To-morrow, Aug. 6, being the Feast of the Transfiguration, there will be a celebration of holy communion at the Church of the Good Shepherd at 8 a. m.

Clarence Bishop of Washington street resumed his duties at the Central Vermont freight office on Depot square this morning, after passing a few days with friends at Edgemere, Highgate Springs.

Mrs. S. E. Pike of Lowell, Mass., arrived in the city yesterday to make a few days' visit with friends on South Main street. She will leave to-morrow for Burlington to make an extended visit.

Mrs. M. M. Gordon, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Reed of Orange street, left yesterday for Bethel, where she will visit relatives before returning to her home in San Diego, Cal.

Home-made ice cream. Do you like it? Of course you do. Then, during the band concert this evening, go over to the Baptist church, where the ladies of the Philaetha class will be pleased to serve you to their church lawn.

Rev. and Mrs. Albert Abbott and children of Williamstown were visitors in the city yesterday on their way to Scottstown, P. Q., where they will pass the coming few weeks. Scottstown is in the vicinity of Lake Megantic.

Basilio Dente left yesterday for Boston, where he will pass the remainder of the week on business. Mr. Dente plans to go into the Canadian Northwest on a business venture soon. His family will continue to reside in Barre for the present.

House-wreckers are engaged in dismantling "Jack's lunch" room, which was recently moved to a lot just north of the Carleton jewelry store. Parts of the building are to be removed prior to transferring the little structure to a site on Hooker flats, where it will be used for poultry purposes. The building is to be taken to the hill over Granite street and up the hill on skids.

Charles Plouff of 188 South Main street left this morning for Burlington, where he has entered the Fanny Allen hospital at Winooski park to undergo an operation for the removal of a growth on his neck. Mr. Plouff expects to be detained from work for a month and during his absence his stores on Circle street and in Lower Websterville will be in charge of members of the family.

Miss Alice Sullivan, who is soon to leave on an extended visit through the West during a year's leave of absence from her duties at the Boutwell, Milne & Varnum offices, was the guest at a farewell reception tendered in her honor at the home of Mrs. Marion McDonald on Elm street last night. There were about twenty friends of Miss Sullivan present. The evening was passed in a social manner. Progressive whist was played during the evening. Miss Sullivan will leave this week for a few weeks' visit at her former home at Hardwick. Later she will leave with an uncle for Iowa and California to pass the winter.

Yesterday was a busy day in traffic circles on North Main street and toward evening the officers had their hands full in regulating the goings and comings of travelers. Strict enforcement of the rule relative to parking vehicles in a given direction on each side of the street is the purpose of the police and in carrying out the instructions of the aldermanic police committee everything is fish in the officer's net. Even the steam roller was compelled to swing around and face the north with the other vehicles. One of the men at the head of the street department demurred at the request to conform to the ordinance, but the officer insisted that no favoritism should be shown in adjusting traffic to the new conditions.

HOPE FOR UNION WITH TWO COUNTRIES

association has lost 27 members in a year's time was partially ameliorated by the announcement that a net gain of 26 is represented in the addition of 53 names to the veterans' roster. This new enrollment includes veterans, sons of veterans and other relatives of veterans. To the 600 active members listed at the last annual reunion are added the 26 who represent the net gain to make a total registration for 1914 of 686, the largest enrollment in the history of the association.

Following out the prediction made yesterday, Dr. Foster, whose home is in Waterbury Center, was re-elected president and John R. Wilson of Worcester, for years the association secretary, was re-elected to office. Mr. Wilson's faithfulness in serving the association in season and out and his diligence in a substantial increase in his salary, made possible by a motion from the floor, which was seconded with abelaim.

The remaining officers elected are as follows: Vice presidents, A. S. Parkhurst, Thurston; Barre Town, A. S. Parkhurst; Berlin, E. N. Horsford; Cabot, S. B. Blodgett; Calais, A. M. Tichon; Duxbury and Montpelier, J. W. Palmer; East Montpelier, J. E. Clough; Marshfield, R. H. Hudson; Montpelier, George W. Kidder; Plainfield, J. W. Getchell; Roxbury, Theodore B. Kendall; Warren, W. E. Dana; Waitsfield, M. E. Meluron; Waterbury and Waterbury Center, G. B. Evans, W. W. Woodward; Woodbury, James A. Pickett; Worcester, C. W. Richards; Stowe, Jennie B. Ayers; Hardwick, D. H. Wheeler; chaplain, S. B. Blodgett; Cabot, executive committee, G. W. Kidder, Thomas H. Corey and George Colby of Montpelier. The matter of selecting a place for the 1915 reunion was referred to the executive committee. It is considered altogether probable that the committee will honor a long-established custom by choosing Dewey park.

Stirring Address Given.

Probably the largest campfire crowd in the history of the association listened last evening to addresses by Prin. Edward S. Abbott of Montpelier high school and G. Herbert Pape of Barre. President Foster of Waterbury Center acted as chairman of the exercises and practically every seat in the pavilion was occupied when he made his opening remarks. The first informal speaker was Mrs. A. G. Lapoint of Barre, who spoke on the work of the Woman's Relief corps. Mrs. Lapoint referred feelingly to the close relations that have existed between the G. A. R. and its auxiliary organizations ever since the war closed. She had a tribute for the women of the Civil war as well as the men.

Themes that were closely allied to patriotism were developed in addresses made by Prin. Abbott and Mr. Pape. The speaking program was interspersed with a vocal solo by Miss Mary Mack of Montpelier and a reading by Mrs. Sarah Slayton of Montpelier. Both were well received. In his address, Prin. Abbott paid a touching tribute to the men of the Rebellion on both sides who have been mustered out. To the present generation he commended the example in patriotism set by the citizen soldiers of the war between the states.

There has been plenty of speechmaking at this year's reunion, but it is safe to say that no one speaker has received a better ovation from the veterans than Mr. Pape, who was the last beginning of the war to its close; he lauded Lincoln in fitting words and exhibited a familiarity with the great president's life and public papers that few speakers on like occasions might well seek to acquire. On the Sons of Veterans as well as others who have followed the veterans themselves, Mr. Pape urged the necessity of preserving the best traditions that were established on the battlefields of '61-'65. While he spoke, silence hung over the audience but the applause which followed his closing remarks was a spontaneous kind that left no doubt as to the speaker's popularity among the comrades.

The afternoon program had been carried out under the most favorable circumstances. Many who had been unable to participate in the forenoon's doings were there for the first campfire and it was an attentive audience that listened to the various contributions. Chaplain A. N. Tichon of Montpelier opened the exercises with prayer. Dr. Foster of Waterbury Center, the president, gave an address of welcome and he was followed by Department Commander A. F. Baker of Montpelier, who spoke of the work which the Grand Army and its affiliated organizations are doing in Vermont. Mrs. Alfred Guernsey of Montpelier told of the W. R. C. work in the state and Arthur W. Robinson had some excellent things to say about the Sons of Veterans. Mrs. George W. Flagg of Braintree supplemented the remarks of Mrs. Guernsey on the relief corps, as did Mrs. Jason Johnson of South Barre. The principal speaker was William C. White of Northfield, a son of a veteran, who chose "Patriotism" for his topic. Throughout the course of his address Mr. White lacked never a moment for the attention of his auditors. Mrs. W. C. White of Hardwick was the last speaker and she was followed by Mrs. Nora Keith of Calais, who read an original poem. The women served supper in the pavilion.
