a new protest against the erection of a large mausoleum in the Springfield cemetery on the ground that it would overshadow the more modest monuments in its particular section of the cemetery. The mausoleum is proposed in memory of Chester W. Chapin, builder of the Boston & Albany railroad and prominent in transportation affairs in Massachusetts.

WORKING OF TAX LAW ILLUSTRATED.

One of the earliest returns from tax listing is furnished by the town of Enosburg and the working of the section of the law abolishing offsets is to be studied in consequence. From the report of the Enosburg listers we learn that while the real estate valuation showed a slight decrease from causes which are explained by The Standard of that town, the personal property appraisal is three and one-half times as large as it was in the preceding year, or $380,500 as against $117,865 for the year 1912.

National Bank Security

The National Bank is primarily a government institution, exercising authority granted by a federal charter and under the strict supervision of Uncle Sam.

The assets of this Bank are rigidly examined by the National Bank Examiner and subsequently by the Board of Directors, and the loans are carefully scrutinized. Periodical reports of condition are submitted to the Comptroller of the Currency and statements published accordingly.

The large capital and surplus, coupled with the conservative policy of a strong Board of Directors, must appeal to the business man desiring strong and efficient banking connections.

We solicit your business and trust that our relations will be of mutual benefit.
