

From the Harrisburgh Telegraph, Extra, Dec. 25.
The deed done—Pennsylvania disgraced—
—Mob rule triumphant—the Constitution and laws trampled under foot by the Senate.

We have the unwelcome news to communicate to our readers, that the Senate have this day, after a protracted sitting recognized the Loco Foco branch of the House of Representatives, known as the "Hopkins House," as a legally and constitutionally organized body, by a vote of 17 to 16.

This same Senate, but a few days since declared by a solemn resolution, by a vote of 13 to 20, that this same "Hopkins House" was "no House of Representatives legally constituted," and that all their acts were null and void.

Thus, has mob law triumphed. Thus have the Constitution and the laws been outraged. Thus has the State of Pennsylvania been degraded and disgraced by those who were sworn to protect her Institutions. Hereafter mob-rule and open revolution will at times predominate over law and justice.

The Senators that have recorded their solemn votes on both sides of this question—who, while influenced by a conscientious regard for the rights of the people, the law and the welfare of the country, stood to their duty and their oaths—but who have now basely bowed to mob-rule—proved recreant to their trust—disgraced their constituents—degraded the Commonwealth, and dishonored their country, are JOHN STROHM, MILLER of the city, M'CONCHEY, MICHLER, CASE, and "Old Granny FULLERTON."

Upon these men the awful responsibility rests—upon them will fall the odium of an outraged, insulted and betrayed people! Their constituents will be overwhelmed with surprise and indignation at their black hearted treachery. They will arise as one man and denounce the recreant traitors to law, to justice, to their own acts, to their country, and to themselves. Now and henceforth the mark of Cain will be set upon them, and their names will go down to posterity accompanied by infamy.

We have no time to speak of this act of infamy and treachery as it deserves. Of the consequences that will follow to the country; and the vital stab it is to our free institutions, and to the cause of civil and Constitutional liberty. The people understand it, and they will speak. The call upon them to arouse and assert their betrayed rights, by such a course of action as they will feel bound to pursue, will not be disregarded. The general and spontaneous burst of public indignation will make the traitors tremble worse than the hired bullies and paid mobs, that have conquered patriotism by terror, and recreants by threats.

On the head of Mr. Strohm the wrath of betrayed constituents will fall with fourfold vengeance; for it is well understood that he has been the principal agent and tool of the mobocrats in disgracing the party that elected him. It is said that he laid the foundation of the disgraceful result, by inducing Messrs. Montelius, Sturdevant and Butler, to go into the Rump House, and thus present to the Senate a position that might be used as a pretext for the recreants to join the enemy. It is also that he has been in their caucus and otherwise aided the Loco Focos to carry out their plans. The strongest proof of this are his official acts, which can neither be palliated nor denied.

CONSISTENCY OF THE RECREANTS.—The Whig or Democratic members of the Senate from the county were admitted into that body, upon the same return as were the county members in the Democratic House that elected Gen. Cunningham, Speaker. By the vote of the traitor Senators on the admission of Messrs. Hanna and Wagner, they declared that return the one to be received—yet they reject the House of Representatives organized upon the SAME PRINCIPLE and the SAME RETURN, because the return is illegal, or the seats of the members are contested! According to their decision, the Senate and House must be organized upon different principles! What is legal in organizing the Senate is illegal in organizing the House! How fast they have learned Loco Foco logic and wisdom since they entered their camp!

Week of a French Man-of-War.—By the British brig Victoria, Capt. Young, arrived at New York from Bermuda, we have received papers from that place to the 8th inst., from which we learn that the frigate Hermione, of 60 guns, Com. Bazoche, with a crew of 550 men, from Havana, bound to Brest, ran on the rocks off the west end of this island on Monday evening, 3d Dec and soon sunk. The officers and crew landed at Ely's harbor on the same evening. Some of them were provided with accommodations on board the Royal Oak, lying at the dock yard. We learn that several articles of rigging and some small stores have been saved.—Atlas.

A New Note.—We learn from the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal that Dr. J. M. Warren of this city, has again tried his hand at manufacturing a nose from the ingredients of the forehead with great success.—The patient was a young lady, residing in Maine, who through the ignorance of a quack doctor, in trying to demolish a pimple completely stripped her face of that ornamental excrescence termed a proboscis. Her visage being thus rendered unseemly, and disgusting, she applied to Dr. Warren for assistance. She bore the rhinoplastic operation without flinching, which was performed on the 17th ultimo. Every thing has worked kindly, the new nose knit by the first intention, and the nostrils and wings are well turned, and promise to go on improving in appearance. She is now in a fair way of being soon in a condition to be returned to her friends.—Boston Journal.

