

Lamorey's 4th Semi-Annual Fifteen Day Mark Down Sale

Begins To day, November 5th, and Positively Closes November 20th

TO THE PUBLIC: This morning, November 5, I started my fourth semi-annual markdown sale, with the ambition to have it outstrip all preceding sales at this store and make it the greatest event of my career. To those of you who bought clothing, shoes and furnishings at my other sales, during the past four years. This is a statement that should have considerable weight if you remember the wonderful trades at my other sales, when I say that in this sale I will give you even better bargains than before, you will realize what wonderful clothing opportunities will be offered. Remember, no old shop-worn goods in this store, but the cleanest and newest stock to be found in the state of Vermont.

Many Rebekahs Attended District Meeting Last Evening.

A very large number of Rebekahs from all the nearby lodges attended a district meeting at the town hall last evening. The Universalist ladies served the banquet. Mrs. Alice Hall, noble grand of Home lodge, gave the address of welcome and there were exemplifications of the several kinds of work by the local and visiting teams.

Warren Preston is here from Burlington for a few weeks' stay.

Mrs. Isabel Donovan has been ill all the week with bronchial trouble.

Mrs. Frances Sargent, F. J. Sargent, Mrs. H. C. Rice, Mrs. Ida Davis and E. L. Messer were in Rochester Wednesday to attend the funeral of Ray Messer.

The men employed at F. E. Lamphere's derrick at the quarries were temporarily laid off yesterday.

Mrs. E. N. Quirin of Albany, N. Y., a former resident, is a guest at the Bacon house.

Albert B. Washburn went yesterday to Boston for a few days' visit and to see the Dartmouth-Penn. State football game.

Mrs. Hannah Cutler has gone to Gayville to spend the winter at P. M. Nye's.

Charles Preston of Pomfret is visiting at Alonzo H. Spooner's.

Frank Curtis, who lived during the summer in Boston is working with W. H. Smith for the Woodbury Granite company, and his wife is with her mother in Sharon.

G. Ira Wheat has moved from the farm which he sold on Royalton hill to the house he bought in Barnard village.

The Methodist ladies' aid society met last Wednesday at Marcus L. Hilliard's. S. C. Rich of Northfield, agent for the New York Life, was here yesterday. He was an engineer on one of the locomotives during the construction of the White River railroad in 1900.

There has been a large sale of season tickets for the Women's club entertainment course, which at the popular price of one dollar for five high-class entertainments, has been considered a genuine bargain in that line. Holders of season tickets were first given a choice of seats this morning at F. L. Martin's store. Practically all the seats on the floor of the hall are good and if the sale should warrant opening the gallery, as now seems probable, there will be other good seats. Much is expected of the first entertainment, to be given next Monday evening, consisting of a real play, "The Test," given by Clifton Mallory and five other artists, and very highly recommended by press and clergy. The succeeding events, well distributed through the winter months, are all meritorious. Only the largest possible patronage will pay the outlay for such a course at such a price.

Mrs. Almada Benson has returned after a seven weeks' visit in Swansville, Me. T. M. Clark and family, who recently vacated the Gilson house, near the Corner block, have taken rooms in the Lavers block.

Elmer J. Colton, who went last week and whose family went Monday morning to their new home near Reusseler Falls, N. Y., suddenly became ill while working last Monday and was taken to a hospital in Ogdensburg, N. Y., and successfully operated upon Tuesday for an ulcer just below the stomach.

Charles Miller returned Tuesday from the Randolph sanatorium, where one leg was amputated at the knee three weeks ago, and he is boarding temporarily at C. E. Noble's. He is able to walk on crutches.

Henry E. Holbrook has finished work at C. E. Noble's and expects to work in Windsor the coming winter, his wife planning to visit her mother in Indiana a few weeks.

Charles E. Blake began work yesterday on A. N. Merrill's newly purchased house, which is to be quite thoroughly renovated.

W. E. Webster, formerly of this place, has sold his home in South Royalton, and with his family will spend the winter at DeLand, Fla., where they also spent last winter. They will spend some time with Mrs. Webster's father, George H. Kimball, and other relatives here before going south about two weeks from now.

BRADFORD

Mrs. Ella Burbeck of Manchester, N. H., visited her daughter, Mrs. H. T. Johnson, a part of last week.

William H. Howland has purchased the milk route of Carl Slack and took possession Nov. 1.

A right good time was enjoyed by those who attended the Halloween social at the Congregational church parlors on Tuesday evening after the Endeavor meeting. Refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served.

The community Sunday school teachers' training class will meet at the Congregational vestry Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ellis were weekend visitors in Carleton.

Several from here attended "The Birth of a Nation" at Woodsville Wednesday and Thursday.

The Fortnightly club will meet with Mrs. T. A. Hunkins Friday afternoon.

Henry Martin shot a fox, which he saw catching hens near T. A. Hunkins', on Wednesday morning, and let Arthur Peters have it.

A daughter was born on Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pollard, the mother being known here as Grace Howard, a graduate of the high school. The child is a granddaughter of Solomon Howard, a long-time resident of town.

