FOR WELFARE OF VERMONT CHILDREN

Plans to Raise Fund of $25,000 Discussed at First Meeting of New State Society—Professor Gifford of This City Elected President

Plans to raise a fund of $25,000 for work of prevention, relief and remedy of evil conditions affecting the health and morals of children in the State of Vermont, and the organization of a receiving home for children, were discussed at the first meeting of the incorporators of "The Vermont Children's Aid Society, Inc.," a new society recently formed under the laws of the State, the meeting being held at the office of the State Board of Health, Wednesday afternoon. Those attending the meeting were: Professor A. R. Gifford of Burlington, chairman; Judge Edmund C. Mower and Dr. C. F. Dalton of Burlington; Charles Tuxbury of Windsor; Mrs. Charles M. Cone of Hartford; Mrs. W. H. Heywood of St. Johnsbury; and Miss Berenice R. Tuttle of Rutland.

Officers elected Tuesday for the coming year are: President, Prof. A. R. Gifford of Burlington; first vice-president, Mortimer Proctor of Proctor; second vice-president, Mrs. James Hartness of Springfield; third vice-president, Mrs. C. M. Cone of Hartford; treasurer, Guy W. Balley of Burlington; clerk, Berenice R. Tuttle of Rutland.

At the same time, 12 directors were elected, as follows: Class of 1919, Mrs. Margaret N. Heywood of St. Johnsbury, East St. Johnsbury of Rutland, Charles Tuxbury of Windsor, and March M. Wilson of Randolph; class of 1920, George L. Dunham of Brattleboro, J. A. Lillis of Rutland, Mrs. Anna H. Putnam of Bennington and Mrs. E. A. Linderholm of Burlington; class of 1921, Dr. Charles F. Eggleston of Burlington, Mrs. G. H. Eggleston of Ferrisburgh, Mrs. M. Harvey of Montpelier and Charles W. Wilson of Vergennes.

The first meeting of the newly-elected officers will be held in Rutland Tuesday, May 20. It is hoped that an exceptionally well-equipped candidate for the position of general secretary of the society will be in attendance at the Rutland meeting for a personal interview.

The work of "The Vermont Children's Aid Society, Inc.," will be in close co-operation with that of the State Board of Charities, the attitude of Secretary W. H. Heywood of the State Board of Charities being one of cordial and sympathetic interest and support.

Serious consideration is being given the project of establishing a receiving home for children. A finely adapted property, well located, is available on advantageous terms. It is hoped that funds for carrying out the project of the entire program contemplated, including the establishment of this home, $25,000 in all, can be speedily raised.

The by-laws of "The Vermont Children's Aid Society, Inc.," adopted Tuesday, include the purpose of the society, the objects of the society, the organization of the society, the purpose of this society shall be to engage in child welfare work and in social service designed to maintain the integrity of wholesome family groups. It shall concern itself especially with the following and similar or related social problems: (a) the study of the condition of dependent children in Vermont; (b) the informing of the public regarding conditions discovered; (c) the relief and remedy of evil or undesirable conditions; (d) the securing of suitable homes for dependent and neglected children; (e) the preservation of wholesome family groups; (f) the cooperation in all practicable ways with all agencies and officials engaged in work affecting children and the home; (g) and in general the carrying on of such work of prevention, relief and remedy as will safeguard the welfare of minors and of the home.