Capture of a Slave.—The ship Narraganset arrived at New Orleans, spoke on the 5th inst. on the banks, a Spanish brig of war, which reported that she had captured and carried into Nassau, N. P., a Portuguese slave, (under American colors) with 300 slaves on board.

EXECUTION FOR TREASON.

Yesterday morning at nine o'clock Joseph Narcisse Cardinal and Joseph Duquette were executed in front of the new jail; but as it was not generally supposed that our timid Government would have the moral courage to carry the sentence of the Court Martial into execution against any of the guilty rebels, there were not many spectators. Three companies of the Royal and three of the 94th regiments formed inside the jail square, supported by a detachment of the Queen's Light Dragoons under Capt. Jones.

On Thursday evening, Cardinal was visited by his wife and two of his children, and Duquette was visited by his mother, to take a last farewell on this side the grave. The interviews were affecting in the highest degree, and displayed, in most forcible language—that of the heart, that sin carries with it its own punishment, even in this world. The unfortunate prisoners were attended by the clergymen of the seminary, who administered appropriate religious consolation to them. Their appearance on the scaffold strongly belied the character of brave men meeting death; Cardinal in particular, showing great emotion, and trembling so violently that we did not expect he would have stood the short religious ceremony without fainting. The provost marshal read the sentence of the court, after which the hangman pulled the fatal lever, when the trap doors gave way, and the two rebels were exhibited between earth and heaven, a spectacle to angels & to men. Cardinal died almost instantaneously, struggling very little, but Duquette, partly owing to his own and partly to the hangman's fault, suffered very severely and very long. The noose was too wide and the wretched criminal having unfortunately given a spring backwards on the stationary part of the scaffold, immediately previous to the pulling of the bolt, his neck struck against the front of the scaffold and the knot of the rope slipped up to his mouth. In this state he remained struggling violently for the space of twelve minutes, when the hangman put another noose round his neck, with a longer fall, affixed it to the beam, and cut the other rope, when Duquette dropped, and in a few minutes a period was put to his earthly sufferings.

Cardinal was a notary public at Chateaugay, and a member of the House of Assembly in the late Provincial Parliament. Duquette was his clerk, and might have been forced by his employer. We have been frequently asked when and where Lepailleur and Daeharme are to be hanged, but all that we can say, is that we understand their death warrants have been signed by Sir John Colborne, and that it is reported they will be hanged at Beauharnois.

From the Kingston (U. C.) Spectator.
EXECUTION OF PATRIOTS.
The Polish officer Von Schoultz, was executed on Saturday last near Fort Henry.—He said he was ready to meet death, but he did not like the mode of execution. Many of his family had combatant against tyranny, and bled upon the field of battle in favor of the liberties of Poland and other parts of Europe. He complained of being deceived in the cause of the Patriots, as things were different to what had been represented to him. After the action at the Mill, his party was blockaded by land and water, by a large force, a boat was sent from the Americans to bring away the officers, but Von Schoultz would not leave the men behind. When the boat was taken down it was placed in a cart, brought to the Court House, uncovered, and put into a deal coffin unstained, without removing his clothes, again put into a cart, attended by the Priest, some soldiers and Mr. Russel the Gaoler.

Dorephus Abbey the Colonel, and Daniel George the Paymaster, taken near Prescott, were hung on Wednesday at the new drop, back of the Gaol. Very few persons, besides the military, attended the execution. It was thought the execution would be near the Fort, which perhaps was the reason so few persons attended. We are informed they evinced great fortitude; as a proof they were standing on the platform with the greatest firmness, with the caps over their faces until the Sheriff read both warrants, which were long. They were much affected by the cold, and one of them placed his hands in his pockets. Many observed it was improper to expose them to the cold during this ceremony, and thus to interrupt their last thoughts.

Execution of Mr. Woodruff.—The Montreal Herald of the 24th inst. contains the following intelligence:—
Martin Woodruff, one of the American brigades taken at Windmill Point, was hanged at Kingston on Wednesday morning last. He was a native of Salina, Onondaga County, N. Y. and held the situations of Militia Colonel and Deputy Sheriff. He died a Catholic, to which religious persuasion he was recently converted. Warrants for the execution of Sylvanus Swete and Joel Peeler, two other of the brigades, had been received by the Sheriff of the district, and they were to be hanged this morning.

From the Indiana Democrat, Dec. 5.
ROBBERY OF THE MAIL.—The trial of Gen. Win. C. Kuen, late Postmaster at Printers' Retreat, Switzerland county, Indiana, on a charge of embezzling and secreting a letter directed to his Post-Office, and stealing the contents, came on for trial at the United States Circuit Court last week.

