

OUR ALL SEWING WEEK

BEGINNING MONDAY, OCTOBER 11th

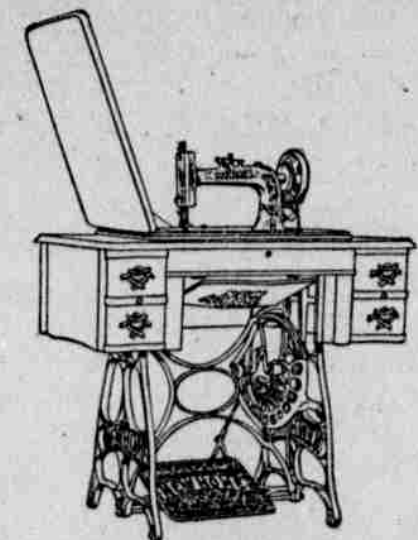

EVERY WOMAN IS INTERESTED

More sewing at home is the tendency of the year everywhere. To some it appeals as sensible economy, to others a pleasant and profitable pastime, and to still others as a delightfully fascinating game of skill; but whatever the reason, women all over America are doing more sewing this year than ever before. Of particular interest therefore is Sewing Week at this store.

Sure Relief For Cold Feet

IF you suffer with cold feet use a hot-water bottle. It warms your feet and produces drowsiness (prevents sleeplessness) by drawing the blood to the feet and away from the brain.

Useful in many other ways. Brings relief from Backache. Eases pain of Toothache. Stops Chills. Does away with Cramps. Keeps Baby's Food warm. Benefits sore Muscles. Relieves Digestive Pains. Helps Headache. Soothes Painful Eyes. Limbers up Stiff Joints.

Get a good hot-water bottle here. We have a large stock of "Wearever"—the advertised kind. All sizes, grades and qualities at $1.50 up.

Headquarters for Faultless "Wearever" Rubber Goods, 54 North Main St.

ADLER-ROCHESTER CLOTHES

Youth Rules—Because He Dresses the Role and more dominant than ever is the note of youthfulness in this fall's fashions. It is the expression of the optimistic times.

That is why the young man who comes into our store finds no more pleasing suit than

The Tivoli

A trifle extreme, perhaps—but no man can gainsay its perfect taste and correct style. The decided waistline of the coat is a delightful note—and the waistcoat is a distinctive treatment in itself.

In no other class of clothes will you discover lines of youth so carefully expressive of character and strength as in

Adler-Rochester Towne Togs

Young men's clothes de luxe—from the hands of designers who know what young men want.

H., Brattleboro, Bellows Falls, Bennington and Windsor before returning to New York.

Word has been received telling of the marriage of Helen Dombrowskie Scorgie to John Griffiths of Aberdeen, Scotland. The ceremony took place Aug. 20. Mrs. Griffiths will be remembered in this city, where she made her home until 1904. Her marriage to Hugh Scorgie took place in this city and shortly after they removed to Aberdeen, where Mr. Scorgie suffered fatal injuries in a fall. Mr. Griffiths is a member of the Royal Naval volunteers, being engaged as a marine engineer.

A clipping from the Oscola (Neb.) Record of Oct. 7 gives information of the serious illness at Platte, Neb., of W. A. Sherwood, whose wife is a niece of William M. Stewart of this city. Mr. Sherwood's condition is due to an attempt at self-destruction during a sudden attack of dementia, the man using a razor to slash his throat. At the time of printing the item in the Oscola paper Mr. Sherwood was reported to be resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marriion of Merchant street, George W. Gorman and Atho Marriani of the Bijou theatre left yesterday by automobile for Boston to witness the third game of the world's series to-day. They expect to return to Barre Wednesday. George Harris of Graniteville, who visited friends in the city yesterday, left last night for Boston to see the doings at the Braves' field and John Ball and John Smith also left yesterday to attend the world's series.

A sugary and dancing pavilion located in Shepard's grove on the Montpelier road was destroyed by fire at a late hour Saturday night, the origin of the blaze being unknown. People who saw the reflection from a distance thought that a much more disastrous fire had broken out. The actual loss to the owner is not large.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends who gave us so much of love and sympathy during the illness and following the death of our little Helene. The neighborly acts of helpfulness, the words of sympathy and the flowers were all deeply appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. Ballard and family.
