

Neckwear!

"There's virtue in an old cravat," says the poet. That's all right, but it won't go these days. It's a smart new cravat that a man likes to wear, and that draws forth the approval of his associates.

Every man counts on having his neckwear replenished at Christmas time.

Here are ties and scarfs that will be sure to please:

Four-in-Hands, Flowing Ends, English Squares, etc., 25c, 50c up to $2.50

Neckwear variety has reached the climax here. The wealth of colorings, weaves and patterns will satisfy every good taste imaginable. We have luxurious silks from foreign looms made up to our liking by the best scarf makers. We have also culled the best that the home markets afford.

Not an Isolated Case

Many Similar Cases in Barre and Vicinity

This Barre woman's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news.

Mrs. N. M. Nelson, 20 Merchant St., Barre, Vt., says: "A severe attack of la grippe left my kidneys weak and instead of getting better, I became worse. The slightest housework tired me, and if I was on my feet for an hour or so, sharp pains across my back made me stop and rest. I paid out over one hundred dollars for doctors' treatment and medicine, but got no relief and finally became discouraged. Doan's Kidney Pills were then brought to my attention and I used them. They removed the trouble and I have never been without a supply on hand since."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CASTOR OIL IS TASTELESS NOW

A Remarkable Step Forward in Oil Refining

Pure, clear castor oil, without taste or smell, is a recent discovery of the house of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, refiners of vegetable oils.

The Kellogg mills take away the nauseating taste, but remove none of the good properties of castor oil.

As Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is merely a purified castor oil, it works better than the evil-tasting, evil-smelling dose of the past, and does not upset the stomach. Children take it easily.

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil has been supplied to all druggists, not in bulk, but in neat 25c and 50c bottles. It is necessary to ask for Kellogg's by name, to distinguish it from disguised castor oil, flavored with peppermint and other strong essences. The trademarked label bears a green castor leaf, with the signature, Kellogg's.

Made only by Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y., refiners of vegetable oils.—Advt.

MONTPELIER

Decision Rendered in Wood Case of State vs. Taft.

In the wood case of state vs. C. C. Taft, claiming short measure, Judge Harvey yesterday rendered an opinion that, although according to actual measurement the third of a cord supposed to be delivered did not come up to standard measure, there was no evidence that Mr. Taft was deliberately selling short measure, but that he used a system of his own and made the price accordingly. Therefore the respondent was discharged.

Helen, the seven-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Connolly, died Tuesday of meningitis, after an illness of only one day. Burial was in the Berlin Corner cemetery. Mr. Connolly is chef at the Pavilion hotel.

Attention is called to the placards issued by the government and placed in all postoffices, to the effect that Christmas packages should be securely wrapped and plainly addressed, bearing also the name and address of the sender, and mailed early to avoid the Christmas rush which will be greatly increased this year owing to parcel post. The public is also requested to mail their packages early in the day instead of waiting until just time for the last mail. Our local office will be open 15 minutes earlier in the morning to accommodate those wishing to send parcels on the first mail and the receiving window will be closed at 3:30 p. m. to render possible the dispatch of the last mail. Come early and kindly refrain from bringing packages at just mail time.

Christmas will be observed with appropriate exercises in Pythian hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 24. The program will consist of the play, "Little Jack's Christmas," by the children, and will include recitations and music by young and old. A very cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

To the Purchasing Public of Barre and Vicinity

You have seen that the merchants and members of other associations have a get-together meeting occasionally for their mutual benefit. Let us, the working men of this city, follow their example by doing our best to boost the union label. Just think of the material advantages we will have gained for the working men and women of the various trades that use the label, if we are united in making the demand. Union-made goods may be had at the following stores:

TILDEN SHOE CO. have a complete line of men's, women's and children's shoes to select from, at prices to please every one. Look for the union label.

MOORE & OWENS have Leopold Moore's clothing, also pants, shoes, hats, underwear, overalls and frocks. Please look for the label.

JOHN BERINATO the Italian shoe store, has a good line of union-made boots and shoes. Look for the label on the sole or inner sole.

LAMOREY CO. have the following in stock: Suits and overcoats, pants, hats and caps, shirts, underwear, shoes, overalls, neckwear, gloves, suspenders and hosiery. Please insist on seeing the label before buying.

THE TOGGERY SHOP have union-made clothing, overalls, and caps, with several furnishing houses so that they may have a complete line of men's garments in the near future.

THE BAKERS employed in this city are all organized, so all bread made within the city is union made. Please patronize the following stores for good bread: Ladd & Co., My Bakery, City Bakery, and the Italian Bakeshop.

The smokers of this city are requested by the C. L. U. to use their best endeavors to further the interests of the Cigar Makers' and Tobacco Workers' Unions, by buying nothing but union-made cigars and tobacco. The unions are not able to give costly premiums.

This list will be changed from time to time. Look for this space.

Respectfully yours,
UNION LABEL COMMITTEE OF C. L. U. of Barre and Vicinity.