Miss Hazel Slack is arranging to go the first of December to Boston to enter a business college and remain during the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Canwin, who resides there.

Born Diplomat.

"Harry, I am beginning to believe the baby looks like you."

"Are you, dear?"

"Yes, I notice it more and more every day. I'm so glad."

"Do you really want him to look like me?"

"Of course I do. I've been pretty ever since we had him christened that we didn't give him your name."

"Sweetheart, you don't know how happy you make me by saying that."

"And, Harry, dear, I found the loveliest hat to-day. I don't believe I ever saw anything that was so becoming to me. It's red. Do you think I ought to say that much for a hat?"—Chicago Record.

From a Sick Mechanic to a Healthy Wealthy Farmer.

"From a mechanic in an eastern city, broken in health and discouraged, to a healthy, ambitious western farmer owning 320 acres of improved land with horses enough to farm it, and not owning anyone a cent, has been my experience since 1909," writes H. L. McKelroy in the current issue of Farm and Fireside.

He tells of his success thus: "After spending twenty years of my life as a mechanic, my health was broken so that I could not work in a factory any longer."

"I was desperate, because all I knew was my trade. When I gave that up I became a day laborer only. And I did not have much money."

"After many months of worry I decided that the best place for me was the West. Early in 1909 I bought an excursion ticket to Spokane, Washington. There I found work on a ranch. I was so weak, and had not worked outside for so long that the days seemed as if they would never end. By and by my strength and health came back and with it an abundance of ambition."

"On January 28, 1910, I filed on a half-section of land in Hill county, Montana, twenty miles from the Alberta, Canada, line."

"After paying the filing fees, which were $25, I had $2 left. I had to give the locator my note for $25."

"I went away to work, doing any kind of work I could get. I came back in May and built a shack, 12x14 feet, of green lumber that cost $30 a thousand feet. I had no cooking utensils. I raked up dry grass and piled it in the corner of the shack for a bed. I dug a hole outside and placed a flat rock on each side. On this I did my cooking. I carried water two and one-half miles in a ten-pound hard pail. I hired a man to break ten acres of sod. With these improvements my residence was established."

This year I raised 40 acres of fall wheat, 20 acres of spring wheat, 20 acres of oats, and 20 acres of flax. The other 220 acres of the farm are in pasture. The improvements consist of a house, a barn, a large pond to furnish the horses with water, a cistern at the house, and a three-wire fence all around the farm. The live stock includes eight head of horses and a flock of chickens.

"Anyone can do what I have done if he has perseverance and is not afraid of privation and hard work."

A SPECIAL PIANO BARGAIN

For the month of November we shall sell the McKannan Bros. & Co. piano, style G1, mahogany, for $247. Everyone knows that this piano sells and always has sold for $350, and the price is blown in the steel plate. There are more McKannan Bros. & Co. pianos in the state of Vermont than any other make of piano. There are more of them in public halls, schools and lodges than any other make. You will find them in every town in this state, and when you see one you see a satisfied customer, and yet at this price we make the terms $10 down and $8 per month. Send for catalogue to Geo. D. Jarvis & Son, The Jarvis Palace Garage building, Burlington, Vt.—adv.

DO YOU DREAD THE COLD?

Some people enjoy cold weather, take pleasure in winter sports and the keen air calls the pink to their cheeks and the red to their lips. Others shrink from cold and turn blue at the least exposure to frosty air.

The difference is in the blood. Rich, red blood warms the body. Every long breath of pure cold air increases the oxygen it carries to every part of the system. This blood is unable to take up the life-sustaining oxygen. The body lacks nourishment and the sufferer is always cold, takes a chill easily and is miserable all winter.

This blood is largely the sufferer's own fault. It results from neglect, because the blood can be built up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills supply the elements that the blood needs to make it rich and red and to enable it to carry more oxygen. Building up the red portion of the blood is simple but because this blood does not call attention to itself it is often neglected. Have you seriously considered taking a course of treatment with these blood-making pills? If you are in doubt write for information.

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., will send you a booklet "Building Up the Blood" free on request.

AT THE ANNUAL HOME-COMING ON THANKSGIVING DAY, THEY WILL BE GLAD TO HAVE YOUR PICTURE, AND YOU, THEIRS.

TREAT CATARRH BY NATURE'S METHOD

Every Breath of Hyromed Carries Healing Medicated Air to the Infected Membrane

Nearly everyone who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it with sprays, lotions, and the like. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes. Until recently your physician would probably have said the only way to help catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with a simple preparation called Hyromed you can carry a health-giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day successfully treat yourself.

The complete Hyromed outfit is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyromed. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if one bottle does not give permanent relief, an extra bottle of Hyromed can be obtained at any time for a trifling cost. It is more economical than all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only treatment known to us that follows nature in her method of treating disease of the respiratory organs.

The Red Cross Pharmacy have sold a great many Hyromed outfits, and the more they sell the more convinced are they that they are perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyromed does not relieve.—Adv.