The jury, after a short consultation, returned a verdict of guilty. The counsel for the defendant moved the court for a new trial, which, after argument, was continued over until the next Term of this Court, under advisement. The prisoner in the mean time was committed to the custody of the Marshal.

Death from Fear.—A young man at Buffalo, in last stage of consumption, during the recent destructive fire, was so horrified by the noise of the roaring flames, through the wall of the house in which he lay, that he died from pure terror.

OBITUARY.
By the unexpected death of Mrs. Blake, which was announced in our paper last week, a sudden gloom has been thrown over a large circle of friends and acquaintances. A beloved Wife, a kind Mother, an affectionate Daughter, an endearing Sister, an invaluable Friend to the poor, and yet still more, she lived, and will long live, in the salutary influence of her character, her principles, her example as a Christian, her piety, her fervent and cheerful. Her faith strong and unwavering, always so riving by love. Her religion was of the heart and the life; a religion to live by and to die by. In the progress of the truth as it is in Jesus, she felt a very deep interest, and was an active promoter of the cause of her Master; the cause of liberty, honesty and love. She labored to promote the happiness of those within her influence; and few, if any, ever succeeded better than she to accomplish this object. By the gentleness of her manners, the sweetness of her tongue, and the benevolence of her heart, she gained a strong hold on the affections of her acquaintances; and most deeply in her departure lamented by all who knew her. May her afflicted husband and family be supported by the truths and promises of that religion, which guided their deceased friend through life, and fitted her for the purity and bliss of heaven.

FROM HARRISBURG.
The Hon. Jacob Cassatt, Senator from the Adams, Cumberland and Franklin district, was found dead in his bed on Wednesday morning. He retired at night in good health and spirits.

Mr. Wagner, Senator from Philadelphia county, sent in his resignation on Wednesday. From the Harrisburgh Telegraph—Extra.

MON RULZ.—Mr. James Smith, from the county of Philadelphia is now lying at Wilson's Hotel, dangerously ill from the effects of an assault and battery committed upon him by a gang of bullies and blackguards that are now quartered here as witnesses on the part of Mr. Brown of the county, for a seat in the Senate.

Mr. Smith was a member of the House of Representatives from the county of Philadelphia, last year, and was subpoenaed here as a witness in the contested election, by Mr. Hanna. It is said that he possesses important information relative to the frauds that were committed; and as soon as it was known on Monday evening that he had arrived, a gang of the bullies that were foremost in mobbing out the Senate and House of Representatives, started in pursuit, and found with him a brother of his in an oyster cellar, under the public house kept by Mr. Chase, at the corner of Walnut and Third streets, where they rushed in and knocking down Mr. James Smith kicked him, jumped upon him and beat him until they left him for dead. His brother happened to make his escape from them unobserved, and rallied help to rescue him, but before they arrived, he was wetting in his blood, and the assassins had fled. He was removed to Dr. Wilson's in a state of insensibility, and Dr. Rutherford called to his aid; and his life is still despaired of.

Negro Insurrection.—We copy the following from the Nashville Banner of Saturday, the 8th inst. The Franklin Record, received last night, contains a long account of a concerted plot, entered into by a large number of negroes of Williamson and Rutherford counties, to murder all the whites they could on a certain day and take possession of the counties, elect officers to suit themselves, etc. etc. One of the black rascals, a preacher, the property of Mr. Wm. L. King, of Williamson, passed by the title of General. But he had a rival in the person of another rascal in Rutherford who has been electioneering for sheriff of the county, when the whites should have been exterminated.

Galena, Nov. 31.
Land Sales.—We mentioned last week that the land sales at Milwaukee had been postponed. It appears that the President caused a notice to that effect to be published in a Chicago paper, and, probably, sent other notices, by mail, to the land officers at Milwaukee. No such notice, however, was received by them; and that in the newspaper not being deemed of sufficient authority to govern them, they proceeded with the sales. The sales at Quincy have closed. The Whig says that the sales through the week have averaged each day $8000, and on Wednesday they amounted to about $13,000. The whole amount received within the three last weeks, including money paid on pre-empions, will not fall far short of $90,000.

At none of the sales has there been any disposition shown to bid against the settlers.

FRANKLIN PRIMER.
IMPROVED READER.
GENERAL CLASS BOOK, &
POPULAR READER.

These books have been critically examined by our most able Teachers, and most distinguished literary men, and are pronounced, in their adaptation to the wants of Common Schools, for which they are particularly designed, as among the most valuable Books published in the United States.

Says the Hingham Gazette, in reviewing these books: "I have now before me the opinions of twenty-six enlightened judges of the subject, who give it as their decided belief that these Books will be the means of effecting the most happy changes in the system of early education. The certificates are from Presidents, Professors, Tutors, Instructors, &c. of every class and denomination throughout the country."

Progressive Exercises in BOOK KEEPING;
BY SINGLE AND DOUBLE ENTRY; by James H. Coffin, Principal of Fellenberg Academy. This is a new work, designed for use in Common Schools and Academies, and is thought to be a decided improvement. The principles of the science are explained and illustrated in a very simple, natural, and lucid manner, so that they will be readily comprehended by any possessing an ordinary degree of intelligence; and the arrangement and matter are such that the pupil will not only see the relations and uses of the different terms, but he will be compelled to reduce them to practice in a thorough manner. Merchants, and others, qualified to judge, untriedly give it their highest approbation, and recommend it as the best system extant for the use of Common Schools and Academies. It is also exceedingly well adapted for self-instruction. It has been introduced into the High School for Boys at Northampton, by order of the School Committee, and is used in other schools of note.

From Wm. Cobb, Esq. of Warwick, Mass. a Merchant and distinguished Accountant.
"I regard Coffin's system of Book Keeping, I consider it a valuable production, and better suited to the wants of the Country than any other system I have ever examined."
For sale by the publishers, Phelps & Ingersoll, Greenfield, Mass. Also by Joseph Steen, Bottleboro. Dec. 1838. cew3p61

Just arrived from Paris
A Fresh supply of L'Espece Curative PILLS, or Vegetable Universal Medicine of Paris,

MADE BY DR. LEROY, AT HIS ESTABLISHMENT.

THE good effects and universal curative POWER of L'Espece Curative, is now acknowledged by the candid and intelligent part of the community of every descent. In truth, there has been such a universal approval and such a multitude of facts, speaking and proving of its vast superiority over every other medicine, it would be utterly impossible to give publication to them short of many hundred pages. Experience and public opinion is unerring—it is truth; and there can be no appeal—it is power that resists all opposition. Experience and public opinion say, that L'ESPECE CURATIVE possesses this vast power—it is a GIFT, that without envy looks down upon the most celebrated Medicines, from its elevated height. Of this important fact, more than TWENTY THOUSAND people from various parts of the United States of America as well as Europe, can testify. Triumphant has been L'Espece Curative, in every instance, when a thorough trial has been had. It has surmounted obstacles in disease, when other medicines sank powerless; and fine health and strength are the happy result, where a short time previous disease, sickness, debility and constant pain and suffering, made death apparent.

The following extracts are from among the many grateful acknowledgments of those who have received the BLESSING OF HEALTH, by its use:

Sir: The powerful yet gentle Medicine I had of you, is working wondrously in this vicinity. Applications for it are increasing, and have been made in various places in this country. Five young ladies and several gentlemen, have been entirely cured from a consumption, and confirmed in health by the use of the medicine. I shall them—there is no mistake. Physicians that had pronounced them incurable, are among the first to acknowledge their surprise, and have bought of the medicine. J. WILKER, Washington County, N. Y.

From David McCreary, City of N. York, Oct. 1, 1838.
Sir: My wife has been considered of a consumptive habit for two years; last winter she had a sudden and severe attack of pain in her side, and distressed for breath. I immediately called one of our best physicians, who attended carefully upon her. The Doctor as well as myself, finally despairing of her recovery, concluded that she could not continue but a short time, when providentially I heard of the wonderful cures of L'Espece Curative. I was completely faithless, but by the strong solicitation of friends she took it as the last resort, according to directions, in such debilitated cases,—it afforded relief,—her appetite was soon restored, and she continued gradually to gain strength until her health was finally and completely restored;—she has not been better for many years. D. McCREARY.

Sir: I wish you to send me a $50.00 package of L'Espece Curative Pills—it is ahead of every thing here. It has been used with astonishing success here among children, and the first families are buying it.
JOHN D. CLARK, Arguile, N. Y.

Sir: My daughter was very much debilitated—not able to do much work, but has been restored to fine health and strength by the use of L'Espece Curative Pills. G. Browns.

A man in the village of Bottleboro, who can be referred to, has been entirely cured of a Cancer by the use of L'Espece Curative Pills—with the Cancer Powder, that had eaten away a large portion of the flesh of his leg near the ankle to the bone, for two inches in circumference.

The above article is for sale by G. W. EMERSON, of Bottleboro, Vt. Principal agent for the United States of America, and none genuine unless it contains the within signature of G. W. Emerson, to each article.
